Prayer and anointing for healing are available at each Eucharist. If you would like prayer and anointing, please move in front of the step, at the left side of the altar, after receiving communion and a priest will come and minister to you.

Sentence

And all the angels sang, 'Amen! Blessing and glory and wisdom and thanksgiving and power and might be to our God for ever and ever! Amen.'

Revelation 7.12

Prayer of the Day

Everlasting God,
you have ordained and constituted in a wonderful order
the ministries of angels and mortals:
grant that, as your holy angels stand before you in heaven,
so at your command
they may help and defend us here on earth;
through Jesus Christ our Lord.
who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit,
one God, now and for ever. Amen.

Harvest Festival - Prayer of the Day

Bountiful God,
you crown the year with your goodness and give us the fruits of the earth in due season: give us grateful hearts
that we may sincerely thank you for all your loving kindness,
and truly care for your creation;
through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen

A reading from Daniel
Chapter 7, verses 9 – 10 & 13 – 14

As I watched,
thrones were set in place,
 and an Ancient One took his throne;
his clothing was white as snow,
 and the hair of his head like pure wool;
his throne was fiery flames,
 and its wheels were burning fire.
A stream of fire issued
 and flowed out from his presence.
A thousand thousand served him,
 and ten thousand times ten thousand stood attending him.
The court sat in judgement,
 and the books were opened.

As I watched in the night visions,
I saw one like a human being coming with the clouds of heaven.
And he came to the Ancient One
 and was presented before him.
To him was given dominion
 and glory and kingship,
that all peoples, nations, and languages
 should serve him.
His dominion is an everlasting dominion
 that shall not pass away,
and his kingship is one that shall never be destroyed.

Hear the Word of the Lord
Thanks be to God

Psalm 138

I will give you thanks, O Lord, with my whole heart:
even before the gods will I sing your praises.

I will bow down toward your holy temple
and give thanks to your name:
because of your faithfulness and your loving-kindness,
for you have made your name and your word
supreme over all things.

At a time when I called to you, you gave me answer:
and put new strength within my soul.

All the kings of the earth shall praise you, O Lord:
for they have heard the words of your mouth;

And they shall sing of the ways of the Lord:
that the glory of the Lord is great.

For though the Lord is exalted, he looks upon the lowly:
and he comprehends the proud from afar.

Though I walk in the midst of danger,
yet will you preserve my life:

you will stretch out your hand against the fury of my enemies,
and your right hand shall save me.

The Lord will complete his purpose for me:
your loving-kindness, O Lord, endures for ever;
do not forsake the work of your own hands.

A reading from Revelation

Chapter 12. verse 7 – 12a

And war broke out in heaven; Michael and his angels fought against the dragon. The dragon and his angels fought back, ⁸but they were defeated, and there was no longer any place for them in heaven. ⁹The great dragon was thrown down, that ancient serpent, who is called the Devil and Satan, the deceiver of the whole world—he was thrown down to the earth, and his angels were thrown down with him.

Then I heard a loud voice in heaven, proclaiming,
'Now have come the salvation and the power
and the kingdom of our God
and the authority of his Messiah,
for the accuser of our comrades has been thrown down,
who accuses them day and night before our God.
But they have conquered him by the blood of the Lamb
and by the word of their testimony, for they did not cling to life even in the face of death.
Rejoice then, you heavens
and those who dwell in them!

Hear the Word of the Lord
Thanks be to God

Alleluia, alleluia!
Bless the Lord, all you angels,
his ministers who do his will.
Alleluia!

The Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to John,
chapter 1, verse 45-51

Glory to you Lord Jesus Christ

Philip found Nathanael and said to him, 'We have found him about whom Moses in the law and also the prophets wrote, Jesus son of Joseph from Nazareth.' Nathanael said to him, 'Can anything good come out of Nazareth?' Philip said to him, 'Come and see.' When Jesus saw Nathanael coming towards him, he said of him, 'Here is truly an Israelite in whom there is no deceit!' Nathanael asked him, 'Where did you come to know me?' Jesus answered, 'I saw you under the fig tree before Philip called you.' Nathanael replied, 'Rabbi, you are the Son of God! You are the King of Israel!' Jesus answered, 'Do you believe because I told you that I saw you under the fig tree? You will see greater things than these.' And he said to him, 'Very truly, I tell you, you will see heaven opened and the angels of God ascending and descending upon the Son of Man.'

