Sentence

Today salvation has come to this house, for the Son of Man came to seek out and to save the lost.

Luke 19. 10

Prayer of the Day

Merciful God,
righteous Judge of all,
who sent Jesus among us to seek and to save
those who are lost:
grant that we may eagerly seek the Saviour,
and joyfully welcome him into our homes and lives.
We ask this through Jesus Christ our Lord, who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit,
one God, now and for ever. Amen.

A reading from Isaiah Chapter 1 Verse 10–18

Hear the word of the LORD, you rulers of Sodom!
Listen to the teaching of our God, you people of Gomorrah! What to me is the multitude of your sacrifices? says the LORD; I have had enough of burnt-offerings of rams and the fat of fed beasts;
I do not delight in the blood of bulls, or of lambs, or of goats.
When you come to appear before me, who asked this from your hand? Trample my courts no more; bringing offerings is futile; incense is an abomination to me. New moon and sabbath and calling of convocation— I cannot endure solemn assemblies with iniquity. Your new moons and your appointed festivals my soul hates; they have become a burden to me, I am weary of bearing them. When you stretch out your hands, I will hide my eyes from you; even though you make many prayers, I will not listen; your hands are full of blood.

Wash yourselves; make yourselves clean; remove the evil of your doings from before my eyes; cease to do evil, learn to do good; seek justice, rescue the oppressed, defend the orphan, plead for the widow.

Come now, let us argue it out, says the LORD: though your sins are like scarlet, they shall be like snow; though they are red like crimson, they shall become like wool. If you are willing and obedient, you shall eat the good of the land; but if you refuse and rebel, you shall be devoured by the sword; for the mouth of the LORD has spoken.

Hear the word of the Lord

Thanks be to God

Psalm 32. 1 – 8

Blessed are those whose sin is forgiven:
whose iniquity is put away.

Blessed are those to whom the Lord imputes no blame:
and in whose spirit there is no guile.

For whilst I held my tongue:
my bones wasted away with my daily complaining.

Your hand was heavy upon me day and night:
and my moisture was dried up like a drought in summer.

Then I acknowledged my sin to you:
and my iniquity I did not hide;

I said 'I will confess my transgressions to the Lord': and so you forgave the wickedness of my sin.

For this cause shall everyone that is faithful make their prayer to you in the day of trouble:
and in the time of the great water-flood,
it shall not come near them.

You are a place to hide me in,
you will preserve me from trouble:
you will surround me with deliverance on every side.

The Second Letter of Paul to the Thessalonians
2 Thessalonians 1 verses 1-4, 11-12

Paul, Silvanus, and Timothy,

To the church of the Thessalonians in God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ:

Grace to you and peace from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ.

We must always give thanks to God for you, brothers and sisters, as is right, because your faith is growing abundantly, and the love of every one of you for one another is increasing. Therefore we ourselves boast of you among the churches of God for your steadfastness and faith during all your persecutions and the afflictions that you are enduring.

To this end we always pray for you, asking that our God will make you worthy of his call and will fulfil by his power every good resolve and work of faith, so that the name of our Lord Jesus may be glorified in you, and you in him, according to the grace of our God and the Lord Jesus Christ.

Hear the word of the Lord

Thanks be to God

Alleluia, alleluia!

God loved the world so much, he gave his only Son,
that all who believe in him might have eternal life.

Alleluia!

The Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to Luke, chapter 19 verse 1-10

Glory to you Lord Jesus Christ

He entered Jericho and was passing through it. A man was there named Zacchaeus; he was a chief tax-collector and was rich. He was trying to see who Jesus was, but on account of the crowd he could not, because he was short in stature. So he ran ahead and climbed a sycamore tree to see him, because he was going to pass that way. When Jesus came to the place, he looked up and said to him, 'Zacchaeus, hurry and come down; for I must stay at your house today.' So he hurried down and was happy to welcome him. All who saw it began to grumble and said, 'He has gone to be the guest of one who is a sinner.' Zacchaeus stood there and said to the Lord, 'Look, half of my possessions, Lord, I will give to the poor; and if I have defrauded anyone of anything, I will pay back four times as much.' Then Jesus said to him, 'Today salvation has come to this house, because he too is a son of Abraham. For the Son of Man came to seek out and to save the lost.'

Praise to you Lord Jesus Christ

'Whispers of Love' Meditation –

Reflection

To be silent with another person is truly to be with that other person.

Nothing is so powerful in building mutual confidence than an easeful and creative silence.

BISHOP'S VISIT

We are privileged to have The Right Rev'd Charlie Murry, Assistant Bishop of Newcastle, presiding and preaching at both our liturgies this morning. He will be meeting with Parish Council after the 9.30 service, too. We are grateful to him and assure him of our prayers in his episcopal ministry to our Diocese.

MELBOURNE CUP LUNCHEON PREPARATIONS

We will be setting up for the Melbourne Cup lunch at 11.30am, Monday 3rd November. It would be appreciated, if any members of Women's Fellowship who are available at that time, could give us a helping hand to decorate the tables and set up.

Please let Betty Hancock, Lesley Gosling or Bev Broadley know if you're going to be available. Many thanks for your anticipated help.

Dinner at Terrigal Bowling Club tonight

Please join us for dinner at Terrigal Bowling Club at 'Bec's Kitchen' tonight, Sunday 3rd November, from 6pm. If you are interested, please add your name to the sign-up sheet on the notice board.

We would love to see you there.

CHORAL EVENSONG - 27 OCTOBER 2019

A large congregation gathered last Sunday at 3:00pm to attend a service of Choral Evensong, according to the Book of Common Prayer. The service was led by Fr Mark who also preached.

The music was performed by The Cathedral Singers (an independent choir from Sydney) under the able direction of Jim Abrams FRCO.

It is worth noting that 'once upon a time' this kind of service was conducted every week when most parishes had choirs. It was 'nothing out of the ordinary'.

Also capably assisting at our Choral Evensong was Ian Cox, playing the trumpet. Ian composed a number of trumpet descants for the hymns and did so specifically for this service. His musicianship is of the highest order.

For the recessional, Jim and Ian joined forces to play George Frederick Handel's Hornpipe.

Following the service, the congregation and musicians joined together in the refectory for afternoon tea.

I would like to extend my thanks to all who came to the service and to those who generously assisted with the afternoon tea.

Chris Sillince

Prayer of the week

God our Father,
whose will it is to bring all things
to order and unity in our Lord Jesus Christ:
may all the peoples of the world,
now divided and torn apart by sin,
be brought together under his sovereign rule of love;
through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen

Pew Reflections

The Twenty-First Sunday After Pentecost [Pentecost 21] – Sunday 3 November 2019

- Daniel 7.1-3; Psalm 149;
Ephesians 1.11-23; Luke 6.20-31

Today Jesus tells us to love our enemies, do good to those who hate us, bless those who curse us, pray for those who abuse us. As the Burt Bacharach song says, What the world needs now is love, sweet love, No, not just for some but for everyone. It's as true now as it was in Jesus' day. Not just for some but for everyone.

- Give thanks for God's love and forgiveness in your life and pray that you can reflect them to others, no matter how badly they may have treated you in the past, no matter how deep your hurt.
- Give thanks for the work and witness of the Church of the Province of Myanmar.
