Our Parish Identity

We are the body of Christ. His Spirit is with us.

Our Parish Vision

We desire to shine as one in Christ that God's will be done.

A Reading from the book of the Book of Acts

Chapter 2, verses 1-21.

When the day of Pentecost had come, they were all together in one place. And suddenly from heaven there came a sound like the rush of a violent wind, and it filled the entire house where they were sitting. Divided tongues, as of fire, appeared among them, and a tongue rested on each of them. All of them were filled with the Holy Spirit and began to speak in other languages, as the Spirit gave them ability.

Now there were devout Jews from every nation under heaven living in Jerusalem. And at this sound the crowd gathered and was bewildered, because each one heard them speaking in the native language of each. Amazed and astonished, they asked, 'Are not all these who are speaking Galileans? And how is it that we hear, each of us, in our own native language? Parthians, Medes, Elamites, and residents of Mesopotamia, Judea and Cappadocia, Pontus and Asia, Phrygia and Pamphylia, Egypt and the parts of Libya belonging to Cyrene, and visitors from Rome, both Jews and proselytes, Cretans and Arabs—in our own languages we hear them speaking about God's deeds of power.' All were amazed and perplexed, saying to one another, 'What does this mean?' But others sneered and said, 'They are filled with new wine.'

But Peter, standing with the eleven, raised his voice and addressed them: 'Men of Judea and all who live in Jerusalem, let this be known to you, and listen to what I say. Indeed, these are not drunk, as you suppose, for it is only nine o'clock in the morning. No, this is what was spoken through the prophet Joel:

"In the last days it will be, God declares,
that I will pour out my Spirit upon all flesh,
and your sons and your daughters shall prophesy,
and your young men shall see visions,
and your old men shall dream dreams.

Even upon my slaves, both men and women,
in those days I will pour out my Spirit;
and they shall prophesy.

And I will show portents in the heaven above

and signs on the earth below,
blood, and fire, and smoky mist.
The sun shall be turned to darkness
and the moon to blood,
before the coming of the Lord's great and glorious day.
Then everyone who calls on the name of the Lord shall be saved."

Hear the word of the Lord.
Thanks be to God

Psalm: 104.26-36

Lord, how various are your works:
in wisdom you have made them all,
and the earth is full of your creatures.
There is the wide, immeasurable sea:
there move living things without number, great and small;

There go the ships, to and fro:
and there is that Leviathan
whom you formed to sport in the deep.
These all look to you:
to give them their food in due season.

When you give it to them, they gather it:
when you open your hand
they are satisfied with good things.
When you hide your face, they are troubled:
when you take away their breath,
they die and return to their dust.

When you send forth your spirit they are created:
and you renew the face of the earth.
May the glory of the Lord endure for ever:
may the Lord rejoice in his works.

If he look upon the earth, it shall tremble:
if he but touch the mountains, they shall smoke.
I will sing to the Lord as long as I live:
I will praise my God while I have any being.

May my meditation be pleasing to him:
for my joy shall be in the Lord.

A Reading from St. Paul's letter to the Romans
Chapter 8. 14-17

For all who are led by the Spirit of God are children of God. For you did not receive a spirit of slavery to fall back into fear, but you have received a spirit of adoption. When we cry, 'Abba! Father!' it is that very Spirit bearing witness with our spirit that we are children of God, and if children, then heirs, heirs of God and joint heirs with Christ—if, in fact, we suffer with him so that we may also be glorified with him.

Hear the word of the Lord.
Thanks be to God

Alleluia. Alleluia.
Come, Holy Spirit, fill the hearts of your faithful;
and kindle in them the fire of your love. Alleluia.

The Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ
according to St John,
Chapter 14: verses 8 -17,25-27.

Philip said to him, 'Lord, show us the Father, and we will be satisfied.' Jesus said to him, 'Have I been with you all this time, Philip, and you still do not know me? Whoever has seen me has seen the Father. How can you say, "Show us the Father"? Do you not believe that I am in the Father and the Father is in me? The words that I say to you I do not speak on my own; but the Father who dwells in me does his works. Believe me that I am in the Father and the Father is in me; but if you do not, then believe me because of the works themselves. Very truly, I tell you, the one who believes in me will also do the works that I do and, in fact, will do greater works than these, because I am going to the Father. I will do whatever you ask in my name, so that the Father may be glorified in the Son. If in my name you ask me for anything, I will do it.

'If you love me, you will keep my commandments. And I will ask the Father, and he will give you another Advocate, to be with you for ever. This is the Spirit of truth, whom the world cannot receive, because it neither sees him nor knows him. You know him, because he abides with you, and he will be in you.

'I have said these things to you while I am still with you. But the Advocate, the Holy Spirit, whom the Father will send in my name, will teach you everything, and remind you of all that I have said to you. Peace I leave with you; my peace I give to you. I do not give to you as the world gives. Do not let your hearts be troubled, and do not let them be afraid.

The Gospel of the Lord
Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ

A SAFE MINISTRY TRAINING DAY

will be held Saturday 18th June at St. Peter's, East Maitland. The session runs from 9am to 4pm and Fr. Peter Rothnie will be the presenter.

It is a Diocesan requirement that all who hold the Bishop's licence, including chalice assistants, all Parish Councillors, and all persons who are in contact with children undertake Safe Ministry Training (SMT) as accredited by the National Council of Churches under the Safe Church Training Agreement.

In addition to the above, they must also obtain a Working with Children Check and a National Criminal History Check.

We are currently compiling a list of all who must attend the course, or a refresher course if you have previously attended a course.

We will be contacting parishioners who are involved, but in the meantime could you please be aware of the date and mark it in your diary.

'WHISPERS OF LOVE' MEDITATION GROUP

Reflection

One of the psalms says: 'Be still and know that I am God' (psalm 46:10)
Stillness does not mean a state of inertia or death. To know God is to be fully alive.

Stillness is the balance of all the many forces and energies that makes up a person – physical, mental and spiritual.

As with silence, stillness has both an exterior and interior dimension.

Stillness has nothing to do with the holding in, the blocking or the repression of movement or action.

It is the fulfilment of all movement and action.

DONATED GOOD FOR OP. SHOP AND MARKET DAY

The parish council would like to try and decrease the high cost of disposal of unwanted goods that are left with us. We would like all parishioners to be aware that we can no longer accept the following items:

Televisions, microwaves, computers, printers or oversized electrical items and furniture.

We have placed notices on the collection bin at the front, down the back and near the Op. Shop regarding this, but would appreciate if you could advise this when asked by anyone outside our church about donations.
