A reading from the book of Exodus
Chapter 20: verses 1-4, 7-9, 12-20.

Then God spoke all these words:

I am the LORD your God, who brought you out of the land of Egypt, out of the house of slavery; you shall have no other gods before me.

You shall not make for yourself an idol, whether in the form of anything that is in heaven above, or that is on the earth beneath, or that is in the water under the earth.

You shall not make wrongful use of the name of the LORD your God, for the LORD will not acquit anyone who misuses his name.

Remember the sabbath day, and keep it holy. For six days you shall labour and do all your work.

Honour your father and your mother, so that your days may be long in the land that the LORD your God is giving you.

You shall not murder.

You shall not commit adultery.

You shall not steal.

You shall not bear false witness against your neighbour.

You shall not covet your neighbour's house; you shall not covet your neighbour's wife, or male or female slave, or ox, or donkey, or anything that belongs to your neighbour.

When all the people witnessed the thunder and lightning, the sound of the trumpet, and the mountain smoking, they were afraid and trembled and stood at a distance, and said to Moses, 'You speak to us, and we will listen; but do not let God speak to us, or we will die.' Moses said to the people, 'Do not be afraid;

for God has come only to test you and to put the fear of him upon you so that you do not sin.'

Hear the word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

Psalm 19

The heavens declare the glory of God:
and the firmament proclaims his handiwork;
One day tells it to another:
and night to night communicates knowledge.

There is no speech or language:
nor are their voices heard;
Yet their sound has gone out through all the world:
and their words to the ends of the earth.

There he has pitched a tent for the sun:
which comes out as a bridegroom from his chamber,
and rejoices like a strong man to run his course.
Its rising is at one end of the heavens, and its circuit to their farthest bound:
and nothing is hidden from its heat.

The law of the Lord is perfect, reviving the soul:
the command of the Lord is true,
and makes wise the simple.
The precepts of the Lord are right, and rejoice the heart:
the commandment of the Lord is pure,
and gives light to the eyes.

The fear of the Lord is clean, and endures for ever:
the judgements of the Lord are unchanging,
and righteous every one.

More to be desired are they than gold,
even much fine gold:
sweeter also than honey,
than the honey that drips from the comb.

Moreover, by them is your servant taught:
and in keeping them there is great reward.

Who can know their own unwitting sins?:
O cleanse me from my secret faults.

Keep your servant also from presumptuous sins,
lest they get the mastery over me:
so I shall be clean, and innocent of great offence.

May the words of my mouth and the meditation
of my heart be acceptable in your sight:
O Lord, my strength and my redeemer.

A reading from the letter of Paul to the Philippians, Chapter 3: verses 4b-14.

If anyone else has reason to be confident in the flesh, I have more: circumcised on the eighth day, a member of the people of Israel, of the tribe of Benjamin, a Hebrew born of Hebrews; as to the law, a Pharisee; as to zeal, a persecutor of the church; as to righteousness under the law, blameless.

Yet whatever gains I had, these I have come to regard as loss because of Christ. More than that, I regard everything as loss because of the surpassing value of knowing Christ Jesus my Lord. For his sake I have suffered the loss of all things, and I regard them as rubbish, in order that I may gain Christ and be found in him, not having a righteousness of my own that comes from the law, but one that comes through faith in Christ, the righteousness from God based on faith. I want to know Christ and the power of his resurrection and the sharing of his sufferings by becoming like him in his death, if somehow I may attain the resurrection from the dead.

Not that I have already obtained this or have already reached the goal; but I press on to make it my own, because Christ Jesus has made me his own. Beloved, I do not consider that I have made it my own; but this one thing I do: forgetting what lies behind and straining forward to what lies ahead, I press on towards the goal for the prize of the heavenly call of God in Christ Jesus.

Hear the word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

Alleluia, alleluia!

I call you friends, says the Lord,
because I have made known to you everything I have learnt from my Father.

Alleluia!

The Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to Matthew 21: verses 33 – 46.

