A reading from the first book of Jonah

Chapter 3: verses 1-10.

The word of the LORD came to Jonah a second time, saying, 'Get up, go to Nineveh, that great city, and proclaim to it the message that I tell you.' So Jonah set out and went to Nineveh, according to the word of the LORD. Now Nineveh was an exceedingly large city, a three days' walk across. Jonah began to go into the city, going a day's walk. And he cried out, 'Forty days more, and Nineveh shall be overthrown!' And the people of Nineveh believed God; they proclaimed a fast, and everyone, great and small, put on sackcloth.

When the news reached the king of Nineveh, he rose from his throne, removed his robe, covered himself with sackcloth, and sat in ashes. Then he had a proclamation made in Nineveh: 'By the decree of the king and his nobles: No human being or animal, no herd or flock, shall taste anything. They shall not feed, nor shall they drink water. Human beings and animals shall be covered with sackcloth, and they shall cry mightily to God. All shall turn from their evil ways and from the violence that is in their hands. Who knows? God may relent and change his mind; he may turn from his fierce anger, so that we do not perish.'

When God saw what they did, how they turned from their evil ways, God changed his mind about the calamity that he had said he would bring upon them; and he did not do it.

Hear the word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

Psalm 62. Verses 5-12

Nevertheless, my soul, wait in silence for God:
for from him comes my hope.

He only is my rock and my salvation:
my strong tower, so that I shall not be moved.

In God is my deliverance and my glory:
God is my strong rock and my shelter.

Trust in him at all times, O my people:
pour out your hearts before him, for God is our refuge.

The children of Adam are but breath,
the children of earth are a lie:
place them in the scales and they fly upward,
they are as light as air.

Put no trust in extortion,
do not grow worthless by robbery:
if riches increase, set not your heart upon them.

God has spoken once, twice have I heard him say:
that power belongs to God,

That to the Lord belongs a constant goodness:
for you reward each one of us according to our works.

A reading from the first letter of Paul to the Corinthians Chapter 7: verses 29 - 31.

I mean, brothers and sisters, the appointed time has grown short; from now on, let even those who have wives be as though they had none, and those who mourn as though they were not mourning, and those who rejoice as though they were not rejoicing, and those who buy as though they had no possessions, and those who deal with the world as though they had no dealings with it. For the present form of this world is passing away.

Hear the word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

Alleluia, alleluia!

The kingdom of God is near:

believe the Good News!

Alleluia!

The Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ
according to Mark 1: verses 14-20.

Now after John was arrested, Jesus came to Galilee, proclaiming the good news of God, and saying, 'The time is fulfilled, and the kingdom of God has come near; repent, and believe in the good news.'

As Jesus passed along the Sea of Galilee, he saw Simon and his brother Andrew casting a net into the lake—for they were fishermen. And Jesus said to them, 'Follow me and I will make you fish for people.' And immediately they left their nets and followed him. As he went a little farther, he saw James son of Zebedee and his brother John, who were in their boat mending the nets. Immediately he called them; and they left their father Zebedee in the boat with the hired men, and followed him.

The Gospel of the Lord

Praise to you, Lord Jesus

WEDNESDAY EVENINGS AT HOLY TRINITY

Holy Trinity invites you to spend time with God in worship at the Holy Eucharist at 5.00pm each Wednesday for approximately half an hour. Our worship is followed by Sacred Reading for approximately an hour. Some members of the congregation stay only for the Eucharist and others remain for both. You are welcome to make this part of your Wednesday evening as often as you like.

Do you feel that God speaks to you in the Scriptures? Many people over the centuries have found a way to do this in Lectio Divina, translated Divine Reading or Sacred Reading, that is a way of prayerfully reading the Bible. It is an unhurried reading of a portion of Scripture. This kind of reading of the Scriptures may be done privately or in a group situation. We have a group reading on Wednesdays following the 5.00pm Eucharist. For this purpose we use the Gospel reading for the following Sunday.

Sacred Reading is directed to the very essence of your being, that is, God, Father, Son and Holy Spirit within us. It is not an intellectual study of the Scriptures. It is of the heart. It is of a word or a phrase that touches your inner being and through which God speaks to you of what you may learn and what you may do in your life.

You are invited to join our parish group that meets on Wednesday evening following the 5.00pm Eucharist.

Blessings in your spiritual journey,

Fr. Roy

Ash Wednesday - Palm Crosses.

Ash Wednesday 14th February marks the beginning of the Season of Lent. This is a Season of penance, contrition, reflection and fasting, a period of 40 days for us to prepare for Christ's Resurrection on Easter Sunday. During this preparation, we are reminded, that God is gracious and merciful to those who call on Him with repentant hearts.

Each year the Ashes are prepared using the blessed Palm Crosses from the previous years Palm Sunday Service.

The symbolic marking of foreheads with ashes, to humble our hearts, remind us that life passes away on Earth. "Remember that you are dust, and to dust you shall return". Gen. 3:19

A Bowl has been placed on the Side table in the gathering space for the collection of the Palm Crosses. Could you please bring your Palm Crosses from last year to place in the bowl, so that they can be prepared and burned as part of the Parish preparations for this year's Ash Wednesday services.

Coralie Taylor - Sacristan.

Please pray for
