BAPTISM

We welcome Rylan Moore into the body of Christ through Holy Baptism at 11.30 this morning. Welcome also to Rylan's parents, Daniel & Kristen and family and friends sharing with them today.

ALL SAINTS AND ALL SOULS

Toward the end of the church year our lectionary readings focus on the end times and the reign of Christ in glory. This emphasis begins with the celebration of All Saints on the first Sunday of November. We give thanks for those heroes of faith who by the example of their lives and often by their deaths, serve as examples of faithfulness and courage to Our Lord in all circumstances.

All Souls Day, now more commonly called the Commemoration of All the Faithful Departed, is on the 2nd November, this Wednesday. We remember with gratitude those known personally to us who have entered the nearer presence of God. They are often the "unsung heroes" of faith who have encouraged us in the life of faith. The Eucharist will be celebrated at 5pm in the Founders Chapel, at which we will remember the departed during the Intercessions. If you would like a loved one remembered please place their name on the list on the table outside the door into the church.

A Reading from Isaiah Chapter 1: Verses 10-18.

Hear the word of the LORD,
you rulers of Sodom!
Listen to the teaching of our God,
you people of Gomorrah!
What to me is the multitude of your sacrifices?
says the LORD;
I have had enough of burnt-offerings of rams
and the fat of fed beasts;
I do not delight in the blood of bulls,
or of lambs, or of goats.

When you come to appear before me,
who asked this from your hand?
Trample my courts no more;
bringing offerings is futile;
incense is an abomination to me.
New moon and sabbath and calling of convocation—
I cannot endure solemn assemblies with iniquity.
Your new moons and your appointed festivals
my soul hates;
they have become a burden to me,
I am weary of bearing them.
When you stretch out your hands,
I will hide my eyes from you;
even though you make many prayers,
I will not listen;
your hands are full of blood.
Wash yourselves; make yourselves clean;
remove the evil of your doings
from before my eyes;
cease to do evil,
learn to do good;
seek justice,
rescue the oppressed,

defend the orphan,
plead for the widow.
Come now, let us argue it out,
says the LORD:
though your sins are like scarlet,
they shall be like snow;
though they are red like crimson,
they shall become like wool.

Hear the word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God

Psalm: 32.1-8

Blessed are those whose sin is forgiven:
whose iniquity is put away.

Blessed are those to whom the Lord imputes no blame:
and in whose spirit there is no guile.

For whilst I held my tongue:

my bones wasted away with my daily complaining.

Your hand was heavy upon me day and night:
and my moisture was dried up like a drought in summer.

Then I acknowledged my sin to you:

and my iniquity I did not hide;

I said 'I will confess my transgressions to the Lord':
and so you forgave the wickedness of my sin.

For this cause shall everyone that is faithful
make their prayer to you in the day of trouble:
and in the time of the great water-flood,
it shall not come near them.

You are a place to hide me in,
you will preserve me from trouble:
you will surround me with deliverance on every side.

A Reading from the second letter of Paul to the Thessalonians
Chapter 1. 1-4, 11-12.

Paul, Silvanus, and Timothy,

To the church of the Thessalonians in God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ:

Grace to you and peace from God our Father and the Lord
Jesus Christ.

We must always give thanks to God for you, brothers and sisters, as is right, because your faith is growing abundantly,
and the love of every one of you for one another is increasing.
Therefore we ourselves boast of you among the churches of God for your steadfastness and faith during all your persecutions and the afflictions that you are enduring.

To this end we always pray for you, asking that our God will make you worthy of his call and will fulfil by his power every good resolve and work of faith, so that the name of our Lord Jesus may be glorified in you, and you in him, according to the grace of our God and the Lord Jesus Christ.

Hear the word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

Alleluia, alleluia!

God loved the world so much, he gave his only Son,
that all who believe in him might have eternal life.

Alleluia!

The Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ
according to St Luke, Chapter 19; verses 1-10

He entered Jericho and was passing through it. A man was there named Zacchaeus; he was a chief tax-collector and was rich. He was trying to see who Jesus was, but on account of the crowd he could not, because he was short in stature. So he ran ahead and climbed a sycamore tree to see him, because he was going to pass that way. When Jesus came to the place, he looked up and said to him, 'Zacchaeus, hurry and come down; for I must stay at your house today.' So he hurried down and was happy to welcome him. All who saw it began to grumble and said, 'He has gone to be the guest of one who is a sinner.' Zacchaeus stood there and said to the Lord, 'Look, half of my possessions, Lord, I will give to the poor; and if I have defrauded anyone of anything, I will pay back four times as much.' Then Jesus said to him, 'Today salvation has come to this house, because he too is a son of Abraham. For the Son of Man came to seek out and to save the lost.'

'WHISPERS OF LOVE' MEDITATION GROUP

Reflection

It is not easy in the busy-ness of our lives to still ourselves. Silence makes us uneasy; it is too immeasurably big to be comfortable. It beats on us; we want to shift and talk, to use our minds on problems they can tackle. But if we run from silence to noise we are running from the deeper to the shallower; from the silence of God to the noise of the world.

Michael Rollings, / Will Be There,

Prayerfully Reverend Ann
