Sentence

'This is the day that the Lord has made; let us rejoice and be glad in it.'

Luke 24.34 Psalm 118.24

Prayer of the Day

God of glory, fill your Church with the power
that flows from Christ's resurrection,
that, in the midst of this sinful world,
it may signal the beginning of a renewed humanity,
raised to new life with Christ;
Who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit,
one God, for ever and ever. Amen.

A reading from the Acts of the Apostles Chapter 10, verses 34 – 43

Then Peter began to speak to them: 'I truly understand that God shows no partiality, but in every nation anyone who fears him and does what is right is acceptable to him. You know the message he sent to the people of Israel, preaching peace by Jesus Christ—he is Lord of all. That message spread throughout Judea, beginning in Galilee after the baptism that John announced: how God anointed Jesus of Nazareth with the Holy Spirit and with power; how he went about doing good and healing all who were oppressed by the devil, for God was with him. We are witnesses to all that he did both in Judea and in Jerusalem. They put him to death by hanging him on a tree; but God raised him on the third day and allowed him to appear, not to all the people but to us who were chosen by God as witnesses, and who ate and drank with him after he rose from the dead. He commanded us to preach to the people and to testify that he is the one ordained by God as judge of the living and the dead. All the prophets testify about him that everyone who believes in him receives forgiveness of sins through his name.'

Hymn of the Risen Christ (T.I.S 359)

Alleluia, alleluia, alleluia
Alleluia, alleluia, alleluia

Christ our Passover has been sacrificed for us, so let us celebrate the feast,
not with the old leaven of corruption and wickedness,
but with the unleavened bread of sincerity and truth.

Alleluia, alleluia, alleluia

Christ once raised from the dead dies no more.
Death has no more dominion over him.
In dying he died to sin once for all;
in living he lives to God.

Alleluia, alleluia, alleluia

See yourselves therefore as dead to sin,
and alive to God in Jesus our Lord.
Christ has been raised from the dead,
the first fruits of those who sleep.

Alleluia, alleluia, alleluia

For as by one man came death,
by another has come also resurrection of the dead:
for as in Adam all die,
even so in Christ shall all be made alive.

Alleluia, alleluia, alleluia

A reading from the first letter of Paul to the Corinthians Chapter 15, verses 19 – 26

If for this life only we have hoped in Christ, we are of all people most to be pitied.

But in fact Christ has been raised from the dead, the first fruits of those who have died. For since death came through a human being, the resurrection of the dead has also come through a human being; for as all die in Adam, so all will be made alive in Christ. But each in his own order: Christ the first fruits, then at his coming those who belong to Christ. Then comes the end, when he hands over the kingdom to God the Father, after he has destroyed every ruler and every authority and power. For he must reign until he has put all his enemies under his feet. The last enemy to be destroyed is death.

Hear the word of the Lord
Thanks be to God

Alleluia, alleluia!

Christ has become our paschal sacrifice;
let us feast with joy in the Lord.

Alleluia!

The Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to Luke,
Chapter 24, verses 1 – 12

Glory to you Lord Jesus Christ

But on the first day of the week, at early dawn, they came to the tomb, taking the spices that they had prepared. They found the stone rolled away from the tomb, but when they went in, they did not find the body. While they were perplexed about this, suddenly two men in dazzling clothes stood beside them. The women were terrified and bowed their faces to the ground, but the men said to them, 'Why do you look for the living among the dead? He is not here, but has risen. Remember how he told you, while he was still in Galilee, that the Son of Man must be handed over to sinners, and be crucified, and on the third day rise again.' Then they remembered his words, and returning from the tomb, they told all this to the eleven and to all the rest. Now it was Mary Magdalene, Joanna, Mary the mother of James, and the other women with them who told this to the apostles. But these words seemed to them an idle tale, and they did not believe them. But Peter got up and ran to the tomb; stooping and looking in, he saw the linen cloths by themselves; then he went home, amazed at what had happened.

An early note for your diaries.

WHY DO WE DO HOLY WEEK?

For Christians, Holy Week is a final and intense preparation for Easter that begins on Palm Sunday. We carry palms in procession as a reminder of Jesus' triumphant entry into Jerusalem. Why palms? The palm branch was a symbol of triumph and victory. Jesus' procession was like a modern-day ticker tape parade. The people were celebrating because God had promised them a Messiah. And here he was. On Palm Sunday we read the Passion or Gospel Narrative of Jesus' last hours of earthly life. Christ came to us to establish God's peaceful kingdom in love but within a few days we turned on him.

On Holy Thursday (or Maundy Thursday) in the evening, we read about Jesus' washing the feet of his twelve Apostles. Why the feet washing? Love means serving others. Jesus gets down on his hands and knees, dressed as a slave with a towel around his waist, and serves us, commanding we do the same. "For I have set you an example, that you also should do as I have done to you" (John 13:15). On Holy Thursday we also commemorate the institution of the Eucharist at Jesus' Last Supper. Priests and deacons gather with the Bishop at the Cathedral and re-commit to their vows of service as we are reminded that Jesus continues serving us through the gift of the Eucharist. The oils for the sacraments are blessed at this special Chrism Mass during Holy Week.

On Good Friday Christians remember Jesus' crucifixion and death. On this day we do not celebrate the Eucharist but gather to recall Jesus' Passion, to pray for the world, and to venerate the cross. Veneration of the cross is done by approaching the cross and kneeling, kissing, standing or touching it out of respect. Why venerate the cross? As a piece of cloth (like a flag) is cherished for what it symbolises, a simple wooden cross is revered as a sign of Christ's victory. We receive Holy Communion using the Sacrament reserved from the Maundy Thursday Eucharist.

Holy Saturday – After letting go, before something new, there is an awkward in-between, Christ is in the tomb. When night falls, we celebrate the Easter Vigil. New members are often initiated into the Church through baptism and/or confirmation and the community renews their baptismal vows, committing themselves to continue Jesus' work of building God's Kingdom through love.

Easter Day is not just the culmination of Holy Week but the beginning of a whole new way of life. Every time we celebrate Mass we celebrate these events; every Sunday is Easter. Every communion is a resurrection. Jesus' love, service, and sacrifice present to us. Always. Come along and have a blessed Holy Week and a Happy Easter!

Pew Reflections

Easter Day

– Sunday 21 April 2019

- Acts 10.34-43 or Isaiah 65.17-25;
Psalm 118.1-2. 14-24 or the Easter Anthems;
1 Corinthians 15.19-26 or Acts 10.34-43;
John 20.1-18 or Luke 24.1-12

Hope: 'By God's great mercy he has given us a new birth into a living hope through the resurrection of Jesus Christ from the dead, and into an inheritance that is imperishable, undefiled, and unfading, kept in heaven for you, who are being protected by the power of God through faith for a salvation ready to be revealed in the last time.' (1 Peter 1:3-5)

- Give thanks for the living hope we have in our Lord Jesus Christ, the Death of Death, and Hell's Destruction as the famous Welsh hymn puts it.
- Give thanks for the Nippon Sei Ko Kai, the Anglican Church in Japan, remembering especially today their ministry in a predominantly non-Christian context.
