Sentence

Does not wisdom call, and does not understanding raise her voice? The Lord created me at the beginning of his work, the first of his acts of long ago.

Proverbs 8.1, 22

Prayer of the Day

Father, we praise you, that through your Word and Holy Spirit
you created all things;
you reveal your salvation in all the world through Jesus Christ, the Word made flesh;
through your Holy Spirit you give us a share
in your life and love:
fill us with the vision of your glory,
that we may always serve and praise you,
Father, Son and Holy Spirit,
one God for ever and ever. Amen.

A reading from the Book of Proverbs Chapter 8, verses 1 – 4, 22 – 31

Does not wisdom call,
and does not understanding raise her voice?
On the heights, beside the way,
at the crossroads she takes her stand;
beside the gates in front of the town,
at the entrance of the portals she cries out:
'To you, O people, I call,
and my cry is to all that live.

The Lord created me at the beginning of his work,
the first of his acts of long ago.
Ages ago I was set up,
at the first, before the beginning of the earth.
When there were no depths I was brought forth,
when there were no springs abounding with water.
Before the mountains had been shaped,
before the hills, I was brought forth—
when he had not yet made earth and fields, or the world's first bits of soil.
When he established the heavens, I was there,
when he drew a circle on the face of the deep,
when he made firm the skies above,
when he established the fountains of the deep,
when he assigned to the sea its limit,
so that the waters might not transgress his command,
when he marked out the foundations of the earth,
then I was beside him, like a master worker;
and I was daily his delight, rejoicing before him always,
rejoicing in his inhabited world
and delighting in the human race.

Hear the word of the Lord

Thanks be to God

Psalm 8

O Lord our Governor:
how glorious is your name in all the earth!

Your majesty above the heavens is yet recounted:
by the mouths of babes and sucklings.

You have founded a strong defence against your adversaries: to quell the enemy and the avenger.

When I consider your heavens, the work of your fingers:
the moon and the stars which you have set in order,

What are we, that you should be mindful of us:
what are we, that you should care for us?

Yet you have made us little less than gods:
and have crowned us with glory and honour.

You have given us dominion over your handiwork:
and have put all things in subjection beneath our feet,

All sheep and oxen:
and all the creatures of the field,

The birds of the air and the fish of the sea:
and everything that moves in the pathways of the great waters.

O Lord our Governor:
how glorious is your name in all the earth!

A reading from the Letter of Paul to the Romans Chapter 5, verses 1 – 5

Therefore, since we are justified by faith, we have peace with God through our Lord Jesus Christ, through whom we have obtained access to this grace in which we stand; and we boast in our hope of sharing the glory of God. And not only that, but we also boast in our sufferings, knowing that suffering produces endurance, and endurance produces character, and character produces hope, and hope does not disappoint us, because God's love has been poured into our hearts through the Holy Spirit that has been given to us.

Hear the word of the Lord
Thanks be to God

Alleluia, alleluia!

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Spirit:
to God who is, who was, and who is to come.

Alleluia!

The Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to John,
Chapter 16, verses 12 – 15

Glory to you Lord Jesus Christ

'I still have many things to say to you, but you cannot bear them now. When the Spirit of truth comes, he will guide you into all the truth; for he will not speak on his own, but will speak whatever he hears, and he will declare to you the things that are to come. He will glorify me, because he will take what is mine and declare it to you. All that the Father has is mine. For this reason I said that he will take what is mine and declare it to you.

Praise to you Lord Jesus Christ

THE OLD TESTAMENT TRINITY

The Book of Genesis tells the story of Abraham being visited by three angelic beings as he sat under the oak of Mamre. This has been seen as a theophany or manifestation of God the Holy Trinity. Andrei Rublev, a famous Russian monk and iconographer of the fifteenth century, created a simple and beautiful visual portrayal of this event. It is not a realist or historical portrait but an icon containing symbolism.

The three angelic visitors have identical faces and are gender neutral. Their heads are tilted toward each other, reflecting their mutual affection and adoration. Above the figure on the left is a building, symbolizing the Church and the worship of God. Above the one in the middle is the Oak of Mamre mentioned in the Genesis account but also symbolic of Christ's crucifixion. Above the figure on the right is a mountain, symbolic of the spiritual journey (many biblical encounters with God took place on a mountain) or spiritual ascent toward salvation.

On the table is a dish containing the meat Abraham prepared for his guests. It rests at the focus of the circular arrangement as a symbol of the Holy Eucharist, the continuing renewal of the covenant between God and humanity. On the front of the table is a small, rectangular hole, symbolizing the "narrow door" to salvation (Luke 13:24).

Messy Church – Join us today at 3:30pm

Please join us today for Messy Church and invite a family with young children to come along with you!

'Whispers of Love' Meditation –

Meditation Reflection

Prayer is the way to both the heart of God and the heart of the world—precisely because they have been joined through the suffering of Jesus Christ...Praying is letting one's own heart become the place where the tears of God and the tears of God's children can merge and become tears of hope.

Prayerfully Reverend Ann

Postponed till August 'Community Hymnfest'

At this time we do not have a date, however, start looking for your favourite hymns to add to the list once we have put it out.

