

The Anglican Diocese of Newcastle
The Parish of Terrigal

Welcome to worship at Holy Trinity TRINITY SUNDAY
11th June, 2017

Prayer and anointing for healing are available at each Eucharist. If you would like prayer and anointing, please move in front of the step, at the left side of the altar, after receiving communion and a priest will come and minister to you.

We welcome Mr Warren Jolly who joins us at the two morning liturgies today to share with us about the work of the Gideons.

THE OLD TESTAMENT TRINITY

The Book of Genesis tells the story of Abraham being visited by three angelic beings as he sat under the oak of Mamre. This has been seen as a theophany or manifestation of God the Holy Trinity. Andrei Rublev, a famous Russian monk and iconographer of the fifteenth century, created a simple and beautiful visual portrayal of this event. It is not a realist or historical portrait but an icon containing symbolism.

The three angelic visitors have identical faces and are gender neutral. Their heads are tilted toward each other, reflecting their mutual affection and adoration. Above the figure on the left is a building, symbolizing the Church and the worship of God. Above the one in the middle is the Oak of Mamre mentioned in the Genesis account but also symbolic of Christ's crucifixion. Above the figure on the right is a mountain, symbolic of the spiritual journey (many biblical encounters with God took place on a mountain) or spiritual ascent toward salvation.

On the table is a dish containing the meat Abraham prepared for his guests. It rests at the focus of the circular arrangement as a symbol of the Holy Eucharist, the continuing renewal of the covenant between God and humanity. On the front of the table is a small, rectangular hole, symbolizing the "narrow door" to salvation (Luke 13:24).

CONGRATULATIONS

To The Reverend Doctor Richard Harvey in obtaining his Doctor of Philosophy degree

A reading from the book of Exodus,

Chapter 34: 1-8

The LORD said to Moses, 'Cut two tablets of stone like the former ones, and I will write on the tablets the words that were on the former tablets, which you broke. Be ready in the morning, and come up in the morning to Mount Sinai and present yourself there to me, on the top of the mountain. No one shall come up with you, and do not let anyone be seen throughout all the mountain; and do not let flocks or herds graze in front of that mountain.' So Moses cut two tablets of stone like the former ones; and he rose early in the morning and went up on Mount Sinai, as the LORD had commanded him, and took in his hand the two tablets of stone. The LORD descended in the cloud and stood with him there, and proclaimed the name, 'The LORD.'

The LORD passed before him, and proclaimed,
 'The LORD, the LORD,
 a God merciful and gracious,
 slow to anger,
 and abounding in steadfast love and faithfulness,
 keeping steadfast love for the thousandth generation,
 forgiving iniquity and transgression and sin,
 yet by no means clearing the guilty,
 but visiting the iniquity of the parents
 upon the children
 and the children's children,
 to the third and the fourth generation.'

And Moses quickly bowed his head towards the earth, and worshipped.

Hear the word of the Lord.
Thanks be to God.

The Song of Three Young Men

Blessed are you, the God of our forebears:
worthy to be praised and exalted for ever.

Blessed is your holy and glorious name:
worthy to be praised and exalted for ever.

Blessed are you, glorious in your holy temple:
worthy to be praised and exalted for ever.

Blessed are you who behold the depths:
worthy to be praised and exalted for ever.

Blessed are you on the throne of your kingdom:
worthy to be praised and exalted for ever.

Blessed are you in the heights of heaven:
worthy to be praised and exalted for ever.

A reading from the Second letter to the Corinthians, Chapter 13. verses 11-13

Finally, brothers and sisters, farewell. Put things in order, listen to my appeal, agree with one another, live in peace; and the God of love and peace will be with you. Greet one another with a holy kiss. All the saints greet you.

The grace of the Lord Jesus Christ, the love of God, and the communion of the Holy Spirit be with all of you.

Hear the word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

Alleluia, alleluia!

Glory to the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit:

to God who is, who was, and who is to come.
Alleluia!

The Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ
according to Matthew 28: 16-20

Now the eleven disciples went to Galilee, to the mountain to which Jesus had directed them. When they saw him, they worshipped him; but some doubted. And Jesus came and said to them, 'All authority in heaven and on earth has been given to me. Go therefore and make disciples of all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit, and teaching them to obey everything that I have commanded you. And remember, I am with you always, to the end of the age.'

WHISPERS OF LOVE

Reflection

*A spiritual life without prayer is like the gospel without Christ.
To pray...means to think and live in the presence of God.*

SAMARITANS

Thank you for your continued support of the Samaritans by providing food each week.

WINTER APPEAL

Samaritans has launched its Winter Appeal and is calling on you to help put an end to youth homelessness - an invisible crisis. You will find a letter and donation form included in this month's edition of Encounter. Please consider a gift to Samaritans 2017 Winter Appeal and return the form with your donation or donate online at www.samaritans.org.au/donate.

Every dollar helps Samaritans support young people in our Diocese.

Thank you for your generosity!

The Parish of Terrigal warmly welcomes you.
