Sentence

Will not God grant justice to those who cry to him day and night? Will he delay long in helping them?

Luke 18. 7-8

Prayer of the Day

Lord, tireless guardian of your people,
teach us to rely, day and night, on your care.
Drive us to seek your justice and your help,
and support our prayer lest we grow weary,
for in you alone is our strength.

We make our prayer through your Son, our Lord Jesus Christ,
who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit,
one God for ever and ever. Amen.

A reading from Genesis Chapter 32, verses 22 – 31

The same night he got up and took his two wives, his two maids, and his eleven children, and crossed the ford of the Jabbok. He took them and sent them across the stream, and likewise everything that he had. Jacob was left alone; and a man wrestled with him until daybreak. When the man saw that he did not prevail against Jacob, he struck him on the hip socket; and Jacob's hip was put out of joint as he wrestled with him. Then he said, 'Let me go, for the day is breaking.' But Jacob said, 'I will not let you go, unless you bless me.' So he said to him, 'What is your name?' And he said, 'Jacob.' Then the man said, 'You shall no longer be called Jacob, but Israel, for you have striven with God and with humans, and have prevailed.' Then Jacob asked him, 'Please tell me your name.' But he said, 'Why is it that you ask my name?'

And there he blessed him. So Jacob called the place Peniel, saying, 'For I have seen God face to face, and yet my life is preserved.' The sun rose upon him as he passed Penuel, limping because of his hip.

Psalm 121

I lift up my eyes to the hills:
but where shall I find help?

My help comes from the Lord:
who has made heaven and earth.

He will not suffer your foot to stumble:
and he who watches over you will not sleep.

Be sure he who has charge of Israel:
will neither slumber nor sleep.

The Lord himself is your keeper:
the Lord is your defence upon your right hand;

The sun shall not strike you by day:
nor shall the moon by night.

The Lord will defend you from all evil:
it is he who will guard your life.

The Lord will defend your going out and your coming in:
from this time forward for evermore.

A reading from the second Letter of Paul to Timothy

Chapter 3, verse 10 to Chapter 4, verse 5

Now you have observed my teaching, my conduct, my aim in life, my faith, my patience, my love, my steadfastness, my persecutions, and my suffering the things that happened to me in Antioch, Iconium, and Lystra. What persecutions I endured! Yet the Lord rescued me from all of them. Indeed, all who want to live a godly life in Christ Jesus will be persecuted. But wicked people and impostors will go from bad to worse, deceiving others and being deceived. But as for you, continue in what you have learned and firmly believed, knowing from whom you learned it, and how from childhood you have known the sacred writings that are able to instruct you for salvation through faith in Christ Jesus. All scripture is inspired by God and is useful for teaching, for reproof, for correction, and for training in righteousness, so that everyone who belongs to God may be proficient, equipped for every good work.

In the presence of God and of Christ Jesus, who is to judge the living and the dead, and in view of his appearing and his kingdom, I solemnly urge you: proclaim the message; be persistent whether the time is favourable or unfavourable; convince, rebuke, and encourage, with the utmost patience in teaching. For the time is coming when people will not put up with sound doctrine, but having itching ears, they will accumulate for themselves teachers to suit their own desires, and will turn away from listening to the truth and wander away to myths. As for you, always be sober, endure suffering, do the work of an evangelist, carry out your ministry fully.

Hear the Word of the Lord

Thanks be to God

Alleluia, alleluia!

The word of God is living and active;
it probes the thoughts and motives of our heart.

Alleluia!

The Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to Luke,
chapter 18, verses 1-14

Glory to you Lord Jesus Christ

Then Jesus told them a parable about their need to pray always and not to lose heart. He said, 'In a certain city there was a judge who neither feared God nor had respect for people. In that city there was a widow who kept coming to him and saying, "Grant me justice against my opponent." For a while he refused; but later he said to himself, "Though I have no fear of God and no respect for anyone, yet because this widow keeps bothering me, I will grant her justice, so that she may not wear me out by continually coming." ' And the Lord said, 'Listen to what the unjust judge says. And will not God grant justice to his chosen ones who cry to him day and night? Will he delay long in helping them? I tell you, he will quickly grant justice to them. And yet, when the Son of Man comes, will he find faith on earth?'

He also told this parable to some who trusted in themselves that they were righteous and regarded others with contempt: 'Two men went up to the temple to pray, one a Pharisee and the other a tax-collector. The Pharisee, standing by himself, was praying thus, "God, I thank you that I am not like other people: thieves, rogues, adulterers, or even like this tax-collector. I fast twice a week; I give a tenth of all my income." But the tax-collector, standing far off, would not even look up to heaven, but was beating his breast and saying, "God, be merciful to me, a sinner!" I tell you, this man went down to his home justified rather than the other; for all who exalt themselves will be humbled, but all who humble themselves will be exalted.'

'Whispers of Love' Meditation –

Reflection

Not to accept and love and do God's will, is to refuse the fullness of my existence.

But as I stay with this, and make it into a prayer for myself, I realise that it asks of me three things

To accept

To love

To do

This transformation, which is wrought in me by a merciful God, will never be possible until I desire it and work to find it with God and in God.

Thomas Merton

Prayerfully Reverend Ann

Market Day Notices

Co-Ordinator Role

We are looking for someone who is interested in assisting in the role as Market Day Co-Ordinator. The Co-Ordinator role is one of communicating, organising and planning for the Market Days and is the first point of contact for the volunteers. The role involves arranging volunteers for each of the stalls, ensuring the volunteers are aware of the WHS (work health and safety) related to Market Days, ensure volunteers sign in on Market Days and generally supervising the activities each Market Day on site. The Co-Ordinator is also the point of contact with Parish Council. It is important to note the Co-Ordinator is not the person expected to do heavy lifting etc. If you are interested in helping, please speak with Terry Rowe.

Market Day - 16th November 2019

We will be needing some additional help with the Friday set up and Saturday clear up for the Market Day to be held in November. If you are able to help, please speak with Terry Rowe.

Upcoming Events

Choral Evensong - Sunday 27 October 2019 at 3:00pm.

As in previous years, The Cathedral Singers (an Independent Choir) will come and join us to sing the Office of Evensong according to the Book of Common Prayer. The organist & choirmaster is Jim Abrams FRCO and they will be joined by Ian Cox playing the trumpet. This event is a liturgical one and is not a concert.

Chris Sillince

Dinner at Terrigal Bowling Club - November

Please join us for dinner at Terrigal Bowling Club at 'Bec's Kitchen' on Sunday 3rd November from 6pm. If you are interested, please add your name to the sign-up sheet on the notice board. We would love to see you there.

Market Day – Thank You!

Thank you to all those who helped set up and clean up market day yesterday. Your help is always very much appreciated.

Prayer of the week

Almighty God,
your Son has opened for us
a new and living way into your presence:
give us pure hearts and steadfast wills
to worship you in spirit and in truth;
through the same Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen

Pew Reflections

The Nineteenth Sunday After Pentecost [Pentecost 19]
– Sunday 20 October 2019

- Jeremiah 31.27-34; Psalm 119.97-104;
2 Timothy 3.10 – 4.5; Luke 18.1-14

Jesus tells us of the tax-collector’s heart-felt prayer: God, be merciful to me, a sinner. This is the basis of what is known as the Jesus Prayer, and is central to the prayer lives of Orthodox Christians throughout the world. May it be our prayer each day this week.

- Lord Jesus Christ, Son of God: be merciful to me, a sinner – The Jesus Prayer.
- Give thanks for the work and witness of the National Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander Anglican Council.
