

The Anglican Diocese of Newcastle The Parish of Terrigal

Welcome to worship at Holy Trinity

7.30am - Sung Eucharist - Presiding & Preaching – Fr. Mark Watson

9.30am - Holy Eucharist - Presiding & Preaching – Fr. Mark Watson

11.30am – Holy Baptism

[All hymns are from Together in Song unless otherwise specified.]

Prayer and anointing for healing are available at each Eucharist. If you would like prayer and anointing, please move in front of the step, at the left side of the altar, after receiving communion and a priest will come and minister to you.

THE PENTECOST ICON

The pattern for the icon on the front cover of the bulletin today is very old, conforming to Byzantine traditions before 800 AD. Mary and the Apostles are seated with tongues of fire on their heads. We also see the Holy Spirit descending in the form of a dove. The disciples were transformed from frightened people into bold proclaimers of the gospel.

They gaze heavenward in surprise and expectancy. They all have halos of gold which mark them as saints. Mary is in the centre, dressed in traditional red veil and cape over a blue dress.

Below Mary is a man with a long beard, wearing a crown and bearing a cloth holding twelve scrolls. The Greek letters identify him as Cosmos, 'the world.' He is a symbolic representative of the world's multitudes gathered together in Jerusalem for the festival of Pentecost when the Holy Spirit descended. You will notice he is in a dark, walled-off place, representing the world without faith. His crown is the rule of sin and he is aged by the sin of Adam. The scrolls represent the teaching of the Twelve Apostles, bringing light to this dark world.

We welcome Audrey Mae Anderson into the Body of Christ through Holy Baptism at 11.30am this morning. Welcome also to Audrey's parents, Simon and Ally Anderson, and to Godparents and family members and friends. Our prayers for you as you celebrate God's gift of life and new life.

A reading from the Acts of the Apostles, Chapter 2: 1-21

When the day of Pentecost had come, they were all together in one place. And suddenly from heaven there came a sound like the rush of a violent wind, and it filled the entire house where they were sitting. Divided tongues, as of fire, appeared among them, and a tongue rested on each of them. All of them were filled with the Holy Spirit and began to speak in other languages, as the Spirit gave them ability.

Now there were devout Jews from every nation under heaven living in Jerusalem. And at this sound the crowd gathered and was bewildered, because each one heard them speaking in the native language of each. Amazed and astonished, they asked, 'Are not all these who are speaking Galileans? And how is it that we hear, each of us, in our own native language? Parthians, Medes, Elamites, and residents of Mesopotamia, Judea and Cappadocia, Pontus and Asia, Phrygia and Pamphylia, Egypt and the parts of Libya belonging to Cyrene, and visitors from Rome, both Jews and proselytes, Cretans and Arabs—in our own languages we hear them speaking about God's deeds of power.' All were amazed and perplexed, saying to one another, 'What does this mean?' But others sneered and said, 'They are filled with new wine.'

But Peter, standing with the eleven, raised his voice and addressed them: 'Men of Judea and all who live in Jerusalem, let this be known to you, and listen to what I say. Indeed, these are not drunk, as you suppose, for it is only nine o'clock in the morning. No, this is what was spoken through the prophet Joel:

“In the last days it will be, God declares,
that I will pour out my Spirit upon all flesh,
and your sons and your daughters shall prophesy,
and your young men shall see visions,

and your old men shall dream dreams.
Even upon my slaves, both men and women,
in those days I will pour out my Spirit;
and they shall prophesy.
And I will show portents in the heaven above
and signs on the earth below,
blood, and fire, and smoky mist.
The sun shall be turned to darkness
and the moon to blood,
before the coming of the Lord's great and glorious day.
Then everyone who calls on the name of the Lord shall be saved."

Hear the word of the Lord.
Thanks be to God.

Psalm 104. 26-36.

Lord, how various are your works:
in wisdom you have made them all,
and the earth is full of your creatures.

There is the wide, immeasurable sea:
there move living things without number, great and small;

There go the ships, to and fro:
and there is that Leviathan whom you formed to sport in the deep.

These all look to you:
to give them their food in due season.

When you give it to them, they gather it:
when you open your hand
they are satisfied with good things.

When you hide your face, they are troubled:
when you take away their breath,
they die and return to their dust.

When you send forth your spirit they are created:
and you renew the face of the earth.

May the glory of the Lord endure for ever:
may the Lord rejoice in his works.

If he look upon the earth, it shall tremble:
if he but touch the mountains, they shall smoke.
I will sing to the Lord as long as I live:
I will praise my God while I have any being.

May my meditation be pleasing to him:
for my joy shall be in the Lord.

A reading from the first letter to the Corinthians,
Chapter 12. verses 1-13

Now concerning spiritual gifts, brothers and sisters, I do not want you to be uninformed. You know that when you were pagans, you were enticed and led astray to idols that could not speak. Therefore I want you to understand that no one speaking by the Spirit of God ever says 'Let Jesus be cursed!' and no one can say 'Jesus is Lord' except by the Holy Spirit.

Now there are varieties of gifts, but the same Spirit; and there are varieties of services, but the same Lord; and there are varieties of activities, but it is the same God who activates all of them in everyone. To each is given the manifestation of the Spirit for the common good. To one is given through the Spirit the utterance of wisdom, and to another the utterance of knowledge according to the same Spirit, to another faith by the same Spirit, to another gifts of healing by the one Spirit, to another the working of miracles, to another prophecy, to another the discernment of spirits, to another various kinds of tongues, to another the interpretation of tongues. All these are activated by one and the same Spirit, who allots to each one individually just as the Spirit chooses.

For just as the body is one and has many members, and all the members of the body, though many, are one body, so it is with Christ. For in the one Spirit we were all baptized into one body—Jews or Greeks, slaves or free—and we were all made to drink of one Spirit.

Hear the word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

Alleluia, alleluia!

Come, Holy Spirit, fill the hearts of your faithful and kindle in them the fire of your love.

Alleluia !

The Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ
according to John 20: 19-23

When it was evening on that day, the first day of the week, and the doors of the house where the disciples had met were locked for fear of the Jews, Jesus came and stood among them and said, 'Peace be with you.' After he said this, he showed them his hands and his side. Then the disciples rejoiced when they saw the Lord. Jesus said to them again, 'Peace be with you. As the Father has sent me, so I send you.' When he had said this, he breathed on them and said to them, 'Receive the Holy Spirit. If you forgive the sins of any, they are forgiven them; if you retain the sins of any, they are retained.'

The Gospel of the Lord

Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ

WHISPERS OF LOVE

A warm welcome to come and experience
'Whispers of Love' meditation group

Reflection

Prayer is not what is done by us, but rather what is done by the Holy Spirit.

When we speak about the Holy spirit, we speak about the breath of God breathing in us
