Sentence

Rejoice greatly, O daughter of Zion! Shout aloud, O daughter of Jerusalem! Lo, your king comes to you; triumphant and victorious is he, humble and riding on a donkey, on a colt, the foal of a donkey.

Zechariah 9.9

Prayer of the Day

Eternal God,
you exalted Jesus Christ to rule over all things,
and have made us instruments of his kingdom:
by your Spirit empower us to love the unloved,
and to minister to all in need,
then at the last bring us to your eternal realm
where we may be welcomed into your everlasting joy and may worship and adore you for ever;
through Jesus Christ our Lord,
who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit,
one God, for ever and ever. Amen.

A reading from Jeremiah Chapter 23 verse 1-6

Woe to the shepherds who destroy and scatter the sheep of my pasture! says the Lord. Therefore, thus says the Lord, the God of Israel, concerning the shepherds who shepherd my people: It is you who have scattered my flock, and have driven them away, and you have not attended to them. So I will attend to you for your evil doings, says the Lord. Then I myself will gather the remnant of my flock out of all the lands where I have driven them, and I will bring them back to their fold, and they shall be fruitful and multiply. I will raise up shepherds over them who will shepherd them, and they shall not fear any longer, or be dismayed, nor shall any be missing, says the Lord.

The days are surely coming, says the Lord, when I will raise up for David a righteous Branch, and he shall reign as king and deal wisely, and shall execute justice and righteousness in the land. In his days Judah will be saved and Israel will live in safety. And this is the name by which he will be called: 'The Lord is our righteousness.'

Psalm 46

God is our refuge and strength:
a very present help in trouble.

Therefore we will not fear, though the earth be moved:
and though the mountains are shaken
in the midst of the sea;

Though the waters rage and foam:
and though the mountains quake at the rising of the sea.

There is a river whose streams make glad the city of God:
the holy dwelling-place of the Most High.

God is in the midst of her,
therefore she shall not be moved:
God will help her, and at break of day.

The nations make uproar, and the kingdoms are shaken:
but God has lifted his voice, and the earth shall tremble.

*The Lord of hosts is with us:
the God of Jacob is our stronghold.*

Come then and see what the Lord has done:
what destruction he has brought upon the earth.

He makes wars to cease in all the world:
he breaks the bow and shatters the spear,

and burns the chariots in the fire.

'Be still, and know that I am God:
I will be exalted among the nations, I will be exalted upon the earth.'

*The Lord of hosts is with us:
the God of Jacob is our stronghold.*

A reading from the letter of Paul to the Colossians Chapter 1 verse 11-20

May you be made strong with all the strength that comes from his glorious power, and may you be prepared to endure everything with patience, while joyfully giving thanks to the Father, who has enabled you to share in the inheritance of the saints in the light. He has rescued us from the power of darkness and transferred us into the kingdom of his beloved Son, in whom we have redemption, the forgiveness of sins.

He is the image of the invisible God, the firstborn of all creation; for in him all things in heaven and on earth were created, things visible and invisible, whether thrones or dominions or rulers or powers—all things have been created through him and for him. He himself is before all things, and in him all things hold together. He is the head of the body, the church; he is the beginning, the firstborn from the dead, so that he might come to have first place in everything. For in him all the fullness of God was pleased to dwell, and through him God was pleased to reconcile to himself all things, whether on earth or in heaven, by making peace through the blood of his cross.

Hear the word of the Lord

Thanks be to God

Alleluia, alleluia!

Blessed is he who inherits the kingdom of David our father;
blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord.

Alleluia!

The Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to Luke, chapter 23 verse 33-43

Glory to you Lord Jesus Christ

When they came to the place that is called The Skull, they crucified Jesus there with the criminals, one on his right and one on his left. [[Then Jesus said, 'Father, forgive them; for they do not know what they are doing.']] And they cast lots to divide his clothing. And the people stood by, watching; but the leaders scoffed at him, saying, 'He saved others; let him save himself if he is the Messiah of God, his chosen one!' The soldiers also mocked him, coming up and offering him sour wine, and saying, 'If you are the King of the Jews, save yourself!' There was also an inscription over him, 'This is the King of the Jews.'

