Prayer and anointing for healing are available at each Eucharist. If you would like prayer and anointing, please move in front of the step, at the left side of the altar, after receiving communion and a priest will come and minister to you.

Sentence

What shall I return to the Lord for all his bounty to me? I will lift up the cup of salvation and call on the name of the Lord, I will pay my vows to the Lord in the presence of all his people.

Psalm 116. 12-14

Prayer of the Day

O God,
you have made heaven and earth
and all that is good:
help us to delight in simple things
and to rejoice always in the richness of your bounty;
through Jesus Christ our Lord,
who lives and reigns with you and in the unity of the Holy Spirit,
one God, for ever and ever. Amen.

A reading from 2 Kings Chapter 5, verses 1 – 3, 7 – 15c.

Naaman, commander of the army of the king of Aram, was a great man and in high favour with his master, because by him the Lord had given victory to Aram. The man, though a mighty warrior, suffered from leprosy. Now the Arameans on one of their raids had taken a young girl captive from the land of Israel, and she served Naaman's wife. She said to her mistress, 'If only my lord were with the prophet who is in Samaria! He would cure him of his leprosy.'

When the king of Israel read the letter, he tore his clothes and said, 'Am I God, to give death or life, that this man sends word to me to cure a man of his leprosy? Just look and see how he is trying to pick a quarrel with me.'

But when Elisha the man of God heard that the king of Israel had torn his clothes, he sent a message to the king, 'Why have you torn your clothes? Let him come to me, that he may learn that there is a prophet in Israel.' So Naaman came with his horses and chariots, and halted at the entrance of Elisha's house. Elisha sent a messenger to him, saying, 'Go, wash in the Jordan seven times, and your flesh shall be restored and you shall be clean.' But Naaman became angry and went away, saying, 'I thought that for me he would surely come out, and stand and call on the name of the LORD his God, and would wave his hand over the spot, and cure the leprosy! Are not Abana and Pharpar, the rivers of Damascus, better than all the waters of Israel? Could I not wash in them, and be clean?' He turned and went away in a rage. But his servants approached and said to him, 'Father, if the prophet had commanded you to do something difficult, would you not have done it? How much more, when all he said to you was, "Wash, and be clean"?' So he went down and immersed himself seven times in the Jordan, according to the word of the man of God; his flesh was restored like the flesh of a young boy, and he was clean.

Then he returned to the man of God, he and all his company; he came and stood before him and said, 'Now I know that there is no God in all the earth except in Israel; please accept a present from your servant.'

Hear the Word of the Lord
Thanks be to God

Psalm 111

O praise the Lord. I will praise the Lord
with my whole heart:
in the company of the upright
and among the congregation.

The works of the Lord are great:
and studied by all who take delight in them.

His deeds are majestic and glorious:
and his righteousness stands for ever.

His marvellous acts have won him a name
to be remembered:
the Lord is gracious and merciful.

He gives food to those that fear him:
he remembers his covenant for ever.

He showed his people the power of his acts:
in giving them the heritage of the heathen.

The works of his hands are faithful and just:
and all his commandments are sure;

They stand firm for ever and ever:
they are done in faithfulness and in truth.

He sent redemption to his people,
he ordained his covenant for ever:
holy is his name and worthy to be feared.

The fear of the Lord is the beginning of wisdom,
and of good understanding are those that keep his commandments:

his praise shall endure for ever.

A reading from the second Letter of Paul to Timothy
Chapter 2, verses 8 – 15

Remember Jesus Christ, raised from the dead, a descendant of David—that is my gospel, for which I suffer hardship, even to the point of being chained like a criminal. But the word of God is not chained. Therefore I endure everything for the sake of the elect, so that they may also obtain the salvation that is in Christ Jesus, with eternal glory. The saying is sure:
If we have died with him, we will also live with him;
if we endure, we will also reign with him;
if we deny him, he will also deny us;
if we are faithless, he remains faithful—
for he cannot deny himself.

Remind them of this, and warn them before God that they are to avoid wrangling over words, which does no good but only ruins those who are listening. Do your best to present yourself to God as one approved by him, a worker who has no need to be ashamed, rightly explaining the word of truth.

Hear the Word of the Lord
Thanks be to God

Alleluia, alleluia!

For all things give thanks to God,
because this is what he expects of you in Christ Jesus.

Alleluia!

The Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to Luke,
chapter 17, verses 11-19

Glory to you Lord Jesus Christ

On the way to Jerusalem Jesus was going through the region between Samaria and Galilee. As he entered a village, ten lepers approached him. Keeping their distance, they called out, saying, 'Jesus, Master, have mercy on us!' When he saw them, he said to them, 'Go and show yourselves to the priests.' And as they went, they were made clean. Then one of them, when he saw that he was healed, turned back, praising God with a loud voice. He prostrated himself at Jesus' feet and thanked him. And he was a Samaritan. Then Jesus asked, 'Were not ten made clean? But the other nine, where are they? Was none of them found to return and give praise to God except this foreigner?' Then he said to him, 'Get up and go on your way; your faith has made you well.'

'Whispers of Love' Meditation –

Reflection

In every moment of every day, God is giving to us, blessing us, loving us and caring for us. With every breath we take, God is offering us a gift - it might be the gift of love or peace or joy, or the gift of courage or strength or healing. It might be the gift of growth and change, challenge and new opportunity, or the gift of insight and understanding. In every moment, God's gift is there for us. It might come to us in a word or touch, a feeling or thought, or an experience we share with others. God's gift might be in something you see or hear, or something you do. Today's Word is an invitation to you to be open to every moment of life and to receive the gift that God is offering to you in this moment.

Prayerfully Reverend Ann

Samaritans Relief Fund Donations

As well as the usual donations, the following items would be most appreciated; toothbrushes, toothpaste, deodorant, shampoo and soap, however, no more blankets are required. Thank you.

Market Day Notices

Co-Ordinator Role

We are looking for someone who is interested in assisting in the role as Market Day Co-Ordinator. The Co-Ordinator role is one of communicating, organising and planning for the Market Days and is the first point of contact for the volunteers. The role involves arranging volunteers for each of the stalls, ensuring the volunteers are aware of the WHS (work health and safety) related to Market Days, ensure volunteers sign in on Market Days and generally supervising the activities each Market Day on site. The Co-Ordinator is also the point of contact with Parish Council. It is important to note the Co-Ordinator is not the person expected to do heavy lifting etc. If you are interested in helping, please speak with Terry Rowe.

Market Days - 19th October and 16th November 2019

We will be needing some additional help with the Friday set up and Saturday clear up for the Market Days to be held in October and November. Neil Ewer, who does a large amount of work for the set up and clear up each Market Day, will be away on holidays and we are looking for people who can help whilst Neil is away. If you are able to help, please speak with Terry Rowe.

Prayer of the week

Almighty God,
in your wisdom you have so ordered our earthly life
that we must walk by faith and not by sight:
give us such trust in your fatherly care
that in the face of all perplexities
we may give proof of our faith by the courage of our lives;
through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen

Pew Reflections

The Eighteenth Sunday After Pentecost [Pentecost 18] – Sunday 13 October 2019

- Jeremiah 29.1, 4-7; Psalm 66.1-11;
2 Timothy 2.(1-7) 8-15; Luke 17.11-19

The Samaritan leper was the only one of the ten whom Jesus healed to give him thanks for being restored to full health. Let our prayer each day this week be one of thanks for all God has done for us in our lives.

- Give thanks for everything that Jesus has done for you from your childhood until now.
- Give thanks for the work and witness of the Church of the Province of South East Asia.
