A Reading from the book of Deuteronomy Chapter 30, Verses 9-14.

And the LORD your God will make you abundantly prosperous in all your undertakings, in the fruit of your body, in the fruit of your livestock, and in the fruit of your soil. For the LORD will again take delight in prospering you, just as he delighted in prospering your ancestors, when you obey the LORD your God by observing his commandments and decrees that are written in this book of the law, because you turn to the LORD your God with all your heart and with all your soul.

Surely, this commandment that I am commanding you today is not too hard for you, nor is it too far away. It is not in heaven, that you should say, 'Who will go up to heaven for us, and get it for us so that we may hear it and observe it?' Neither is it beyond the sea, that you should say, 'Who will cross to the other side of the sea for us, and get it for us so that we may hear it and observe it?' No, the word is very near to you; it is in your mouth and in your heart for you to observe.

Hear the word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God

Psalm: 25.1-10

In you, O Lord my God, have I put my hope:
in you have I trusted, let me not be ashamed,
nor let my enemies triumph over me.

Let none who wait for you be put to shame:
but let those that break faith
be confounded and gain nothing.

Show me your ways, O Lord:
and teach me your paths.

Lead me in the ways of your truth, and teach me:
for you are the God of my salvation.

In you have I hoped all the day long:
because of your goodness, O Lord.

Call to mind your compassion and your loving-kindness:
for they are from of old.

Remember not the sins of my youth,
nor my transgressions:
but according to your mercy think on me.

Good and upright is the Lord:
therefore will he direct sinners in the way.

The meek he will guide in the path of justice:
and teach the humble his ways.

All the paths of the Lord are faithful and true:
for those who keep his covenant and his commandments.

A Reading from St. Paul's letter to the Colossians Chapter 1; verses 1-14.

Paul, an apostle of Christ Jesus by the will of God, and Timothy our brother,

To the saints and faithful brothers and sisters in Christ in Colossae:

Grace to you and peace from God our Father.

In our prayers for you we always thank God, the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, for we have heard of your faith in Christ Jesus and of the love that you have for all the saints, because of the hope laid up for you in heaven. You have heard of this hope before in the word of the truth, the gospel that has come to
you. Just as it is bearing fruit and growing in the whole world, so it has been bearing fruit among yourselves from the day you heard it and truly comprehended the grace of God. This you learned from Epaphras, our beloved fellow-servant. He is a faithful minister of Christ on your behalf, and he has made known to us your love in the Spirit.

For this reason, since the day we heard it, we have not ceased praying for you and asking that you may be filled with the knowledge of God's will in all spiritual wisdom and understanding, so that you may lead lives worthy of the Lord, fully pleasing to him, as you bear fruit in every good work and as you grow in the knowledge of God. May you be made strong with all the strength that comes from his glorious power, and may you be prepared to endure everything with patience, while joyfully giving thanks to the Father, who has enabled you to share in the inheritance of the saints in the light. He has rescued us from the power of darkness and transferred us into the kingdom of his beloved Son, in whom we have redemption, the forgiveness of sins.

Hear the word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God

Alleluia, alleluia!

Your words, Lord, are spirit and life;
you have the words of everlasting life.

Alleluia!

The Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ
according to St Luke, Chapter 10; verses 25-37

Just then a lawyer stood up to test Jesus. 'Teacher,' he said, 'what must I do to inherit eternal life?' He said to him, 'What is written in the law? What do you read there?' He answered, 'You shall love the Lord your God with all your heart, and with all your soul, and with all your strength, and with all your mind; and your neighbour as yourself.' And he said to him, 'You have given the right answer; do this, and you will live.'

But wanting to justify himself, he asked Jesus, 'And who is my neighbour?' Jesus replied, 'A man was going down from Jerusalem to Jericho, and fell into the hands of robbers, who stripped him, beat him, and went away, leaving him half dead.'

Now by chance a priest was going down that road; and when he saw him, he passed by on the other side. So likewise a Levite, when he came to the place and saw him, passed by on the other side. But a Samaritan while travelling came near him; and when he saw him, he was moved with pity. He went to him and bandaged his wounds, having poured oil and wine on them. Then he put him on his own animal, brought him to an inn, and took care of him. The next day he took out two denarii, gave them to the innkeeper, and said, "Take care of him; and when I come back, I will repay you whatever more you spend." Which of these three, do you think, was a neighbour to the man who fell into the hands of the robbers?' He said, 'The one who showed him mercy.' Jesus said to him, 'Go and do likewise.'

Mission Report 10th July 2016

SEA SUNDAY

*Lord God, Creator of land and sea, bless those who work at sea.
Be with them in fair weather and storms, in danger and distress.
Strengthen them when weary,
lift them up when down and comfort
them when lonely and far from their loved ones.
Bring them safely to shore Lord God
and bless those who are there to welcome them.
In Jesus name. Amen.*

On Sea Sunday 10 July, Dioceses / parishes throughout Australia, including those in-land that do not have a commercial seaport, are encouraged to support the Mission to Seafarers, as all of Australia benefits from the labours of seafarers, through the use and enjoyment of goods imported.

