World Vision

Siraj Eberahim is celebrating his 17th birthday this month. The Parish is sending our very warm and best wishes for his special day. Our continued Parish sponsorship support enables Siraj to grow up healthy, gain an education and live a full and happy life. We have been able to see Siraj, from Ethiopia, grow from a very young child, into a healthy young man.

Happy Birthday Siraj.

A Reading from the book of Genesis

Chapter 18, Verses 1-10a.

The LORD appeared to Abraham by the oaks of Mamre, as he sat at the entrance of his tent in the heat of the day. He looked up and saw three men standing near him. When he saw them, he ran from the tent entrance to meet them, and bowed down to the ground. He said, 'My lord, if I find favour with you, do not pass by your servant. Let a little water be brought, and wash your feet, and rest yourselves under the tree. Let me bring a little bread, that you may refresh yourselves, and after that you may pass on—since you have come to your servant.' So they said, 'Do as you have said.' And Abraham hastened into the tent to Sarah, and said, 'Make ready quickly three measures of choice flour, knead it, and make cakes.' Abraham ran to the herd, and took a calf, tender and good, and gave it to the servant, who hastened to prepare it. Then he took curds and milk and the calf that he had prepared, and set it before them; and he stood by them under the tree while they ate.

They said to him, 'Where is your wife Sarah?' And he said, 'There, in the tent.' Then one said, 'I will surely return to you in due season, and your wife Sarah shall have a son.'

Hear the word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God

Psalm: 15.

Lord, who may abide in your tabernacle:
or who may dwell upon your holy hill?

Whoever leads an uncorrupt life
and does the thing which is right:
who speaks the truth from the heart,
and has not slandered with the tongue;

Who has done no evil to a friend:
nor vented abuse against a neighbour;

In whose eyes the worthless have no honour:
but who makes much of those that fear the Lord;

Whoever has sworn to a neighbour:
and will not go back on that oath;

Who has not put money to usury:
nor taken a bribe against the innocent.

Whoever does these things:
shall never be overthrown.

A Reading from St. Paul's letter to the Colossians Chapter 1; verses 15-29.

He is the image of the invisible God, the firstborn of all creation; for in him all things in heaven and on earth were created, things visible and invisible, whether thrones or dominions or rulers or powers—all things have been created through him and for him. He himself is before all things, and in him all things hold together. He is the head of the body, the church; he is the beginning, the firstborn from the dead, so that he might come to have first place in everything. For in him all the fullness of God was pleased to dwell, and through him God was pleased to reconcile to himself all things, whether on earth or in heaven, by making peace through the blood of his cross.

And you who were once estranged and hostile in mind, doing evil deeds, he has now reconciled in his fleshly body through death, so as to present you holy and blameless and irreproachable before him— provided that you continue securely established and steadfast in the faith, without shifting from the hope promised by the gospel that you heard, which has been proclaimed to every creature under heaven. I, Paul, became a servant of this gospel.

I am now rejoicing in my sufferings for your sake, and in my flesh I am completing what is lacking in Christ's afflictions for the sake of his body, that is, the church. I became its servant according to God's commission that was given to me for you, to make the word of God fully known, the mystery that has been hidden throughout the ages and generations but has now been revealed to his saints. To them God chose to make known how great among the Gentiles are the riches of the glory of this mystery, which is Christ in you, the hope of glory. It is he whom we proclaim, warning everyone and teaching everyone in all wisdom, so that we may present everyone mature in Christ. For this I toil and struggle with all the energy that he powerfully inspires within me.

Hear the word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God

---

Alleluia, alleluia!

Happy are they who have kept the word with a generous heart,
And yield a harvest through perseverance.

Alleluia!

The Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to St Luke, Chapter 10; verses 38-42

Now as they went on their way, he entered a certain village, where a woman named Martha welcomed him into her home. She had a sister named Mary, who sat at the Lord's feet and listened to what he was saying. But Martha was distracted by her many tasks; so she came to him and asked, 'Lord, do you not care that my sister has left me to do all the work by myself? Tell her then to help me.' But the Lord answered her, 'Martha, Martha, you are worried and distracted by many things; there is need of only one thing. Mary has chosen the better part, which will not be taken away from her.'

The Gospel of the Lord
Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ

Reflection

STILLNESS.....SILENCE

Listen: Be still and know that I am God

Without a sense of meaning our lives lose their lustre. We endure our days rather than embrace the living of them. To enter the realm of meaning requires attention and dedication. It requires an interior, reflective life. It requires the calming of our usually chattering minds. It requires trusting the life giving nourishment of silence, that vast field of permission and sustenance in which our lives are held.

But we must want to dwell in that nourishment and to seek it consciously to have it.

Prayerfully Revd. Ann

PARISH GARDEN WORKING BEE

Thank you to all who helped last Saturday and a big thank you to our extra helpers – Steve, Neil, Robyn, Charles, Kyara, Angus and Macy. We moved at least half the mulch and spread it on the garden.

Thanks also to our wonderful Trish, who weeded away happily while we worked around her!

As the gardening team is small, help at any time would be much appreciated. If you have an hour to spare and feel like pulling a few weeds or watering the garden, please contact Jackie. Alternatively just pop up and spend some quiet time working in the gardens.

Jackie Davidson
