MEDITATION 'WHISPERS OF LOVE'

Monday 10.00am

Reflection

Pray, even if you feel nothing, see nothing.
For when you are dry, empty, sick or weak, at such a time is your prayer most pleasing to God, even though you may find little joy in it.
This is true of all believing prayer.
Julian of Norwich.

Prayerfully Reverend Ann

Mission Report 3rd June 2018.

ABM : This year's Tax Appeal focuses on empowering women and girls in Kenya and Zambia. INTEGRATED GENDER INITIATIVE IN ZAMBIA

In Zambia, ABM works to create awareness of gender equality, gender-based violence and to strengthen the support of women and girls to make positive changes in their lives.

The program aims to reduce social, cultural, religious and structural barriers that hinder women and children from accessing their rights, and to provide support that will enhance women's financial independence. Since the beginning of this program, more women are able to share their voice even though there is a very long way to go.

However, since the problem is multi-faceted, a new approach will see teams of men (Men's Engagement Networks - MENS) go out to communities and work with women as partners to fight gender-based violence.

The aim of MENS, is to influence male counterparts to reflect on issues such as masculinity, socialization and power and to embrace gender equality as a social norm.

Members of the MENS group will then use various approaches to engage the identified men who are either survivors or perpetrators of genderbased violence, and take them through behaviour changing processes.

Finally, the project will focus on building the capacity, especially of vulnerable women via business/entrepreneurship and leadership skills to enable them to achieve household food security, while building their capacities to take up leadership roles in advocating for their rights.

Gaining these skills will also assist them with looking after their children and passing on their new found knowledge.

Your support for these projects will make a huge difference to the lives of women and girls in Zambia.

RECONCILIATION WEEK - 27TH MAY - 3RD JUNE

Today marks the anniversary of the High Court Mabo judgement and the end of Reconciliation Week.

Theme: "Don't Keep History A Mystery: Learn. Share. Grow"

This year's campaign highlights some of the lesser known aspects of Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander, histories, cultures, and achievements, to prompt Australians to ask themselves: what are some of the things I don't know about our shared history?

Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander cultures have been continuously practiced on Country across Australia for many thousands of years.

The 27th May and the 3rd June, commemorate two significant milestones in the reconciliation journey— the successful 1967 referendum, and the High Court Mabo decision respectively.

National Reconciliation Week (NRW) is a time for all Australians to learn about our shared histories, cultures, and achievements, and to explore how each of us can contribute to achieving reconciliation in Australia.

Reconciliation must live in the hearts, minds and actions of all Australians as we move forward, creating a nation strengthened by respectful relationships between the wider Australian community, and Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander peoples.

National Reconciliation Week (NRW) started as the Week of Prayer for Reconciliation in 1993 (the International Year of the World's Indigenous People) and was supported by Australia's major faith communities. In 1996, the Council for Aboriginal Reconciliation launched Australia's first 'National Reconciliation Week'. In 2000, Reconciliation Australia was established to continue to provide national leadership on reconciliation.

A Prayer for Reconciliation (APBA p203)
by Bishop Arthur and Mrs Colleen Malcolm

*Lord God, bring us together as one,
reconciled with you and reconciled with each other.*

*You made us in your likeness,
you gave us your Son, Jesus Christ.
He has given us forgiveness from sin.
Lord God, bring us together as one,
different in culture, but given new life in Jesus Christ,
together as your body, your Church, your people.
Lord God, bring us together as one,
reconciled, healed, forgiven,
sharing you with others as you have called us to do.
In Jesus Christ, let us be together as one. Amen.*

A Thanksgiving for Australia (APBA 218)

by the Rev'd Lenore Parker, an Indigenous Anglican priest

*God of holy dreaming, Great Creator Spirit,
From the dawn of creation you have given your children
the good things of Mother Earth. You spoke and the gum tree grew.
In vast deserts and dense forest, and in cities at the water's edge, creation sings your praise.
Your presence endures
as the rock at the heart of our Land.
When Jesus hung on the tree
you heard the cries of your people
and became one with your wounded ones:
the convicts, the hunted, and the dispossessed.
The sunrise of your Son coloured the earth anew. and bathed it in glorious hope.
In Jesus we have been reconciled to you,
To each other and to your whole creation.
Lead us on, Great Spirit,
as we gather from the four corners of the earth,
Enable us to walk together in trust,
from the hurt and shame of the past
Into the full day which has dawned in Jesus Christ. Amen.*
