A reading from the book of Genesis
Chapter 21: verses 8-21.

The child grew, and was weaned; and Abraham made a great feast on the day that Isaac was weaned. But Sarah saw the son of Hagar the Egyptian, whom she had borne to Abraham, playing with her son Isaac. So she said to Abraham, 'Cast out this slave woman with her son; for the son of this slave woman shall not inherit along with my son Isaac.' The matter was very distressing to Abraham on account of his son. But God said to Abraham, 'Do not be distressed because of the boy and because of your slave woman; whatever Sarah says to you, do as she tells you, for it is through Isaac that offspring shall be named after you. As for the son of the slave woman, I will make a nation of him also, because he is your offspring.' So Abraham rose early in the morning, and took bread and a skin of water, and gave it to Hagar, putting it on her shoulder, along with the child, and sent her away. And she departed, and wandered about in the wilderness of Beer-sheba.

When the water in the skin was gone, she cast the child under one of the bushes. Then she went and sat down opposite him a good way off, about the distance of a bowshot; for she said, 'Do not let me look on the death of the child.' And as she sat opposite him, she lifted up her voice and wept. And God heard the voice of the boy; and the angel of God called to Hagar from heaven, and said to her, 'What troubles you, Hagar? Do not be afraid; for God has heard the voice of the boy where he is. Come, lift up the boy and hold him fast with your hand, for I will make a great nation of him.' Then God opened her eyes, and she saw a well of water. She went, and filled the skin with water, and gave the boy a drink.

God was with the boy, and he grew up; he lived in the wilderness, and became an expert with the bow. He lived in the wilderness of Paran; and his mother got a wife for him from the land of Egypt.

Hear the word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

Psalm 86: verses 1-10, 16-17

Incline your ear to me, O God, and answer me:
for I am poor and in misery.

Preserve my life, for I am faithful:
My God, save your servant who trusts in you.

Be merciful to me, O Lord:
for I call to you all the day long.

O make glad the soul of your servant:
for I put my hope in you, O Lord.

For you, Lord, are good and forgiving:
of great and continuing kindness to all who call upon you.

Hear my prayer, O Lord:
and give heed to the voice of my supplication.

In the day of my trouble I call upon you:
for you will surely answer.

Among the gods there is none like you, O Lord:
nor are there any deeds like yours.

All the nations you have made shall come and worship before you:
O Lord, they shall glorify your name.

For you are great and do marvellous things:
and you alone are God.

Turn to me and be merciful,
give your strength to your servant:
and save the child of your handmaid.

Show me some token of your goodness:
that those who hate me may see it and be ashamed,
because you, Lord, are my helper and my comforter.

A reading from the letter of Paul to the Romans,
Chapter 6: verses 1-11

What then are we to say? Should we continue in sin in order that grace may abound? By no means! How can we who died to sin go on living in it? Do you not know that all of us who have been baptized into Christ Jesus were baptized into his death? Therefore we have been buried with him by baptism into death, so that, just as Christ was raised from the dead by the glory of the Father, so we too might walk in newness of life.

For if we have been united with him in a death like his, we will certainly be united with him in a resurrection like his. We know that our old self was crucified with him so that the body of sin might be destroyed, and we might no longer be enslaved to sin. For whoever has died is freed from sin. But if we have died with Christ, we believe that we will also live with him. We know that Christ, being raised from the dead, will never die again; death no longer has dominion over him. The death he died, he died to sin, once for all; but the life he lives, he lives to God. So you also must consider yourselves dead to sin and alive to God in Christ Jesus.

Hear the word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

Alleluia, alleluia!

The Spirit of Truth will bear witness to me, says the Lord,
and you also will be my witnesses.

Alleluia!

The Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ
according to Matthew 10: verses 24-39

'A disciple is not above the teacher, nor a slave above the master; it is enough for the disciple to be like the teacher, and the slave like the master. If they have called the master of the house Beelzebul, how much more will they malign those of his household!

'So have no fear of them; for nothing is covered up that will not be uncovered, and nothing secret that will not become known. What I say to you in the dark, tell in the light; and what you hear whispered, proclaim from the housetops. Do not fear those who kill the body but cannot kill the soul; rather fear him who can destroy both soul and body in hell. Are not two sparrows sold for a penny? Yet not one of them will fall to the ground unperceived by your Father. And even the hairs of your head are all counted. So do not be afraid; you are of more value than many sparrows.

'Everyone therefore who acknowledges me before others, I also will acknowledge before my Father in heaven; but whoever denies me before others, I also will deny before my Father in heaven.

'Do not think that I have come to bring peace to the earth; I have not come to bring peace, but a sword.

For I have come to set a man against his father,
and a daughter against her mother,

and a daughter-in-law against her mother-in-law;

and one's foes will be members of one's own household.

Whoever loves father or mother more than me is not worthy of me; and whoever loves son or daughter more than me is not worthy of me; and whoever does not take up the cross and follow me is not worthy of me. Those who find their life will lose it, and those who lose their life for my sake will find it.

WHISPERS OF LOVE

Reflection

When we sit together in silent prayer, we create a space where we sense that the One we are waiting for is already touching us, as that One touched Elijah standing in front of the cave. (1 Kings 19:13)...

Prayerfully Reverend Ann

Mission to Seafarers

The Mission is a Christian organisation which provides help and support to approximately 1.5 million men and women who work at sea, and is located in 50 countries, and over 200 ports across the world. The mission has a network of chaplains who respond to calls for help wherever they originate in the world, caring for seafarers of all ranks, nationalities, and beliefs. The Mission family of chaplains, staff, and volunteers offer practical, emotional and spiritual support to seafarers through ship visits, Flying Angel drop in centres - and provide recreational activities, Internet, phone facilities, and the chaplains and volunteers are on hand to listen and to offer sympathy, advice and a range of support services.

A seafarers life is often dangerous and lonely.

The Mission also can assist the Seafarers, by helping them receive professional support and legal advice when required. They also assist with transport to shops and amenities when in port. The Mission is on hand to offer assistance to seafarers needs, in case of piracy attack, shipwreck, abandonment, serious injury or in cases of bereavement. The chaplains offer Christian worship, and spiritual support and opportunities for prayer and quiet reflection. They are also trained to recognise and respond to signs of post traumatic stress disorder, as a result of these fore mentioned issues.

Seafarers and their families are at the heart of everything we do.

Think of your Global family. Every person on earth is created by God and connected to each other through our inalienable dignity. The world's 1.5 million seafarers are connected to you even more deeply. They bring you almost everything you consume in life. Building materials and electrical appliances for your home, the shoes and clothing you are wearing, children's toys, some of the food you eat, our cars and fuel, these are just a few items, which have been transported by our Global family to you and those you love.

Please pray for the Seafarers and their families and for the sacrifices they make, to provide for us the things that we often take for granted.

The Bible Society have pleasure in announcing the leader of the Bible Society in China, Kua Wee Seng, who will visit and speak about Christians and the bible in China. This is an unique opportunity to hear this speaker.

There are approximately 120 million Christians in China and 60 million of these people hold meetings in underground churches. This is a wonderful opportunity to hear the work of the bible society in China, so that we might have more understanding of the difficulties they face.