'Listen to another parable. There was a landowner who planted a vineyard, put a fence around it, dug a wine press in it, and built a watch-tower. Then he leased it to tenants and went to another country. When the harvest time had come, he sent his slaves to the tenants to collect his produce. But the tenants seized his slaves and beat one, killed another, and stoned another. Again he sent other slaves, more than the first; and they treated them in the same way. Finally he sent his son to them, saying, "They will respect my son." But when the tenants saw the son, they said to themselves, "This is the heir; come, let us kill him and get his inheritance." So they seized him, threw him out of the vineyard, and killed him. Now when the owner of the vineyard comes, what will he do to those tenants?' They said to him, 'He will put those wretches to a miserable death, and lease the vineyard to other tenants who will give him the produce at the harvest time.'

Jesus said to them, 'Have you never read in the scriptures: "The stone that the builders rejected has become the cornerstone; this was the Lord's doing, and it is amazing in our eyes"?'

Therefore I tell you, the kingdom of God will be taken away from you and given to a people that produces the fruits of the kingdom. The one who falls on this stone will be broken to pieces; and it will crush anyone on whom it falls.'

When the chief priests and the Pharisees heard his parables, they realized that he was speaking about them. They wanted to arrest him, but they feared the crowds, because they regarded him as a prophet.

HARVEST FESTIVAL

22nd OCTOBER , 2017

Non perishable goods for the Harvest Festival can be brought in over the coming weeks.

It would be appreciated if perishable goods could be brought in on Sunday 22nd.

Perishable items will go to Coast Shelter in Gosford and the non perishable items to Samaritans.

SATURDAY 21ST OCTOBER - 8.00AM TO 1.00PM

We will be setting up for Market Day on Friday 20TH from 1.00pm. All help is needed and gratefully appreciated. On Saturday we start to pack up from 12.30/1.00pm, so once again we need help to clear the greeting space for our services on Sunday.

Please don't forget your cakes for our cake stall.

URGENT – HELP NEEDED

We are urgently in need of people who would be prepared to help in the kitchen. Please speak to George Jessup if you can assist.

ANGLICAN WOMEN'S 'THANK YOU' BOXES FOR THIS YEAR ARE FOR THE ALI AHLI HOSPITAL IN GAZA CITY. PLEASE TAKE HOME BOXES AND FILL THEM UP FOR THIS CAUSE.

Al Ahli Arab Hospital is located in Gaza City and occupies a beautiful campus in the city centre. With well-tended grounds, it is a haven of peace in the middle of one of the world's most troubled places. The political status of Gaza affects all aspects of life there because of restrictions on movements of materials and peoples in and out. Electricity, medicines, food, fuel, and personnel are all restricted to some extent. However, Al Ahli Arab Hospital continues to provide some of the finest medical care available in the region. For example, Ahli runs completely free of charge a program for early detection of breast cancer among women above 40 years of age. Two programs deserve special mention: the centre for elderly women and the mobile clinic program which twice weekly provides free medical care and food to people from surrounding towns and villages. In a land where hardship is commonplace, the conditions in Gaza stand out, but Ali Ahli Arab Hospital generates a beacon of peace and hope for the people it serves.

Mission: The Ahi Arab mission is to glorify God and bear witness to his love as manifested in the life of Jesus Christ. Ahli Arab Hospital is doing this through the provision of high quality patient centred health care services, and maintains the financial viability of its operation. The hospital offers to serve all who seek treatment without prejudice to any religious or ethnic community and irrespective of social class, gender and political affiliation. These services are delivered in a spirit of love and service.

Ahli Arab Hospital recognizes the value of its staff and volunteers and promotes equal and compassionate treatment with dignity and respect to all.

Vision: To continue providing the finest medical care possible under the most adverse circumstances to the marginalized and vulnerable poor people whose livelihood are threatened by the effect of human-made disaster, with special attention to the refugee and the poorest of the poor. The hospital is committed to building people's capacity and competence alongside the development and maintenance of an adequate stand of diagnostic and clinical services.

CHORAL EVENSONG
(Book of Common Prayer 1662)

Eighteenth Sunday after Pentecost 8th October 2017 at 3.00pm

The Cathedral Singers will be our guest choir. The Cathedral Singers was formed in 1989. It consists of around twenty people dedicated to excellence in church music. The Cathedral Singers brings the best of the Anglican choral tradition to the liturgy in the many churches where they are called upon to assist in the services of the church. While this is the main part of their mission, they also assist in other functions such as weddings and concerts.

WHISPERS OF LOVE
10.00am Monday

Reflection

Silence is the sabbath of the soul. It enables us to rest from the noise and pace around us and think of softer things.

Joan Chittister

Prayerfully Reverend Ann
