This morning at the 9.30 Eucharist we welcome Isla Lee Roach into the Body of Christ through the Sacrament of Baptism. Welcome also to her parents, Sean and Jenna, to the Godparents, Danielle and Stephen, and to families and friends who are here to share the joy of the gift of life and of our new life in Jesus Christ.

Sentence

Do to others as you would have them do to you. Love your enemies, do good, and lend, expecting nothing in return.

Luke 6.31,35

Prayer of the Day

Eternal God,
You have taught us through Christ
That love is the fulfilment of the law:
help us to love you with all our heart, with all our soul,
with all our mind, and with all our strength,
and our neighbour as ourself;
through Jesus Christ our Lord,
who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit,
one God, now and for ever. Amen.

A reading from Deuteronomy
chapter 30, verses 9 – 14

and the Lord your God will make you abundantly prosperous in all your undertakings, in the fruit of your body, in the fruit of your livestock, and in the fruit of your soil. For the Lord will again take delight in prospering you, just as he delighted in prospering your ancestors, when you obey the Lord your God by observing his commandments and decrees that are written in this book of the law, because you turn to the Lord your God with all your heart and with all your soul.

Surely, this commandment that I am commanding you today is not too hard for you, nor is it too far away. It is not in heaven, that you should say, 'Who will go up to heaven for us, and get it for us so that we may hear it and observe it?' Neither is it beyond the sea, that you should say, 'Who will cross to the other side of the sea for us, and get it for us so that we may hear it and observe it?' No, the word is very near to you; it is in your mouth and in your heart for you to observe.

Hear the word of the Lord
Thanks be to God

Psalm 25, verses 1 – 10

In you, O Lord my God, have I put my hope:
in you have I trusted, let me not be ashamed,
nor let my enemies triumph over me.

Let none who wait for you be put to shame:
but let those that break faith
be confounded and gain nothing.

Show me your ways, O Lord:
and teach me your paths.

Lead me in the ways of your truth, and teach me:
for you are the God of my salvation.

In you have I hoped all the day long:
because of your goodness, O Lord.

Call to mind your compassion and your loving-kindness:
for they are from of old.

Remember not the sins of my youth,
nor my transgressions:
but according to your mercy think on me.

Good and upright is the Lord:
therefore will he direct sinners in the way.

The meek he will guide in the path of justice:
and teach the humble his ways.

All the paths of the Lord are faithful and true:
for those who keep his covenant and his commandments.

A reading from the letter of Paul to the Colossians
Chapter 1, verses 1 – 14

Paul, an apostle of Christ Jesus by the will of God, and Timothy our brother,

To the saints and faithful brothers and sisters in Christ in Colossae:

Grace to you and peace from God our Father.

In our prayers for you we always thank God, the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, for we have heard of your faith in Christ Jesus and of the love that you have for all the saints, because of the hope laid up for you in heaven. You have heard of this hope before in the word of the truth, the gospel that has come to you. Just as it is bearing fruit and growing in the whole world, so it has been bearing fruit among yourselves from the day you heard it and truly comprehended the grace of God. This you learned from Epaphras, our beloved fellow-servant. He is a faithful minister of Christ on your behalf, and he has made known to us your love in the Spirit.

For this reason, since the day we heard it, we have not ceased praying for you and asking that you may be filled with the knowledge of God's will in all spiritual wisdom and understanding, so that you may lead lives worthy of the Lord, fully pleasing to him, as you bear fruit in every good work and as you grow in the knowledge of God. May you be made strong with all the strength that comes from his glorious power, and may you be prepared to endure everything with patience, while joyfully giving thanks to the Father, who has enabled you to share in the inheritance of the saints in the light. He has rescued us from the power of darkness and transferred us into the kingdom of his beloved Son, in whom we have redemption, the forgiveness of sins.

Hear the word of the Lord

Thanks be to God

Alleluia, alleluia!

Your words, Lord, are spirit and life;
you have the words of everlasting life

Alleluia!

The Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to Luke,
Chapter 10, verses 25 – 37

Glory to you Lord Jesus Christ

Just then a lawyer stood up to test Jesus. 'Teacher,' he said, 'what must I do to inherit eternal life?' He said to him, 'What is written in the law? What do you read there?' He answered, 'You shall love the Lord your God with all your heart, and with all your soul, and with all your strength, and with all your mind; and your neighbour as yourself.' And he said to him, 'You have given the right answer; do this, and you will live.'

But wanting to justify himself, he asked Jesus, 'And who is my neighbour?' Jesus replied, 'A man was going down from Jerusalem to Jericho, and fell into the hands of robbers, who stripped him, beat him, and went away, leaving him half dead. Now by chance a priest was going down that road; and when he saw him, he passed by on the other side. So likewise a Levite, when he came to the place and saw him, passed by on the other side. But a Samaritan while travelling came near him; and when he saw him, he was moved with pity. He went to him and bandaged his wounds, having poured oil and wine on them. Then he put him on his own animal, brought him to an inn, and took care of him. The next day he took out two denarii, gave them to the innkeeper, and said, "Take care of him; and when I come back, I will repay you whatever more you spend." Which of these three, do you think, was a neighbour to the man who fell into the hands of the robbers?' He said, 'The one who showed him mercy.' Jesus said to him, 'Go and do likewise.'

'Whispers of Love' Meditation –

Meditation Reflection

The joy of being like others.

At first sight, joy seems to be connected with being different. When you receive a compliment or win an award, you experience the joy of not being the same as others. You are faster, smarter, more beautiful, and it is that difference that brings you joy. But such joy is very temporary. True joy is hidden where we are the same as other people: fragile and mortal. It is the joy of belonging to the human race. It is the joy of being with others as a friend, a companion, a fellow traveller. This is the joy of Jesus, who is Emmanuel: God-with-us.

