Sentence

A voice came from heaven, saying, 'This is my Son, the Beloved, with whom I am well pleased.'

Matthew 3.17

Prayer of the Day

Eternal God,
at the Baptism of Jesus in the river Jordan
you proclaimed him your beloved Son,
and anointed him with the Holy Spirit:
grant that all who are baptised into his name
may keep the covenant they have made,
and boldly confess him as Lord and Saviour;
who with you and the Holy Spirit lives and reigns,
one God, in glory everlasting. Amen.

Isaiah 42.1-9

Here is my servant, whom I uphold,
my chosen, in whom my soul delights;
I have put my spirit upon him;
he will bring forth justice to the nations.
He will not cry or lift up his voice,
or make it heard in the street;
a bruised reed he will not break,
and a dimly burning wick he will not quench;
he will faithfully bring forth justice.
He will not grow faint or be crushed
until he has established justice in the earth;
and the coastlands wait for his teaching.
Thus says God, the Lord,
who created the heavens and stretched them out,
who spread out the earth and what comes from it,
who gives breath to the people upon it
and spirit to those who walk in it:
I am the Lord, I have called you in righteousness,
I have taken you by the hand and kept you;

I have given you as a covenant to the people,
a light to the nations,
to open the eyes that are blind,
to bring out the prisoners from the dungeon,
from the prison those who sit in darkness.
I am the Lord, that is my name;
my glory I give to no other,
nor my praise to idols.
See, the former things have come to pass,
and new things I now declare;
before they spring forth,
I tell you of them.

Hear the word of the Lord
Thanks be to God

Psalm 29

Ascribe to the Lord, you powers of heaven:
ascribe to the Lord glory and might.

Ascribe to the Lord the honour due to his name:
O worship the Lord in the beauty of his holiness.

The voice of the Lord is upon the waters:
the God of glory thunders,
the Lord upon the great waters.

The voice of the Lord is mighty in operation:
the voice of the Lord is a glorious voice.

The voice of the Lord breaks the cedar-trees:
the Lord breaks in pieces the cedars of Lebanon.

He makes them skip like a calf:
Lebanon and Sirion like a young wild ox.

The voice of the Lord divides the lightning-flash:
the voice of the Lord whirls the sands of the desert,
the Lord whirls the desert of Kadesh.

The voice of the Lord rends the terebinth trees,
and strips bare the forests:
in his temple all cry 'Glory.'

The Lord sits enthroned above the water-flood:
the Lord sits enthroned as a king for ever.

The Lord will give strength to his people:
the Lord will give to his people the blessing of peace.

Acts 10.34-43

Then Peter began to speak to them: 'I truly understand that God shows no partiality, but in every nation anyone who fears him and does what is right is acceptable to him. You know the message he sent to the people of Israel, preaching peace by Jesus Christ—he is Lord of all. That message spread throughout Judea, beginning in Galilee after the baptism that John announced: how God anointed Jesus of Nazareth with the Holy Spirit and with power; how he went about doing good and healing all who were oppressed by the devil, for God was with him. We are witnesses to all that he did both in Judea and in Jerusalem. They put him to death by hanging him on a tree; but God raised him on the third day and allowed him to appear, not to all the people but to us who were chosen by God as witnesses, and who ate and drank with him after he rose from the dead. He commanded us to preach to the people and to testify that he is the one ordained by God as judge of the living and the dead. All the prophets testify about him that everyone who believes in him receives forgiveness of sins through his name.'

Hear the word of the Lord

Thanks be to God

Alleluia, alleluia!

The heavens were opened and the Father's voice was heard:
this is my beloved Son, hear him.

Alleluia!

Matthew 3.13-17

Glory to you Lord Jesus Christ

Then Jesus came from Galilee to John at the Jordan, to be baptized by him. John would have prevented him, saying, 'I need to be baptized by you, and do you come to me?' But Jesus answered him, 'Let it be so now; for it is proper for us in this way to fulfil all righteousness.' Then he consented. And when Jesus had been baptized, just as he came up from the water, suddenly the heavens were opened to him and he saw the Spirit of God descending like a dove and alighting on him. And a voice from heaven said, 'This is my Son, the Beloved, with whom I am well pleased.'

BUSH FIRE AID

The Commissary during Bishop Peter Stuart's leave, Bishop Sonia Roulston, has contacted the Bishops of Gippsland and Canberra-Goulburn to ask if there is any way for people to contribute to aid funds at this time of crisis and devastation for so many.

Bishop Richard Treloar of Gippsland has replied:

Those looking to make a contribution to the east Gippsland situation that we can deploy immediately and directly to affected areas could donate to our diocesan Gippsland Emergency Fund as follows:

BSB 013 795 A/C no. 497935951. Unfortunately, contributions to this Trust Fund are not tax deductible. Anglicare Victoria has also just launched an appeal (which I'm guessing will have tax deductibility) and it's possible to donate via their website:

www.anglicarevic.org.au/donation/bushfireappeal/

Thanks again for the prayerful support, all of which is greatly appreciated.

Bishop Sonia is aware that Anglicare in Canberra Goulburn is engaged in Disaster Recovery centres. She will pass any further information from Bishop Mark Short of Canberra/Goulburn as it comes to hand.

Fr Mark

Samaritan Donations

The Samaritans will be closed until the 21st January, 2020 so please don't drop off any more donations until Sunday, 19th January, 2020. Thank you for your kind donations over the last year.

Market Day - 18th January 2020

Once again, we will need all the help we can get when setting up on Friday 17th January and especially when packing away and clearing up on Saturday 18th January. Your help is always appreciated. If you can come at 12.30pm for an hour on Saturday to pack up, we would love to see you. Thank you.

AUSTRALIA DAY MORNING TEA 26TH JANUARY 2020

As Australia Day falls on a Sunday this year, the Women's Fellowship will be holding an 'Aussie Morning Tea' after the 9.30am service.

There will be lamingtons, meat pies and other finger foods. Please join us and help to celebrate this day for all Australians.

Prayer of the week

Almighty God,
who anointed Jesus at his baptism with the Holy Spirit
and revealed him as your beloved Son:
inspire us, your children,
who are born again of water and the Spirit,
to surrender our lives to your service,
that we may rejoice to be called your children;
through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

JESUS' BAPTISM AND OURS

Baptism is in many ways, a rather ordinary way to begin the Christian life. We do something pretty basic and ordinary and at the same time very physical and bodily. We take a bath. That's how Jesus begins his public ministry. But alongside the ordinary something quite extraordinary and unusual happens. The heavens are opened, a voice is heard, and the Holy Spirit descends. Heaven touches earth. Earth is being invaded by the heavenly.

The life given us in baptism is nourished and nurtured by the other sacraments, especially the Eucharist. In all the sacraments, heaven and earth meet. At his baptism Jesus heard the voice from heaven, "You are my beloved Son . . ." Everyone who's baptised is grafted onto the Son. We hear the same voice saying the same thing.

There are people who say they've never experienced an epiphany, a moment of divine revelation, a thin place where heaven and earth meet. We cannot demand or engineer or organise such moments. Any epiphany is a gift from God. What we can do is to make room, provide space for it.

Pew Reflections

The Baptism of Our Lord

– Sunday 12th January 2020

- Isaiah 42.1-9; Psalm 29;
Acts 10.34-43; Matthew 3.13-17

We see Jesus doing all that God requires of him, even though it made no sense to John the Baptist. Let us do everything that God requires of us, even if others think it is wrong.

- Pray that we will always do what God wants us to do.
- Give thanks for the work and witness of the National Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander Anglican Council.
