

The Anglican Diocese of Newcastle
The Parish of Terrigal

Welcome to worship at Holy Trinity
TWELFTH SUNDAY AFTER PENTECOST
7th AUGUST, 2016

7.30am - Sung Eucharist - Presiding & preaching - Fr Mark

9.30am - Holy Eucharist - Presiding & preaching - Fr Mark

[All hymns are from Together in Song unless otherwise specified.]

Prayer and anointing for healing are available at each Eucharist. If you would like prayer and anointing, please move in front of the step, at the left side of the altar, after receiving communion and a priest will come and minister to you.

A Reading from the book of Genesis Chapter 15. 1-6.

After these things the word of the LORD came to Abram in a vision, 'Do not be afraid, Abram, I am your shield; your reward shall be very great.' But Abram said, 'O Lord GOD, what will you give me, for I continue childless, and the heir of my house is Eliezer of Damascus?' And Abram said, 'You have given me no offspring, and so a slave born in my house is to be my heir.' But the word of the LORD came to him, 'This man shall not be your heir; no one but your very own issue shall be your heir.' He brought him outside and said, 'Look towards heaven and count the stars, if you are able to count them.' Then he said to him, 'So shall your descendants be.' And he believed the LORD; and the LORD reckoned it to him as righteousness.

Hear the word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God

Psalm: 33.13-21.

The Lord looks down from heaven and surveys all the children of Adam:
he considers from his dwelling-place
all the inhabitants of the earth;

He who fashioned the hearts of them all:
and comprehends all that they do.

A king is not saved by a mighty army:

nor is a warrior delivered by much strength;

A horse is a vain hope as a deliverer:

nor can he rescue any by his great power.

But the eye of the Lord is on those that fear him:

on those that trust in his unfailing love,

To deliver them from death:

and to feed them in the time of dearth.

We have waited eagerly for the Lord:

for he is our help and our shield.

Surely our hearts shall rejoice in him:

for we have trusted in his holy name.

Let your merciful kindness be upon us, O Lord:

even as our hope is in you.

A Reading from St. Paul's letter to the Hebrews

Chapter 11; verses 1-3, 8-16.

Now faith is the assurance of things hoped for, the conviction of things not seen. Indeed, by faith our ancestors received approval. By faith we understand that the worlds were prepared by the word of God, so that what is seen was made from things that are not visible.

By faith Abraham obeyed when he was called to set out for a place that he was to receive as an inheritance; and he set out, not knowing where he was going. By faith he stayed for a time in the land he had been promised, as in a foreign land, living in tents, as did Isaac and Jacob, who were heirs with him of the same promise. For he looked forward to the city that has foundations, whose architect and builder is God. By faith he received power of procreation, even though he was too old—and Sarah herself was barren—because he considered him faithful who had promised. Therefore from one person, and this one as good as dead, descendants were born, 'as many as the stars of heaven and as the innumerable grains of sand by the seashore.'

All of these died in faith without having received the promises, but from a distance they saw and greeted them. They confessed that they were strangers and foreigners on the earth, for people who speak in this way make it clear that they are seeking a homeland. If they had been thinking of the land that they had left behind, they would have had opportunity to return. But as it is, they desire a better country, that is, a heavenly one. Therefore God is not ashamed to be called their God; indeed, he has prepared a city for them.

Hear the word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God

Alleluia, alleluia!

Be watchful and ready:
you know not when the Son of Man is coming.

Alleluia!

The Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ
according to St Luke, Chapter 12; verses 32-40

'Do not be afraid, little flock, for it is your Father's good pleasure to give you the kingdom. Sell your possessions, and give alms. Make purses for yourselves that do not wear out, an unfailing treasure in heaven, where no thief comes near and no moth destroys. For where your treasure is, there your heart will be also.

'Be dressed for action and have your lamps lit; be like those who are waiting for their master to return from the wedding banquet, so that they may open the door for him as soon as he comes and knocks. Blessed are those slaves whom the master finds alert when he comes; truly I tell you, he will fasten his belt and have them sit down to eat, and he will come and serve them. If he comes during the middle of the night, or near dawn, and finds them so, blessed are those slaves.

'But know this: if the owner of the house had known at what hour the thief was coming, he would not have let his house be broken into. You also must be ready, for the Son of Man is coming at an unexpected hour.'

The Gospel of the Lord

Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ

'WHISPERS OF LOVE' MEDITATION GROUP

Reflection

Prayer

Great Teacher,

You draw me to your heart.

You reach me with your message,

And then you send me out to others.

May I love well.

As I go forth from my prayer,

May I reflect the radiance of your goodness. Amen.

Prayerfully Revd. Ann