One of the criminals who were hanged there kept deriding him and saying, 'Are you not the Messiah? Save yourself and us!' But the other rebuked him, saying, 'Do you not fear God, since you are under the same sentence of condemnation? And we indeed have been condemned justly, for we are getting what we deserve for our deeds, but this man has done nothing wrong.' Then he said, 'Jesus, remember me when you come into your kingdom.' He replied, 'Truly I tell you, today you will be with me in Paradise.'

Christmas Bowl

Dedication of the Christmas Bowl.

Australian Churches, through the Christmas Bowl, have acted together to bring peace and hope into the world. Help us continue to act for peace.

As children of God we will share this year's bowl, with people who are displaced, oppressed or living in poverty. May their lives be filled with hope and peace.

Gracious and ever-loving God,
Open our hearts so we may courageously act for peace in the world.

Open our hands to share what we have with those who have little.

As we dedicate this bowl, may it be filled with the fruits of hope, peace, joy and love.

So all people may know your goodness and receive your grace.

Amen.

God's Love in Action.

Seventy years ago, millions of refugees were starving in war-ravaged Europe. And as Reverend Frank Byatt looked at his heavily-laden Christmas dinner table, the contrast between this abundance and the needs of others around the world could not have been more stark.

So he called on his congregation to put a bowl on their Christmas dinner table and make a generous gift to share their good fortune with "hungry children in other lands."

This was the first Christmas Bowl. Today the Christmas Bowl appeal has become a powerful outpouring of love and compassion from our Christian communities here at home.

From providing relief for World War II refugees to bringing life-giving water to families in drought-stricken South Sudan today, you have responded with God's love during some of the most urgent crises of our time.

Thank you for joining the Christmas Bowl, so together we can stand-up to injustice and care for our brothers and sisters in need around the world.

Coralie Taylor - Mission Secretary.

Prayer of the week

Stir up, we pray you, O Lord,
the wills of your faithful people,
that they, plenteously bringing forth the fruit of good works,
may by you be plenteously rewarded;
through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

CHRIST THE KING

Recently, John Henry Newman was canonized as a saint. The Prince of Wales, who attended the Canonization Mass in St Peter's Square in Rome, said we need people like Newman who can draw together in a world of division. Yes, he did leave the Church of England to become a Roman Catholic, eventually being made a cardinal. He began what came to be known as the Oxford Movement in the Church of England. This movement eventually gave birth to what later became known as Anglo-Catholicism within the Anglican Communion.

Newman and others, like John Keble sought to call the Church back to its apostolic foundation, rather than seeing its legitimacy as dependent on the State. Devotion to the basics of church life, such as constancy in prayer and worship, receiving the sacraments, care for the poor and needy, and proclamation and teaching, were emphasised.

It also saw the revival of many features that had been lost at the time of the Reformation, such as men's and women's religious communities, the centrality of the Eucharist in the church's worship, greater attention to the church's liturgical life, and engagement in social issues such as working in the slums of London.

With the division we see in the church and the world, we would do well to heed their call back to the basics of living as disciples of Christ. Today we celebrate the kingship of Christ. There are many competing voices – consumerism, atheism - clamouring for our attention. Let's heed the voice of Jesus calling us to prayer, mission and proclamation. Many would lead us to believe our Communion is on the verge of schism. Let us return to our apostolic foundation, leaving minor matters aside, trusting the promise of Jesus that the Spirit would lead us into all truth.

Pew Reflections
Last Sunday After Pentecost
[Christ the King]
– Sunday 24 November 2019

- Jeremiah 23.1-6; A Song of Zechariah (APBA pp 10, 425) or Psalm 46; Colossians 1.11-20; Luke 23.33-43

Today we see what Jesus' kingship is about, and it's quite the opposite of the sort of monarchy that we might see, say, in the Downton Abbey film: Fulfilled is now what David told / in true prophetic song of old, / how God the nations' King should be; / for God is reigning from the Tree. Jesus our King has given up his life so that we might win eternal life with him.

- Pray that Jesus may be king of your heart.
- Give thanks for the work and witness of the Episcopal Church in the Philippines.
