

The Anglican Diocese of Newcastle
The Parish of Terrigal

Welcome to worship at Holy Trinity

2nd July, 2017

Fourth Sunday after Pentecost

7.30am - Sung Eucharist - Presiding & Preaching – Fr. Mark Watson

9.30am - Holy Eucharist - Presiding & Preaching – Fr. Mark Watson

Prayer and anointing for healing are available at each Eucharist. If you would like prayer and anointing, please move in front of the step, at the left side of the altar, after receiving communion and a priest will come and minister to you.

A reading from the book of Genesis

Chapter 22: verses 1-14.

After these things God tested Abraham. He said to him, 'Abraham!' And he said, 'Here I am.' He said, 'Take your son, your only son Isaac, whom you love, and go to the land of Moriah, and offer him there as a burnt-offering on one of the mountains that I shall show you.' So Abraham rose early in the morning, saddled his donkey, and took two of his young men with him, and his son Isaac; he cut the wood for the burnt-offering, and set out and went to the place in the distance that God had shown him. On the third day Abraham looked up and saw the place far away. Then Abraham said to his young men, 'Stay here with the donkey; the boy and I will go over there; we will worship, and then we will come back to you.' Abraham took the wood of the burnt-offering and laid it on his son Isaac, and he himself carried the fire and the knife. So the two of them walked on together. Isaac said to his father Abraham, 'Father!' And he said, 'Here I am, my son.' He said, 'The fire and the wood are here, but where is the lamb for a burnt-offering?' Abraham said, 'God himself will provide the lamb for a burnt-offering, my son.' So the two of them walked on together.

When they came to the place that God had shown him, Abraham built an altar there and laid the wood in order. He bound his son Isaac, and laid him on the altar, on top of the wood. Then Abraham reached out his hand and took the knife to kill his son. But the angel of the LORD called to him from heaven, and said, 'Abraham, Abraham!' And he said, 'Here I am.' He said, 'Do not lay your hand on the boy or do anything to him; for now I know that you fear God, since you have not withheld your son, your only son, from me.' And Abraham looked up and saw a ram, caught in a thicket by its horns. Abraham went and took the ram and offered it up as a burnt-offering instead of his son. So

Abraham called that place 'The LORD will provide'; as it is said to this day, 'On the mount of the LORD it shall be provided.'

Hear the word of the Lord.
Thanks be to God.

Psalm 13

How long, O Lord, will you so utterly forget me:
how long will you hide your face from me?

How long must I suffer anguish in my soul,
and be so grieved in my heart day and night:
how long shall my enemy triumph over me?

Look upon me, O Lord my God, and answer me:
lighten my eyes, lest I sleep in death;

Lest my enemy say 'I have prevailed':
lest my foes exult at my overthrow.

Yet I put my trust in your unfailing love:
O let my heart rejoice in your salvation.

And I will make my song to the Lord:
because he deals so bountifully with me.

A reading from the letter of Paul to the Romans, Chapter 6: verses 12-23

Therefore, do not let sin exercise dominion in your mortal bodies, to make you obey their passions. No longer present your members to sin as instruments of wickedness, but present yourselves to God as those who have been brought from death to life, and present your members to God as instruments of righteousness. For sin will have no dominion over you, since you are not under law but under grace.

What then? Should we sin because we are not under law but under grace? By no means! Do you not know that if you present yourselves to anyone as obedient slaves, you are slaves of the one whom you obey, either of sin, which leads to death, or of obedience, which leads to righteousness? But thanks be to God that you, having once been slaves of sin, have become obedient from the heart to the form of teaching to which you were entrusted, and that you, having been set free from sin, have become slaves of righteousness. I am speaking in human terms because of your natural limitations. For just as you once presented your members as slaves to impurity and to greater and greater iniquity, so now present your members as slaves to righteousness for sanctification.

When you were slaves of sin, you were free in regard to righteousness. So what advantage did you then get from the things of which you now are ashamed? The end of those things is death. But now that you have been freed from sin and enslaved to God, the advantage you get is sanctification. The end is eternal life. For the wages of sin is death, but the free gift of God is eternal life in Christ Jesus our Lord.

Hear the word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

Alleluia, alleluia!

You are a chosen race, a royal priesthood, a holy people.
Praise God who called you out of darkness and into his marvellous light.

Alleluia!

The Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ
according to Matthew 10: verses 40-42

'Whoever welcomes you welcomes me, and whoever welcomes me welcomes the one who sent me. Whoever welcomes a prophet in the name of a prophet will receive a prophet's reward; and whoever welcomes a righteous person in the name of a righteous person will receive the reward of the righteous; and whoever gives even a cup of cold water to one of these little ones in the name of a disciple—truly I tell you, none of these will lose their reward.'

The Gospel of the Lord

Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ

MISSION REPORT 2nd July 2017

NAIDOC WEEK – 2nd – 9th July

This year the 2017 National NAIDOC Week Theme:
Our Languages Matter

The importance, resilience and richness of Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander languages will be the focus of the national celebrations.

The theme this year will raise awareness of the status and importance of indigenous languages across the country, to emphasise and celebrate the unique and essential role that indigenous languages play in cultural identity, linking people to their land and water and in the transmission of Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander history, spirituality and rites, through story and song.

When European contact was made with this continent, some 250 distinct language groups existed. Most of these had several dialects. Today only around 120 of those languages are still spoken and many are at risk of being lost as Elders pass on.

Within indigenous communities, language is not just a means of communication, they express knowledge about everything: law, geography, history, family and human relationships, philosophy, religion, anatomy, children, health, caring for country, astronomy, biology, and food. Each language is associated with an area of land, and has a deep spiritual significance and it is through their own languages, that the indigenous nations maintain their connection with their ancestors, land and law.

The theme aims to highlight programs and communities working to preserve, revitalise or record indigenous languages, and encourage all Australians to notice the use of indigenous languages in their community, learn more about their local language, passing on the knowledge to the next generation.

Nationally many suburbs, rivers, mountains and parks are Indigenous language words. The preservation and revitalisation of the Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander languages – the original languages of this national – is the preservation of priceless treasure, not just for indigenous people, but for everyone.

MISSION TO SEAFARERS

WOMEN'S FELLOWSHIP JULY MEETING.

MONDAY 10TH JULY

Once our business part of Women's Fellowship has been completed, at 2:00pm we will be addressed by Rev. Lyn Porritt from Central Coast Samaritans.

We invite everyone to come and listen, even bring a friend! This will be a perfect opportunity to hear what the Samaritans do within our area. Also given the generous nature of our parish to support Samaritans, particularly the Wyoming office, you will be able to find out where your gifts go. Women's fellowship always finishes the meetings with a most enjoyable afternoon tea and July meeting will be no exception.

OP. SHOP VOLUNTEERS

We always appreciate the work of our volunteers in the op shop and this Sunday night they will be joining us at the Terrigal Bowlo so we can say thank you.
