A Reading from the book of Habakkuk

Chapter 1: Verses 1-4, 2. 1-4

The oracle that the prophet Habakkuk saw.

O LORD, how long shall I cry for help,
and you will not listen?
Or cry to you 'Violence!'
and you will not save?
Why do you make me see wrongdoing
and look at trouble?
Destruction and violence are before me;
strife and contention arise.
So the law becomes slack
and justice never prevails.
The wicked surround the righteous—
therefore judgement comes forth perverted.

I will stand at my watch-post,
and station myself on the rampart;
I will keep watch to see what he will say to me,
and what he will answer concerning my complaint.
Then the LORD answered me and said:
Write the vision;
make it plain on tablets,
so that a runner may read it.
For there is still a vision for the appointed time;
it speaks of the end, and does not lie.
If it seems to tarry, wait for it;
it will surely come, it will not delay.
Look at the proud!
Their spirit is not right in them,
but the righteous live by their faith.

Hear the word of the Lord.
Thanks be to God

Psalm: 37.1-9

Do not vie with the wicked:
or envy those that do wrong;
For they will soon wither like the grass:
and fade away like the green leaf.

Trust in the Lord and do good:
and you shall dwell in the land
and feed in safe pastures.
Let the Lord be your delight:
and he will grant you your heart's desire.

Commit your way to the Lord:
trust him, and he will act.
He will make your righteousness shine as clear as the light:
and your innocence as the noonday.

Be still before the Lord, and wait patiently for him:
do not be vexed when someone prospers,
when they put their evil purposes to work.
Let go of anger and abandon wrath:
let not envy move you to do evil.

For the wicked shall be cut down:
but those who wait for the Lord shall possess the land.

A Reading from the second letter of Paul to Timothy Chapter 1.1-14.

Paul, an apostle of Christ Jesus by the will of God, for the sake of the promise of life that is in Christ Jesus,

To Timothy, my beloved child:

Grace, mercy, and peace from God the Father and Christ Jesus our Lord.

I am grateful to God—whom I worship with a clear conscience, as my ancestors did—when I remember you constantly in my prayers night and day. Recalling your tears, I long to see you so that I may be filled with joy. I am reminded of your sincere faith, a faith that lived first in your grandmother Lois and your mother Eunice and now, I am sure, lives in you. For this reason I remind you to rekindle the gift of God that is within you through the laying on of my hands; for God did not give us a spirit of cowardice, but rather a spirit of power and of love and of self-discipline.

Do not be ashamed, then, of the testimony about our Lord or of me his prisoner, but join with me in suffering for the gospel, relying on the power of God, who saved us and called us with a holy calling, not according to our works but according to his own purpose and grace. This grace was given to us in Christ Jesus before the ages began, but it has now been revealed through the appearing of our Saviour Christ Jesus, who abolished death and brought life and immortality to light through the gospel. For this gospel I was appointed a herald and an apostle and a teacher, and for this reason I suffer as I do. But I am not ashamed, for I know the one in whom I have put my trust, and I am sure that he is able to guard until that day what I have entrusted to him. Hold to the standard of sound teaching that you have heard from me, in the faith and love that are in Christ Jesus. Guard the good treasure entrusted to you, with the help of the Holy Spirit living in us.

Hear the word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

Alleluia, alleluia!

The word of the Lord stands for ever:
it is the word given to you, the Good News.

Alleluia!

The Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ
according to St Luke, Chapter 17; verses 5-10

The apostles said to the Lord, 'Increase our faith!' The Lord replied, 'If you had faith the size of a mustard seed, you could say to this mulberry tree, "Be uprooted and planted in the sea", and it would obey you.

'Who among you would say to your slave who has just come in from ploughing or tending sheep in the field, "Come here at once and take your place at the table"? Would you not rather say to him, "Prepare supper for me, put on your apron and serve me while I eat and drink; later you may eat and drink"? Do you thank the slave for doing what was commanded? So you also, when you have done all that you were ordered to do, say, "We are worthless slaves; we have done only what we ought to have done!" '

The Gospel of the Lord

Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ

Please pray for

Carole Babington, Joel, Robert Vallance, Fr. Stuart Benson, Barbara Matthews, Rose Henwood, Fr. George Parker (Ballarat)

Keith Williams and Kerrie Williams

We prayerfully remember

THANK YOU BOXES

Many thanks to all who donated towards the Women's Fellowship Thank You Boxes. The total amount raised from our parish towards The Alzhiemers Foundation was $660.00. A great effort.

The new boxes, coloured pink, are now available.

The latest project is for 'Kairos Outside for Women'. The idea behind these little boxes is you drop a coin in everytime you have something about which to be thankful to God.

Why not pick up a box today?

Think how many times we can give thanks to God.

'WHISPERS OF LOVE' MEDITATION GROUP

Reflection

Silence is for us all, a surrender of our time to God. We come from situations in which we work to schedules and depend upon our watches. In silence we enter a new realm of time, time to be alone with our Lord, time which matters only as it gives space for God to speak.

Prayerfully Reverend Ann

IT'S THAT TIME AGAIN, CHRISTMAS PUDDINGS!!!

Terrigal Women's Fellowship would be grateful for donations of mixed fruit, dates, ginger, and large bottles of Stout.

Please fill in the Order form for your Christmas pudding.

Many thanks, Reverend Ann

Mission Report - 2nd October 2016.

Navitas English - Newcastle Humanitarian Settlement Services Consortium.

Navitas English provide various settlement programmes for the Refugees in the Newcastle area. They work on, an as needs basis, to assist their clients begin their new lives in Australia, and give attention to the needs of children and young people.

The Navitas English and Foundation Skill Centre in Newcastle is currently very low on supplies. The Centre assist with providing school backpacks for the children of the refugees, from Sudan, and other places, who have been referred to the centre.

Parishes in the Diocese have been given the opportunity to assist the local refugee children, by way of donation of stationary items; backpacks, coloured pencils, pens, erasers, rulers, pencil cases. These will be collected over the next couple of weeks, and then forwarded to Newcastle.

Please consider donating to help the children with their future education.

Coralie Taylor
Mission Secretary.
