A reading from the Acts of the Apostles
Chapter 10: verses 34-43.

Then Peter began to speak to them: 'I truly understand that God shows no partiality, but in every nation anyone who fears him and does what is right is acceptable to him. You know the message he sent to the people of Israel, preaching peace by Jesus Christ—he is Lord of all. That message spread throughout Judea, beginning in Galilee after the baptism that John announced: how God anointed Jesus of Nazareth with the Holy Spirit and with power; how he went about doing good and healing all who were oppressed by the devil, for God was with him. We are witnesses to all that he did both in Judea and in Jerusalem. They put him to death by hanging him on a tree; but God raised him on the third day and allowed him to appear, not to all the people but to us who were chosen by God as witnesses, and who ate and drank with him after he rose from the dead. He commanded us to preach to the people and to testify that he is the one ordained by God as judge of the living and the dead. All the prophets testify about him that everyone who believes in him receives forgiveness of sins through his name.'

Hear the word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

Hymn of the Risen Christ (T.i.S 359)

Alleluia, alleluia, alleluia

Alleluia, alleluia, alleluia

Christ our Passover has been sacrificed for us, so let us celebrate the feast,
not with the old leaven of corruption and wickedness,
but with the unleavened bread of sincerity and truth.

Alleluia, alleluia, alleluia

Christ once raised from the dead dies no more.
Death has no more dominion over him.
In dying he died to sin once for all;
in living he lives to God.

Alleluia, alleluia, alleluia

See yourselves therefore as dead to sin,
and alive to God in Jesus our Lord.
Christ has been raised from the dead,
the first fruits of those who sleep.

Alleluia, alleluia, alleluia

For as by one man came death,
by another has come also resurrection of the dead:
for as in Adam all die,
even so in Christ shall all be made alive.

Alleluia, alleluia, alleluia

A reading from the first letter of the Paul to the Corinthians
Chapter 15: verses 1-11.

Now I should remind you, brothers and sisters, of the good news that I proclaimed to you, which you in turn received, in which also you stand, through which also you are being saved, if you hold firmly to the message that I proclaimed to you—unless you have come to believe in vain.

For I handed on to you as of first importance what I in turn had received: that Christ died for our sins in accordance with the scriptures, and that he was buried, and that he was raised on the third day in accordance with the scriptures, and that he appeared to Cephas, then to the twelve. Then he appeared to more than five hundred brothers and sisters at one time, most of whom are still alive, though some have died. Then he appeared to James, then to all the apostles. Last of all, as to someone untimely born, he appeared also to me. For I am the least of the apostles, unfit to be called an apostle, because I persecuted the church of God. But by the grace of God I am what I am, and his grace towards me has not been in vain. On the contrary, I worked harder than any of them—though it was not I, but the grace of God that is with me. Whether then it was I or they, so we proclaim and so you have come to believe.

Hear the word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

Alleluia, alleluia!
Christ has become our paschal sacrifice;
let us feast with joy in the Lord.
Alleluia!

The Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ
according to Mark, chapter 16: verses 1-8.

When the sabbath was over, Mary Magdalene, and Mary the mother of James, and Salome bought spices, so that they might go and anoint him. And very early on the first day of the week, when the sun had risen, they went to the tomb. They had been saying to one another, 'Who will roll away the stone for us from the entrance to the tomb?' When they looked up, they saw that the stone, which was very large, had already been rolled back. As they entered the tomb, they saw a young man, dressed in a white robe, sitting on the right side; and they were alarmed. But he said to them, 'Do not be alarmed; you are looking for Jesus of Nazareth, who was crucified. He has been raised; he is not here. Look, there is the place they laid him. But go, tell his disciples and Peter that he is going ahead of you to Galilee; there you will see him, just as he told you.' So they went out and fled from the tomb, for terror and amazement had seized them; and they said nothing to anyone, for they were afraid.

MEDITATION 'WHISPERS OF LOVE'

Whispers of Love will not be held Monday 2nd.

Reflection

Risen one,
send me forth as a disciple of your unwavering love,
A messenger of you unlimited joy Resurrected One,
may I become ever more convinced that your presence lives on,
and on, and on.

Alleluia Alleluia