Prayerfully Reverend Ann

Sea Sunday - Thank you

Many thanks to all who have contributed to Sea Sunday. It is wonderful to see the immense effort by all who have taken the time to participate by knitting the colourful and creative beanie/beanies for MtS to distribute to the seafarers who visit the Port of Newcastle. Also, thank you to all who were unable to knit, but have donated one of the many items such as woolen socks, beanies, toiletries, torches, magazines, playing cards, and for your monetary donations. Your actions of 'welcoming the stranger' through your generous gifts are very much appreciated by the Mission, and the simple gesture of a beanie which has been knitted with love for the seafarers, by someone who doesn't know them, makes them feel very cared for, like family, a reflection of our Christian values and love towards our brothers and sisters. Please continue to pray for the work of the MtS, and all who they meet and care for each day.

Coralie Taylor - Mission Secretary

Mission Report 14th July 2019 Mission to Seafarers: Sea Sunday

Prayer for Seafarers

Heavenly Father, we commend to you all seafarers.
Guard and protect them in danger and temptation;
sustain them in loneliness;

and support them in sickness and anxiety.

Bless all who minister to them.

Watch over those who are near and dear to them,
and grant them the blessing of your presence.

These things we ask through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen

On Sea Sunday, thousands of people gather throughout the world join in prayer, from London to Lagos, Durban to Dunkerque, Melbourne to Manila, and of course in our Diocese, the Port of Newcastle, to celebrate the enduring and vital work of the Mission to Seafarers, to think of the Seafarers welfare. It has been happening for over 160 years.

Sea Sunday is an opportunity to bring to mind the role of seafarers in keeping us supplied with many basic necessities of life and other consumer goods from around the world. Over 90% of the goods we purchase are transported by sea; that trade is reliant on the efforts of seafarers who often undertake their work in difficult circumstances. The Mission to Seafarers provides help and support to the 1.5 million men and women who face danger every day to keep our global economy afloat.

The conditions they experience are often harsh and dangerous, In an emergency, the MtS is often the only help on offer. No matter what problem a seafarer is facing, be it injury, non-payment of wages, abandonment far from home, personal difficulties, or the prevalence of piracy, the Seafarers know they can turn to the Mission for help, advice and support.

Newcastle is the largest and busiest coal port in the world. The Mission to Seafarers Centre in Newcastle is a significant outreach of the diocese and is one of over 260 centres based in ports all over the world.

The Chaplains and volunteers at the Flying Angel/ Stella Maris Seafarer Centre offer care for seafarers of all ranks, nationalities and beliefs, by offering practical, emotional and spiritual support through the ship visits, drop in centre, and a range of welfare, emergency and financial support services, advocacy and family liaison, or simply a space to talk / pray in a time of crisis.

The Centre aims to be a 'home away from home' for seafarers, whose lives are isolated and lonely, and who may have been at sea for up to two years.

The most important thing for the Seafarers to be able to do, is make contact with their family. The Mission Centre is a place where they can enjoy time away from their ship, and use the free internet, and phone facilities to get in touch with their loved ones. There is also a Chapel for personal prayer, and services.

The average size crew is twenty to twenty-two. As only a percentage of crews can come ashore, if any at all, there is a small ship-visiting team whose role is to go on-board as many vessels as possible. At times services and prayer also take place onboard the ships, and this is important for those unable to go on shore leave. The visiting team also bear gifts of magazines and novels, beanies.....etc. Because of the very short turn-around time captains and chief cooks rarely have time to go ashore. They love talking to anyone, especially about their families

The Flying Angel Seafarers' Centre in Newcastle also provide transport, provide free clothing, food, entertainment, pastoral care, books/bibles/etc, ship visiting, and arrange for medical and dental appointments, as well as visit the seafarers who are injured or have fallen ill and are in hospital.

There are various ways you can help to support seafarers' welfare: Start talking about seafarers' welfare and help to raise awareness – stop and consider how the things we rely on daily arrived to our table. Develop concern for the humanitarian aspects of the work, or perhaps begin to consider the ways in which welfare services reduce the likelihood of seafarer fatigue and contributes to safer shipping.

The mission relies on the generosity of parishioners from the churches across the diocese. Please remember the contribution that seafarers make to our daily lives, and the Mission to Seafarers which supports them.

Coralie Taylor - Mission Secretary

The prayer for the week

O Lord, we beseech you mercifully to receive the prayers of your people who call upon you,
and grant that they may both perceive and know what things they ought to do, and also may have grace and power
faithfully to fulfil them;
through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen

Pew Reflections

The Fifth Sunday After Pentecost [OS 14] – Sunday 14 July 2019

- Amos 7.7-17; Psalm 82
Colossians 1.1-14; Luke 10.25-37

Paul implies that the gospel is for all people, mentioning that it is being proclaimed everywhere and is changing people's lives. It proves its power in the love that people show to one another and to others – being the neighbour that Jesus challenges the lawyer (and us) to be in today's Gospel. This is extra challenging when we realise that part of the point of Jesus' story is that even our enemies are our neighbours. A Samaritan helping a Jew was about as likely as an Islamist Muslim helping a Christian! Thus, the parable is the supreme example of both love for neighbour and love for enemies.

- Pray 'that you may lead lives worthy of the Lord, fully pleasing to him'.
- Give thanks for the work and witness of the Anglican Church of Korea, the Daehan Seong Gong Hoe.