For the Gospel of the Lord

Praise to you Lord Jesus Christ

Please pray for

Kyara Newport, Mike Gosling, Shirley Taylor, Isobel Horsley, Barbara Matthews, Maureen H, Jean Easy, Paul Naylor, Patricia Bailey, Ken Hope, Bill Howard, Norman Williams, Emma Horton, Mandy, Joel, Julie, Paul C, Jackie Davidson, Emmanuel C, Mary Pratt, Michelle and Fr Jonathon Ewer.

'Whispers of Love' Meditation –

Reflection

“And in this he showed me a little thing, the quantity of a hazel nut, lying in the palm of my hand, as it seemed. And it was as round as any ball. I looked upon it with the eye of my understanding, and thought, ‘What may this be?’ And it was answered generally thus, ‘It is all that is made.’ I marvelled how it might last, for I thought it might suddenly have fallen to nothing for littleness. And I was answered in my understanding: It lasts and ever shall, for God loves it. And so have all things their beginning by the love of God.

In this little thing I saw three properties. The first is that God made it. The second that God loves it. And the third, that God keeps it.”
— Julian of Norwich, Revelations of Divine Love

Prayerfully Reverend Ann

Co-Ordinator Role

We are looking for someone who is interested in assisting in the role as Market Day Co-Ordinator. The Co-Ordinator role is one of communicating, organising and planning for the Market Days and is the first point of contact for the volunteers. The role involves arranging volunteers for each of the stalls, ensuring the volunteers are aware of the WHS (work health and safety) related to Market Days, ensure volunteers sign in on Market Days and generally supervising the activities each Market Day on site. The Co-Ordinator is also the point of contact with Parish Council. It is important to note the Co-Ordinator is not the person expected to do heavy lifting etc. If you are interested in helping, please speak with Terry Rowe.

Market Days - 19th October and 16th November 2019

We will be needing some additional help with the Friday set up and Saturday clear up for the Market Days to be held in October and November. Neil Ewer, who does a large amount of work for the set up and clear up each Market Day, will be away on holidays and we are looking for people who can help whilst Neil is away. If you are able to help, please speak with Terry Rowe.

Prayer of the week

O God,
you declare your almighty power
chiefly in showing mercy and pity:
mercifully grant us such a measure of your grace
that, running in the way of your commandments,
we may obtain your gracious promises,
and be made partakers of your heavenly treasure;
through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen

THE ECONOMY IS MORE THAN MONEY

The Greek word for household is oikos. The oikonomia from which we get our word 'economy' was the administration or management of the household. We have been conditioned to limit 'economy' to the financial realm. The Christian view of life and the world sees all things as interconnected and interwoven. Faith and finances are not separate compartments. Issuing from a limited view of economy is a subtle temptation, in both the Church and the world, to regard people as nothing more than consumers, functionaries or tools to be used and manipulated in reaching a goal or a strategy or a personal vision. This utilitarian approach to humanity at its most extreme is what led Nazi scientists to carry out inhuman experiments on inmates at Dachau and Auschwitz. As citizens of the Kingdom of God, our attitude to the world and the Church as true oikonomia, or economies or households will be reflected in the way we act as stewards or managers – oikonomoi – of all that's been entrusted to us by God. A utilitarian view of humanity will have no place in the way people are treated, especially in the Church. Instead, people will be treated as those created in the image of God and according to Jesus' great commandment to love our neighbour as ourselves. Then they will be free – and motivated – to invest their resources material and spiritual in the work of God's kingdom.

Pew Reflections

The Fifteenth Sunday After Pentecost [Pentecost 15] – Sunday 22 September 2019

- Daniel 7.9-10, 13-14; Psalm 138;
Revelation 12.7-12a; John 1.45-51

St Michael frequently appears on the tops of spires in Europe and on buildings on high places such as Mont St Michel in France and St Michael's Tower on Glastonbury Tor in England. And there is a dramatic representation of the event described in the 2nd Reading on the wall of Coventry Cathedral.

However, the 'supreme' authority belongs to the 'Ancient One' whom the angels serve and the 'one like a human being'/'God and his Messiah'/the one recognised by Nathanael as 'the Son of God' and 'the King of Israel'.

- Give thanks that we can share in the conquest of Satan 'by the blood of the Lamb' and by our faithful 'testimony' (witness) to our 'exalted' Lord who gives us the strength to do so.
- Pray for the work and witness of all institutions and churches dedicated to St Michael.
