A Reading from the book of Amos Chapter 8: Verses 4-7

Hear this, you that trample on the needy,
and bring to ruin the poor of the land,
saying, 'When will the new moon be over
so that we may sell grain;
and the sabbath,
so that we may offer wheat for sale?
We will make the ephah small and the shekel great,
and practise deceit with false balances,
buying the poor for silver
and the needy for a pair of sandals,
and selling the sweepings of the wheat.'

The LORD has sworn by the pride of Jacob:
Surely I will never forget any of their deeds.

Hear the word of the Lord.
Thanks be to God

Psalm: 113

Praise the Lord, O sing praises, you that are his servants:
O praise the name of the Lord.

Let the name of the Lord be blessed:
from this time forward and for ever.

From the rising of the sun to its going down:
let the name of the Lord be praised.

The Lord is exalted over all the nations:
and his glory is above the heavens.

Who can be likened to the Lord our God:

in heaven or upon the earth,

Who has his dwelling so high:

yet condescends to look on things beneath?

He raises the lowly from the dust:

and lifts the poor from out of the dungheap;

He gives them a place among the princes:

even among the princes of his people.

He causes the barren woman to keep house:

and makes her a joyful mother of children.

Praise the Lord.

A Reading from the first letter of Paul to Timothy Chapter 2.1-10.

First of all, then, I urge that supplications, prayers, intercessions, and thanksgivings should be made for everyone, for kings and all who are in high positions, so that we may lead a quiet and peaceable life in all godliness and dignity. This is right and is acceptable in the sight of God our Saviour, who desires everyone to be saved and to come to the knowledge of the truth. For there is one God;

there is also one mediator between God and humankind, Christ Jesus, himself human,

who gave himself a ransom for all —this was attested at the right time. For this I was appointed a herald and an apostle (I am telling the truth, I am not lying), a teacher of the Gentiles in faith and truth.

I desire, then, that in every place the men should pray, lifting up holy hands without anger or argument; also that the women should dress themselves modestly and decently in suitable clothing, not with their hair braided, or with gold, pearls, or expensive clothes, but with good works, as is proper for women who profess reverence for God.

Hear the word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God

Alleluia, alleluia!

Jesus Christ was rich but he became poor,
to make you rich out of his poverty.

Alleluia!

The Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to St Luke, Chapter 16; verses 1-13

Then Jesus said to the disciples, 'There was a rich man who had a manager, and charges were brought to him that this man was squandering his property. So he summoned him and said to him, "What is this that I hear about you? Give me an account of your management, because you cannot be my manager any longer." Then the manager said to himself, "What will I do, now that my master is taking the position away from me? I am not strong enough to dig, and I am ashamed to beg. I have decided what to do so that, when I am dismissed as manager, people may welcome me into their homes." So, summoning his master's debtors one by one, he asked the first, "How much do you owe my master?" He answered, "A hundred jugs of olive oil." He said to him, "Take your bill, sit down quickly, and make it fifty." Then he asked another, "And how much do you owe?" He replied, "A hundred containers of wheat." He said to him, "Take your bill and make it eighty." And his master commended the dishonest manager because he had acted shrewdly; for the children of this age are more shrewd in dealing with their own generation than are the children of light. And I tell you, make friends for yourselves by means of dishonest wealth so that when it is gone, they may welcome you into the eternal homes.

'Whoever is faithful in a very little is faithful also in much; and whoever is dishonest in a very little is dishonest also in much. If then you have not been faithful with the dishonest wealth, who will entrust to you the true riches? And if you have not been faithful with what belongs to another, who will give you what is your own? No slave can serve two masters; for a slave will either hate the one and love the other, or be devoted to the one and despise the other. You cannot serve God and wealth.'

The Gospel of the Lord

Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ

WHY NOT ASK A YOUNG FAMILY TO JOIN US

'WHISPERS OF LOVE' MEDITATION GROUP

Reflection

To begin to meditate requires nothing more than the determination to begin. To begin to discover our roots, to begin to discover our potential, to begin to return to our source. And God is our source. In the simplicity of meditation beyond all thought and imagination we begin to discover in utter simplicity that we are in God; we begin to understand that we are in God in whom we live and move and have our being.

*(JOHN MAIN, Moment of Christ)*

Prayerfully Reverend Ann

ROSTERS

We give thanks to our parishioners who prepare rosters so faithfully for us.

We also give thanks to those who work on these rosters, whether it be reading, sidespersons, greeters, morning teas, Chalice Assistants and intercessors, or counters of money, musicians and flower arrangers.

Thank you, thank you.

MISSION TO SEAFARERS

What a wonderful afternoon the Women's Fellowship had with their speaker, Garry Dodds from the Mission to Seafarers. He had many stories to tell regarding their work and the persons off the ships to whom they minister when they come into our ports.

The mission is most appreciative and welcomed the beanies we knitted and have asked us to keep knitting!!

Christian faiths are the only ones who look to assisting the seafarers throughout the world.

Above are some of the beanies and a couple of the volunteers modelling them.

We offer many opportunities for meeting together ...

to worship and pray; to study Scripture and theology; to share fellowship, caring and support; and to celebrate real relationships which are divinely life-giving.

These opportunities normally include ...
