A Reading from the book of Prophet Isaiah Chapter 58. 9b-14.

If you remove the yoke from among you,
the pointing of the finger, the speaking of evil,
if you offer your food to the hungry
and satisfy the needs of the afflicted, then your light shall rise in the darkness
and your gloom be like the noonday.
The LORD will guide you continually,
and satisfy your needs in parched places,
and make your bones strong;
and you shall be like a watered garden,
like a spring of water,
whose waters never fail.
Your ancient ruins shall be rebuilt;
you shall raise up the foundations of many generations;
you shall be called the repairer of the breach,
the restorer of streets to live in.

If you refrain from trampling the sabbath,
from pursuing your own interests on my holy day;
if you call the sabbath a delight
and the holy day of the LORD honourable;
if you honour it, not going your own ways,
serving your own interests, or pursuing your own affairs;
then you shall take delight in the LORD,
and I will make you ride upon the heights of the earth;
I will feed you with the heritage of your ancestor Jacob,
for the mouth of the LORD has spoken.

Hear the word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God

Psalm: 103.1-8

Praise the Lord, O my soul:
and all that is within me, praise his holy name.

Praise the Lord, O my soul:
and forget not all his benefits,

Who forgives all your sin:
and heals all your infirmities,

Who redeems your life from the Pit:
and crowns you with mercy and compassion;

Who satisfies your being with good things:
so that your youth is renewed like an eagle's.

The Lord works righteousness:
and justice for all who are oppressed.

He made known his ways to Moses:
and his works to the children of Israel.

The Lord is full of compassion and mercy:
slow to anger and of great goodness.

A Reading from St. Paul's letter to the Hebrews Chapter 12; verses 18 – 29.

You have not come to something that can be touched, a blazing fire, and darkness, and gloom, and a tempest, and the sound of a trumpet, and a voice whose words made the hearers beg that not another word be spoken to them. (For they could not endure the order that was given, 'If even an animal touches the mountain, it shall be stoned to death.' Indeed, so terrifying was the sight that Moses said, 'I tremble with fear.') But you have come to Mount Zion and to the city of the living God, the heavenly Jerusalem, and to innumerable angels in festal gathering, and to the assembly of the firstborn who are enrolled in heaven, and to God the judge of all, and to the spirits of the righteous made perfect, and to Jesus, the mediator of a new covenant, and to the sprinkled blood that speaks a better word than the blood of Abel.

See that you do not refuse the one who is speaking; for if they did not escape when they refused the one who warned them on earth, how much less will we escape if we reject the one who warns from heaven! At that time his voice shook the earth; but now he has promised, 'Yet once more I will shake not only the earth but also the heaven.' This phrase 'Yet once more' indicates the removal of what is shaken—that is, created things—so that what cannot be shaken may remain. Therefore, since we are receiving a kingdom that cannot be shaken, let us give thanks, by which we offer to God an acceptable worship with reverence and awe; for indeed our God is a consuming fire.

Hear the word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God

Alleluia, alleluia!

I am the way, the truth, and the life, says the Lord;
no one comes to the Father, except through me.

Alleluia!

The Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to St Luke, Chapter 13; verses 10-17

Now he was teaching in one of the synagogues on the sabbath. And just then there appeared a woman with a spirit that had crippled her for eighteen years. She was bent over and was quite unable to stand up straight. When Jesus saw her, he called her over and said, 'Woman, you are set free from your ailment.' When he laid his hands on her, immediately she stood up straight and began praising God. But the leader of the synagogue, indignant because Jesus had cured on the sabbath, kept saying to the crowd, 'There are six days on which work ought to be done; come on those days and be cured, and not on the sabbath day.' But the Lord answered him and said, 'You hypocrites! Does not each of you on the sabbath untie his ox or his donkey from the manger, and lead it away to give it water? And ought not this woman, a daughter of Abraham whom Satan bound for eighteen long years, be set free from this bondage on the sabbath day?' When he said this, all his opponents were put to shame; and the entire crowd was rejoicing at all the wonderful things that he was doing.

