Our Parish Identity

We are the body of Christ. His Spirit is with us.

Our Parish Vision

We desire to shine as one in Christ that God's will be done.

A Reading from the book of the Book of Proverbs
Chapter 8, verses 1-4, 22-31.

Does not wisdom call,
and does not understanding raise her voice?
On the heights, beside the way,
at the crossroads she takes her stand;
beside the gates in front of the town,
at the entrance of the portals she cries out:
'To you, O people, I call,
and my cry is to all that live.

The LORD created me at the beginning of his work,
the first of his acts of long ago.
Ages ago I was set up,
at the first, before the beginning of the earth.
When there were no depths I was brought forth,
when there were no springs abounding with water.
Before the mountains had been shaped,
before the hills, I was brought forth—
when he had not yet made earth and fields, or the world's first bits of soil.
When he established the heavens, I was there,
when he drew a circle on the face of the deep,
when he made firm the skies above,
when he established the fountains of the deep,
when he assigned to the sea its limit,
so that the waters might not transgress his command,
when he marked out the foundations of the earth,
then I was beside him, like a master worker;
and I was daily his delight, rejoicing before him always,
rejoicing in his inhabited world
and delighting in the human race.

Hear the word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God

Psalm: 8

O Lord our Governor:

how glorious is your name in all the earth!

Your majesty above the heavens is yet recounted:
by the mouths of babes and sucklings.

You have founded a strong defence against your adversaries:
to quell the enemy and the avenger.

When I consider your heavens, the work of your fingers:
the moon and the stars which you have set in order,

What are we, that you should be mindful of us:

what are we, that you should care for us?

Yet you have made us little less than gods:
and have crowned us with glory and honour.

You have given us dominion over your handiwork:

and have put all things in subjection beneath our feet,

All sheep and oxen:
and all the creatures of the field,

The birds of the air and the fish of the sea:

and everything that moves in the pathways of the great waters.

O Lord our Governor:

how glorious is your name in all the earth!

A Reading from St. Paul's letter to the Romans Chapter 5. 1-5

Therefore, since we are justified by faith, we have peace with God through our Lord Jesus Christ, through whom we have obtained access to this grace in which we stand; and we boast in our hope of sharing the glory of God. And not only that, but we also boast in our sufferings, knowing that suffering produces endurance, and endurance produces character, and character produces hope, and hope does not disappoint us, because God's love has been poured into our hearts through the Holy Spirit that has been given to us.

Hear the word of the Lord.
Thanks be to God

Alleluia. Alleluia.
Glory be to the Father, the Son and the Holy Spirit:
to God who is, who was, and who is to come.
Alleluia.

The Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ
according to St John,
Chapter 16: verses 12 -15.

'I still have many things to say to you, but you cannot bear them now. When the Spirit of truth comes, he will guide you into all the truth; for he will not speak on his own, but will speak whatever he hears, and he will declare to you the things that are to come. He will glorify me, because he will take what is mine and declare it to you. All that the Father has is mine. For this reason I said that he will take what is mine and declare it to you.

A SAFE MINISTRY TRAINING DAY

Will be held Saturday 19th June at St. Peter's East Maitland. The session runs from 9am to 4pm and Fr. Peter Rothnie will be the presenter.

As part of the Diocesan requirements our parish must ensure that all persons who are in contact with children partake in Safe Ministry Training (SMT) as accredited by the National Council of Churches under the Safe Church Training Agreement.

'WHISPERS OF LOVE' MEDITATION GROUP

Reflection

A still place in the market

"Be still and acknowledge that I am God" (Psalm 46:10). These are words to take with us in our busy lives. We may think about stillness in contrast to our noisy world. But perhaps we can go further and keep an inner stillness even while we carry on business, teach, work in construction, make music, or organise meetings.

It is important to keep a still place in the "marketplace". This still place is where God can dwell and speak to us. It is also the place from which we can speak in a healing way to all the people we meet in our busy days. Without that still space we start spinning. We become driven people, running all over the place without much direction. But with that stillness God can be our gentle guide in everything we think, say or do.

Prayerfully Reverend Ann

DONATED GOODS FOR OP. SHOP AND MARKET DAY

The parish council would like to try and decrease the high cost of disposal of unwanted goods that are left with us. We would like all parishioners to be aware that we can no longer accept the following items:

Televisions, microwaves, computers, printers or oversized electrical items and furniture.

We have placed notices on the collection bin at the front, down the back and near the Op. Shop regarding this, but would appreciate if you could advise this when asked by anyone outside our church about donations.

Mission Report 22nd May 2016

This past week I was able to package another donation of postage stamps, and forwarded them on to ABM. Many thanks to all who continue to regularly contribute to this project, supporting the vital missional work of ABM.

Please remember

Your used and mint postage stamps are valuable to ABM because they can use them to help fund mission.

Please trim used stamps with a 1cm border around them.

Stamp collections are also gratefully received. Please place your collected stamps in the blue crate, located in the Parish front office.

Reconciliation Week – 27th May – 3rd June.

The theme for this year's National Reconciliation Week is –
*Our History, Our Story, Our Future

ABM has reflections available for using during national Reconciliation Week.

Exploring the Exile

These reflections have been written by The Reverend Glenn Loughr, he is a Wiradjuri man with a particular interest in the topic of exile and in the work of Thomas Merton, Dorothy Day, Czeslaw Milosz, Gustavo Guitierrez and others who have explored the experience of exile as a means to transform injustice. The resources are available to download through the ABM website.

There are five reflections, with poetry and art, prayer suggestions, and it encourages you to engage in discussion, or write a reconciliation journal as you prayerfully participate and reflect.

As Australians, we are all here, woven into this country.

As part of our reconciliation journey,
there are truths to tell, stories to celebrate,
and relationships to grow.

Reconciliation is at the heart of our nation's future.

This coming week, a very significant time, as May 27th, marks the anniversary of the 1967 referendum, Australia's most successful referendum and a defining event in our nation's history, when over 90 per cent of Australians voted to give the Commonwealth the power to make laws for Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander peoples and recognise them in the national census.

The following week on the 3rd June, Commemorates the High Court of Australia's landmark Mabo decision in 1992.

From the Rector
WEEK OF PRAYER FOR RECONCILIATION

May 27 to June 3 is the Week of Prayer for Reconciliation. We are called to pray and work towards full reconciliation with the first peoples of this great continent. You may like to use the following prayer from the Prayer Book in your daily devotions during that week.

Lord God, bring us together as one,
reconciled with you and reconciled with each other.

You made us in your likeness,
you gave us your Son, Jesus Christ.

He has given us forgiveness from sin.

Lord God, bring us together as one,
different in culture, but given new life in Jesus Christ.
together as your body, your Church, your people.

Lord God, bring us together as one,
reconciled, healed, forgiven,
sharing you with others as you have called us to do
In Jesus Christ let us be together as one. Amen

Fr. Mark
