Sentence

'I am the resurrection and the life,' says the Lord. 'Those who believe in me, even though they die, will live, and everyone who lives and believes in me will never die.'

John 11. 25-26

Prayer of the Day

God of all the living,
in the resurrection of Christ Jesus
you have given us the promise of life which death itself cannot destroy:
in the strength of this unshakeable promise,
give us a new heart to live, even now, as your new creation.
We ask this through your Son, our Lord Jesus Christ,
who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit,
one God, for ever and ever. Amen.

A reading from Job Chapter 19 verse 23-27a

'O that my words were written down!
 O that they were inscribed in a book!
O that with an iron pen and with lead
 they were engraved on a rock for ever!
For I know that my Redeemer lives,
 and that at the last he will stand upon the earth;
and after my skin has been thus destroyed,
 then in my flesh I shall see God,
whom I shall see on my side,
 and my eyes shall behold, and not another.

Hear the word of the Lord

Thanks be to God

Psalm 17. 1 – 9

Hear my just cause, O Lord, give heed to my cry:
listen to my prayer, that comes from no lying lips.

Let judgement for me come forth from your presence:
and let your eyes discern the right.

Though you search my heart,
and visit me in the night-time:
though you try me by fire,
you will find no wickedness in me.

My mouth does not transgress, like the mouth of others:
for I have kept the word of your lips.

My steps have held firm in the way of your commands:
and my feet have not stumbled from your paths.

I call upon you, O God, for you will surely answer:
incline your ear to me, and hear my words.

Show me the wonders of your steadfast love,
O saviour of those who come to you for refuge:
who by your right hand deliver them
from those that rise up against them.

Keep me as the apple of your eye:
hide me under the shadow of your wings,

From the onslaught of the wicked:
from my enemies that encircle me to take my life.

A reading from the second letter of Paul to the Thessalonians Chapter 2 verse 1-5, 13-17

As to the coming of our Lord Jesus Christ and our being gathered together to him, we beg you, brothers and sisters, not to be quickly shaken in mind or alarmed, either by spirit or by word or by letter, as though from us, to the effect that the day of the Lord is already here. Let no one deceive you in any way; for that day will not come unless the rebellion comes first and the lawless one is revealed, the one destined for destruction. He opposes and exalts himself above every so-called god or object of worship, so that he takes his seat in the temple of God, declaring himself to be God. Do you not remember that I told you these things when I was still with you?

But we must always give thanks to God for you, brothers and sisters beloved by the Lord, because God chose you as the first fruits for salvation through sanctification by the Spirit and through belief in the truth. For this purpose he called you through our proclamation of the good news, so that you may obtain the glory of our Lord Jesus Christ. So then, brothers and sisters, stand firm and hold fast to the traditions that you were taught by us, either by word of mouth or by our letter.

Now may our Lord Jesus Christ himself and God our Father, who loved us and through grace gave us eternal comfort and good hope, comfort your hearts and strengthen them in every good work and word.

Hear the word of the Lord

Thanks be to God

Alleluia, alleluia!

Jesus Christ is the firstborn from the dead;
glory and kingship be his for ever and ever.

Alleluia!

The Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to Luke, chapter 20 verse 27-40

Glory to you Lord Jesus Christ

Some Sadducees, those who say there is no resurrection, came to him and asked him a question, 'Teacher, Moses wrote for us that if a man's brother dies, leaving a wife but no children, the man shall marry the widow and raise up children for his brother. Now there were seven brothers; the first married, and died childless; then the second and the third married her, and so in the same way all seven died childless. Finally the woman also died. In the resurrection, therefore, whose wife will the woman be? For the seven had married her.'

Jesus said to them, 'Those who belong to this age marry and are given in marriage; but those who are considered worthy of a place in that age and in the resurrection from the dead neither marry nor are given in marriage. Indeed they cannot die any more, because they are like angels and are children of God, being children of the resurrection. And the fact that the dead are raised Moses himself showed, in the story about the bush, where he speaks of the Lord as the God of Abraham, the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob. Now he is God not of the dead, but of the living; for to him all of them are alive.' Then some of the scribes answered, 'Teacher, you have spoken well.' For they no longer dared to ask him another question.

'Whispers of Love' Meditation –

Reflection

Prayer

Meditation is the missing contemplative dimension of much Christian life today.

It does not exclude other types of prayer and indeed deepens one's reverence for the sacraments and one's reading of holy scriptures.

Pew Reflections

The Twenty-Second Sunday After Pentecost

[Pentecost 22]

– Sunday 10 November 2019

- Haggai 1.15b – 2.9; Psalm 145.1-5, 17-21 or Psalm 98;
2 Thessalonians 2.1-5, 13-17; Luke 20.27-40

When questioned about life after death, Jesus talks to the Sadducees about the God of the living. May we strive to be worthy of that eternal life that God offers us through Jesus.

- When you had overcome the sharpness of death, you opened the kingdom of heaven to all believers ... We therefore pray, help your servants whom you have redeemed with your precious blood. Make them to be numbered with your saints in glory everlasting. – from the Te Deum.
- Give thanks for the work and witness of the Episcopal Church of Jerusalem and the Middle East.