The Gospel of the Lord

Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ

'WHISPERS OF LOVE' MEDITATION GROUP

Reflection

When Jesus says: "Sky and earth will pass away, but my words will never pass away" (Luke 21:33), he shows us a direct way to eternal life. The words of Jesus have the power to transform our hearts and minds and lead us into the Kingdom of God. "The words I have spoken to you," Jesus says, "are spirit and they are life" (John 6:63).

Through meditation we can let the words of Jesus descend from our minds into our hearts and create there a dwelling place for the Spirit. Whatever we do and wherever we go, let us stay close to the words of Jesus. They are words of eternal life.

Messy Church is a fun way to introduce people to the world wide church. It's values are about being Christ-centred for all ages, based on creativity, worship, prayer and hospitality.

PLEASE JOIN US

Winter Concert

Our concert last Sunday was an outstanding success. This was due to the high calibre of our performers, a varied and interesting program and the work of many people behind the scenes that made it all possible. Please accept my sincere thanks to all who were involved. The concert would not have been as successful as it was otherwise and it was a wonderful event to share with our local community, including a number of people who travelled from Sydney. Terry Rowe was pleased to report 90 people attended and an early profit of well over $300 from the event.

Chris Sillince - Parish Organist.

PARISH KITCHEN CUPBOARDS.

During this past week a number of our ladies started the process of cleaning the kitchen cupboards, the drawers of which had become so overloaded they were in danger of collapsing. Thank you to the ladies who assisted with this venture. There are still a few cupboards to tidy, but in the meantime could we request that no more donations of kitchen equipment be placed in the cupboards, mainly to prevent the drawers from being overloaded and also so items can be found without too much difficulty. If you are having difficulty finding items, just check the lists on the wall and these should be of assistance.

Thank you

MISSION - 17TH AUGUST 2016
WORLD VISION.

Child Sponsorship - is about improving the well being of children through relationships that enable transformation. World Vision uses the resources of sponsorship to assist and empower communities in the care of children, inspire communities locally and globally for the well being of children, through life-enriching experiences.

Our parish continues to sponsor , Djibril Balde, and Siraj Ebberahim, sending greetings to both children recently. These simple warm exchanges, express to the children that we love and deeply care about them, and their progress.

Djibril is from the community of Mampatim, located in the region of Kolda, Senegal. He enjoys playing football, loves to sing and collect stickers.

Djibril also enjoys school, and would like to become a teacher. Djibril's main concern is for his family, and food security. The family grow maize, peanuts and rice, and they also have a donkey and goat.

Siraj is from Maokomo, a Special Woreda (not part of any zone, an autonomous area) located in the Benishangui - Gumuz region of Ethiopia. It is bordered by The Sudan and South Sudan. Siraj is a Muslim, and he and his Family enjoy eating injera, a Ethipian traditional unleaven bread made from teff grain. Siraj states 'the most precious thing that I have is good health'. The community is highly dependent on agriculture, and grows lots of maize. Siraj enjoys playing football, and walking with his family. The language which Siraj speaks is Afaan Oromo which is native to Ethiopia, Kenya and Somalia.

Our sponsorship donations to World Vision, provide opportunity for Djibril and Siraj to fulfil their potential, through better access to education, and vital positive changes in their communities. Both communities are enriched through programmes that empower their local communities to be actively involved in improved water quality, health, sanitation programmes, and equip them with education facilities and resources that promote and enable opportunities for all children, to participate in educational learning and life skills. The community is enhanced through the establishment of new facilities, and newly acquired knowledge that will allow for more productive agriculture and animal husbandry skills, and food security, and an overall improvement to the whole of the community.

Please continue to support our Sponsored children. The Parish World Vision coin collection container is located on the table in the Gathering Space, or in the jingling hand of Julie Rowe on Sunday mornings at the 9.30am service. Thank you for your ongoing support, donations, and prayers for the well being of our Djibril, Siraj, their families and communities.