For those wishing to use internet banking for their offertory to support our church the following are the details for Holy Trinity's ASDF bank account.

BSB 705077, Account No. 00040934

Winter Appeal – Food and Blankets

Please support the Samaritan's Winter Appeal for food donations, soups, cereals, pasta sauce. With winter approaching demand increases but unfortunately supplies are low. Samaritans are also in need of warm blankets.

Samaritans are very grateful for your support.

TODAY – TRINITY SUNDAY BRUNCH

This day is our Patronal Festival Sunday. Normally we would have a luncheon, but this year the celebration falls on a busy weekend – Market Day and Messy Church.

So, for something a little different, the Women's Fellowship are holding a BRUNCH commencing at 11.00am after the 9.30am service. At this brunch we will also be giving thanks to the Cancer Council of Australia by giving a donation as we are combining our celebration with the Biggest Morning Tea. Please mark the date in your diary and make sure you celebrate with us. There is no charge, we are just asking for a donation to the Cancer Council.

The prayer for the week

Lord,
We beseech you to keep your family, the Church,
in continual goodness,
that through your protection
it may be free from all adversaries, and devoutly given to serve you in good works,
to the glory of your name;
through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen

ABM - Tax Appeal

There is still time to donate

This year's Tax Appeal focuses on supporting ABM's Partners in the Philippines, helping communities to improve their livelihoods and become more self-sufficient.

ASSET BASED COMMUNITY DEVELOPMENT IN THE PHILIPPINES

People living around the poverty line in the Philippines often find themselves relying on moneylenders to get them through financial emergencies as they are unable to make ends meet.

These informal lenders charge 10-20% per month, with some loans as high as 60%. It's no wonder people accessing these loans have little hope of getting ahead in life, since their main thoughts are about simply surviving year in, year out.

ABM's projects in the Philippines help people stuck in this cycle of poverty by putting decision-making, and funding, directly into the hands of communities. Using an asset-based community development approach and knowledge gained from trainings, project participants supported by ABM's partner, Visayas and Mindanao Regional Office for Development (VIMROD) of the Philippine Independent Church, form small groups and start economic activities designed to generate income between harvests and low fishing yields.

Another ABM partner, the Episcopal Community Action for Renewal and Empowerment (ECARE), developed a "Receivers to Givers" policy and engages with community groups, and individuals like Rosalie and her family, who are trained in identifying their strengths (assets) and how to best use these assets to grow their income. They then apply for funds from their community group to develop their business ideas into viable concerns. Instead of keeping the initial funds, the recipients are required to "give back" with interest of 0.5% to 1.0% being charged, to cover ECARE's costs in providing training and support. Once returned, the funds are then given to another group or community, and so the process of being freed from the burden of moneylenders continues.

Rosalie used her funding to make soap from herbs she grows on her land. She also augmented her small tree nursery with coffee, calamansi lemons and cacao, and sells the young trees to the Ecosystem Research Development Bureau whom ECARE put her in touch with. Rosalie's delighted that this injection of cash, which she has already repaid, has enabled her to expand her agricultural production and move into value-adding.

Participants like Rosalie are happy that by returning the funds they are enabling another family in the next community to have the same opportunities they have by being part of this project.

With your support, you will enable more families like Rosalie's to feel confident in being able to provide for themselves, and to help expand their economic activities to benefit the wider community. This project is supported by Australian Aid.

Mission to Seafarers Sea Sunday - 14th July 2019

Thank you to all who have been knitting beanies for the Mission to Seafarers.

During the past couple of weeks, we have experienced inclement weather, with cooler nights, chilly winds, rain, and in some places snow. Just imagine how more severe the conditions are on board the merchant sea vessels during severe weather conditions, rough seas, long periods of wet weather, especially during the colder months of the year.

The knitted beanies are much appreciated by the Seafarers as the hats help to keep them warm. Sea Sunday is only a few weeks away. If you are unable to knit, you make like to donate Toiletries, woolen socks, torches, magazines, deck of cards etc... are all welcome.

Coralie Taylor - Mission Secretary.

Pew Reflections

Trinity Sunday – Sunday 16 June 2019

- Proverbs 8.1-4, 22-31; Psalm 8;
Romans 5.1-5; John 16. 12-15

Hope: Today Jesus speaks to us concerning truth: 'I still have many things to say to you, but you cannot bear them now. When the Spirit of truth comes, he will guide you into all the truth; for he will not speak on his own, but will speak whatever he hears, and he will declare to you the things that are to come.' What are we to make of this? All we can hope is that we may be found worthy by Christ to be able to bear the truth that the Spirit will bring. and not be either too immature for it, or too bound in error to accept it.

- Gracious Father, we pray for your holy Catholic Church. Fill it with all truth, in all truth with all peace. Where it is corrupt, purify it; where it is in error, direct it; where in any thing it is amiss, reform it. Where it is right, strengthen it; where it is in want, provide for it; where it is divided, reunite it; for the sake of Jesus Christ thy Son our Saviour. Amen.
– Archbishop William Laud, d. 1645
- Give thanks for the Church of the Province of South East Asia, remembering especially the Most Rev Ng Moon Hing, his staff, clergy and people.