With almost 90 per cent of trade being transported by sea, the maritime industry plays a vital role in the world economy. Amongst other services, the Mission looks after Seafarers who are abandoned in port and those who are sick or injured through accidents.

Some of the modern challenges facing Seafarers and this industry include: piracy and its impact on Seafarers and their families, workplace accidents, the changing face of the international shipping industry, smaller crews due to mechanisation and other developments, shortening turnaround times for container ships, and workers being increasingly recruited from developing countries where wages are low

Sea Sunday acknowledges the vital role of the thousands of Seafarers who transit through Australia's 25 ports while working at sea, and also the dedicated port chaplains, and volunteers who give witness to their faith in working with this ministry.

The Mission to Seafarers at the Port of Newcastle relies on the generosity of parish support through the Sea Sunday appeal. Parishioners are also asked to keep seafarers and their families in their prayers.

Thank you to all who have worked to assist this year's Sea Sunday appeal, through the donations of warm clothing from the Op-shop, magazines, monetary gift, and of course our knitters; the many parishioners, the ecumenical members of the Whispers with Love, our extended families and friends....all who have with love and care, spent hours of their time, knitting beanies for the seafarers. These beanies are greatly appreciated by the seafarers who visit the Port of Newcastle. It has truly been a very huge effort by everyone.

Please remember to note in your diary: Rev. Garry Dodd - Chaplain: Port of Newcastle, will be the Guest Speaker at the Women's Fellowship meeting in September. Please support the Women's group and attend to hear of Garry's, and the volunteer's work at the Mission.

*Heavenly Father, we commend to you all seafarers.
Guard and protect them in danger and temptation;
sustain them in loneliness;
and support them in sickness and anxiety.
Bless all who minister to them.
Watch over those who are near and dear to them,
and grant them the blessing of your presence.
These things we ask through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.*

Coralie Taylor - Mission Secretary.

FROM THE RECTOR

“A ROYAL WASTE OF TIME”

I found this little reflection about worship very helpful and you may too.

“Worship is a waste of time. That is the first thing that must be asserted in any useful discussion of the Christian custom of gathering regularly to praise the God of heaven and earth. For the praise of God is what worship is all about. Like the ethos of Sabbath at its roots, worship is not primarily about productive work. Worship is distorted and even perverted if it is made instrumental, the means to some other end than glorifying and honoring God. Today we can hear a growing chorus of voices saying that regular worship and clean Christian living makes people happier, healthier, and – some would add – wealthier. But if people undertake worship in order to become happy and healthy, they are using God as a means to their own ends. Yet, if worship does not show us that the God met in Israel and Jesus Christ is not a god to be used, what does it show us? Instrumentalized worship is debased worship, worship reduced to psychological therapy or political consciousness-raising. True and right worship (literally orthodoxy) is first and foremost the service of God and needs no further justification.”

'WHISPERS OF LOVE' MEDITATION GROUP

Reflection

It is not only ordained clergy who have the power or ability to bless. Each of us can offer blessings, too. When we bless, it is God's deep and vast goodness, or God-ness, in us that blesses another.

When we bless, we touch another with the touch of this God-ness. In the Christian scriptures, Jesus does not bestow or offer many blessings. Rather he becomes a blessing. His presence, his goodness, engenders life, strength, healing, courage and vitality

Joyce Rupp The Cup of Life.

Prayerfully Revd. Ann

MARKET DAY 16th JULY 2016 - 8.00AM TO 1.00PM

ARTICLES FOR THE PEW BULLETIN

A number of people have asked me about the preparation of the pew bulletin. I usually prepare it each week from home on my computer by changing readings, dates and forward planning as much as possible. It is then emailed to the office on Wednesday morning and further items which have been left or emailed into the office, prayer list etc are then included/updated. This often means juggling the articles which are already in the pew bulletin to make things fit. Readings are checked against those which have been pre printed to make sure there are no errors and then the pew bulletin is forwarded to members of our clergy and parish council who are asked to read it and check for errors.

Any further errors are then emailed to me at home and I make corrections. Once we have it to a final draft it is emailed to Fr. Mark for his approval or for any further corrections or late notices. We are now at the stage of printing, so once again it is emailed to the office and Kyara Newport prints the pew bulletin off on Friday mornings.

As you can see there is quite a large volume of work by many people which goes into printing our pew bulletin each week. Our wonderful copier helps so much with the printing but we are restricted to having our copy in multiples of 4 for our pages, which means we work on 8, 12 or 16 A4 pages to print to the booklet you get each week. The original copy has a large font, so when printed it is readable in the booklet.

You would therefore appreciate my requests in the past to have all copy into me by Wednesday morning. I am quite happy to juggle the items in the pew bulletin as much as possible but usually by Wednesday lunch time we have filled the pages to capacity. If you have items for the bulletin please let me know in advance if you are dropping things into the office by ringing me or sending an email. I can then leave space for your article and make sure it is accommodated.

Your assistance is appreciated and I thank you, Bev Broadley
