Our Parish Vision

We desire to shine as one in Christ that God's will be done.

A Reading from the Book of Proverbs Chapter 31, verses 10 to 31

A capable wife who can find?
She is far more precious than jewels.
The heart of her husband trusts in her,
and he will have no lack of gain.
She does him good, and not harm,
all the days of her life.
She seeks wool and flax,
and works with willing hands.
She is like the ships of the merchant,
she brings her food from far away.
She rises while it is still night
and provides food for her household and tasks for her servant-girls.
She considers a field and buys it;
with the fruit of her hands she plants a vineyard.
She girds herself with strength,
and makes her arms strong.
She perceives that her merchandise is profitable.
Her lamp does not go out at night.
She puts her hands to the distaff,
and her hands hold the spindle.
She opens her hand to the poor,
and reaches out her hands to the needy.
She is not afraid for her household when it snows,
for all her household are clothed in crimson.
She makes herself coverings;
her clothing is fine linen and purple.
Her husband is known in the city gates,
taking his seat among the elders of the land.
She makes linen garments and sells them;
she supplies the merchant with sashes.
Strength and dignity are her clothing,
and she laughs at the time to come.
She opens her mouth with wisdom,
and the teaching of kindness is on her tongue.
She looks well to the ways of her household,

and does not eat the bread of idleness.
Her children rise up and call her happy;
her husband too, and he praises her:
'Many women have done excellently,
but you surpass them all.'
Charm is deceitful, and beauty is vain,
but a woman who fears the LORD is to be praised.
Give her a share in the fruit of her hands,
and let her works praise her in the city gates.'

Hear the word of the Lord / Thanks be to God

Psalm 1.

Blessed are they who have not walked in the counsel
of the ungodly:

nor followed the way of sinners,
nor taken their seat amongst the scornful.

But their delight is in the law of the Lord:
and on that law will they ponder day and night.

They are like trees planted beside streams of water:
that yield their fruit in due season.

Their leaves also shall not wither:
and look, whatever they do, it shall prosper.

As for the ungodly, it is not so with them:
they are like the chaff which the wind scatters.

Therefore the ungodly shall not stand up at the judgement:
nor sinners in the congregation of the righteous.

For the Lord cares for the way of the righteous:
but the way of the ungodly shall perish.

Glory to God, Father, Son and Holy Spirit
as in the beginning, so now and forever. Amen

A Reading from the Letter of James

Chapter 3, verses 1 to 12

Not many of you should become teachers, my brothers and sisters, for you know that we who teach will be judged with greater strictness. For all of us make many mistakes. Anyone who makes no mistakes in speaking is perfect, able to keep the whole body in check with a bridle. If we put bits into the mouths of horses to make them obey us, we guide their whole bodies. Or look at ships: though they are so large that it takes strong winds to drive them, yet they are guided by a very small rudder wherever the will of the pilot directs. So also the tongue is a small member, yet it boasts of great exploits.

How great a forest is set ablaze by a small fire! And the tongue is a fire. The tongue is placed among our members as a world of iniquity; it stains the whole body, sets on fire the cycle of nature, and is itself set on fire by hell. For every species of beast and bird, of reptile and sea creature, can be tamed and has been tamed by the human species, but no one can tame the tongue—a restless evil, full of deadly poison. With it we bless the Lord and Father, and with it we curse those who are made in the likeness of God. From the same mouth come blessing and cursing. My brothers and sisters, this ought not to be so. Does a spring pour forth from the same opening both fresh and brackish water? Can a fig tree, my brothers and sisters, yield olives, or a grapevine figs? No more can salt water yield fresh.

Hear the word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God

The Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ
according to St Mark,
Chapter 9, verses 30–37.

They went on from there and passed through Galilee. He did not want anyone to know it; for he was teaching his disciples, saying to them, 'The Son of Man is to be betrayed into human hands, and they will kill him, and three days after being killed, he will rise again.' But they did not understand what he was saying and were afraid to ask him.

Then they came to Capernaum; and when he was in the house he asked them, 'What were you arguing about on the way?' But they were silent, for on the way they had argued with one another about who was the greatest. He sat down, called the twelve, and said to them, 'Whoever wants to be first must be last of all and servant of all.' Then he took a little child and put it among them; and taking it in his arms, he said to them, 'Whoever welcomes one such child in my name welcomes me, and whoever welcomes me welcomes not me but the one who sent me.'

For the Gospel of the Lord
Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ

MARKET DAY

After many years of generous and hard work Betty and Peter Hancock feel it is time to step back from being the main organisers of Market Day.

Both wish to still be involved in a small way because they enjoy the contact and friendship both with their friends within the Parish and the regular visitors to Market Day.

Now as we thank them we are also asking for persons to step up and continue this wonderful work.

Please come forward if this is you, support will always be there.

'WHISPERS OF LOVE' MEDITATION GROUP

YOU ARE MOST WELCOME

A Reflection

Stillness takes us into the silence beyond the lopsidedness of language. It restores us to the inner equilibrium from which we can then use language more precisely and truthfully.

But we are still so that God may find us in our finding of Him at the deepest level of our being.

Word made Flesh John Main

Prayerfully, Revd. Ann

HOLY TRINITY PASTORAL CARE

The Pastoral Care committee met on Thursday 10 September and were delighted that the response to Pastoral Care Link Ministry was greeted with such a wonderful response. We now have Link people for all parish groups and services. This group will meet on Saturday 10 October at 10.00 am in the multi- purpose room. It is envisaged that shortly after the 10 October the link they will be commissioned at one of the Eucharist's.

The primary role of the Link Person will be pastorally aware of the group and people they are responsible for and advise the Rector (Locum) where important needs emerge and to help the group to stay in touch with each other. Staying in touch as a group may include the usual relational celebrations such as birthdays and other lighthouse moments. Where the pastoral needs of the group or individual may be significant, ongoing or complex; or where an unhealthy escalation is possible; or where the Link Person feels a need for support and advice then he / she may effect 'first-aid' and then confer with the Rector as soon as possible

The Parish of Terrigal warmly welcomes you.

We offer many opportunities for meeting together ...

to worship and pray; to study Scripture and theology; to share fellowship, caring and support; and to celebrate real relationships which are divinely life-giving.

These opportunities normally include ...
