HOLY BAPTISM

We welcome Oliver Peter Evans who will be received into the Body of Christ through the Sacrament of Baptism this morning at 11.00am. We welcome also Oliver's parents, Joshua and Rebecca, the Godparents and members of his family and friends. God bless you as you make these important promises on behalf of Oliver.

WHY WE DO WHAT WE DO

THE HOLY OILS

On Monday of Holy Week this year, a special service was held as it is every year, when fresh oils are blessed by the Bishop in the Cathedral during a special Eucharist or 'Chrism Mass'. These are then taken back to the parishes by the clergy. Christ offered his life as our great high priest on the cross; he prayed his 'high-priestly' prayer at his last supper; so Holy Week is an appropriate time to receive the oils. It also enables us to share in the sacramental life of the whole church as expressed through the diocese and our Bishop. As part of the service, clergy are given the opportunity to renew their ordination vows.

During certain liturgical celebrations of the Church, special oils are used pastorally and sacramentally to assist us in our formation and conversion. Oil has always been used for its healing and soothing qualities. In the ancient biblical world, priests, prophets and kings were anointed with oil to set them apart for their special role.

Jesus is called Messiah or 'Christ', meaning 'Anointed One'. Three oils are used in the sacraments of the church: the oil of the catechumens, the oil of the chrism, and the oil of the sick.

The oil of the catechumens has its origin in the early church when new Christians underwent a period of instruction in their new faith. They were called catechumens, meaning "white-robed". At the beginning of their catechumenate, or period of instruction, they were anointed with oil, and the church prayed that they would be protected from sin and evil as they prepared for baptism.

The oil of the chrism, often called simply chrism, is the oil used after baptism to sign the newly-baptised on the forehead with the cross. It is also used on the forehead in confirmation, and on the hands at the ordination of a priest. It is a fragrant oil, having been mixed with spices during consecration. It is a sign of the Holy Spirit who anoints all who belong to Christ, the Anointed One.

The oil of the sick is used in the sacrament of Anointing the Sick, formerly called extreme unction. It is sign of the healing power of Christ.

Sentence

Turn to God so that your sins may be wiped out, so that times of refreshing may come from the presence of the Lord.

Acts 3.19-20

Prayer of the Day

Lord of life,
by submitting to death, you conquered the grave;
by being lifted upon the cross, you draw all peoples to you;
by being raised from the dead,
you restore to humanity all that was lost through sin:
be with us in your risen power,
that in word and deed we may proclaim the marvellous mystery of death and resurrection.
For all praise is yours, now and throughout eternity. Amen.

A reading from Acts Chapter 3 verses 12 to 20

When Peter saw it, he addressed the people, 'You Israelites, why do you wonder at this, or why do you stare at us, as though by our own power or piety we had made him walk? The God of Abraham, the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob, the God of our ancestors has glorified his servant Jesus, whom you handed over and rejected in the presence of Pilate, though he had decided to release him. But you rejected the Holy and Righteous One and asked to have a murderer given to you, and you killed the Author of life, whom God raised from the dead. To this we are witnesses. And by faith in his name, his name itself has made this man strong, whom you see and know; and the faith that is through Jesus has given him this perfect health in the presence of all of you.

'And now, friends, I know that you acted in ignorance, as did also your rulers. In this way God fulfilled what he had foretold through all the prophets, that his Messiah would suffer. Repent therefore, and turn to God so that your sins may be wiped out, so that times of refreshing may come from the presence of the Lord, and that he may send the Messiah appointed for you, that is, Jesus.

Hear the word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

Psalm 4

1 Answer me when I call, O God of my righteousness:
when I was hard-pressed you set me free; be gracious to me
now and hear my prayer.

2 Children of earth, how long will you turn my glory to my shame:

how long will you love what is worthless and seek after lies?

3 Know that the Lord has shown me his wonderful kindness:
when I call to the Lord he will hear me.

4 Tremble, and do no sin:

commune with your own heart upon your bed and be still.

5 Offer the sacrifices that are right:
and put your trust in the Lord.

6 There are many who say 'Who will show us any good?:
the light of your countenance, O Lord, has gone from us.'

7 Yet you have given my heart more gladness:
that they have when their corn, wine and oil increase.

8 In peace I will lie down and sleep:
for you alone, Lord, make me dwell in safety.

A reading from the First letter of John

Chapter 2 verses 15 to 17 and chapter 3 verses 1 to 6

Do not love the world or the things in the world. The love of the Father is not in those who love the world; for all that is in the world—the desire of the flesh, the desire of the eyes, the pride in riches—comes not from the Father but from the world. And the world and its desire are passing away, but those who do the will of God live for ever.

See what love the Father has given us, that we should be called children of God; and that is what we are. The reason the world does not know us is that it did not know him. Beloved, we are God's children now; what we will be has not yet been revealed. What we do know is this: when he is revealed, we will be like him, for we will see him as he is. And all who have this hope in him purify themselves, just as he is pure.

Everyone who commits sin is guilty of lawlessness; sin is lawlessness. You know that he was revealed to take away sins, and in him there is no sin. No one who abides in him sins; no one who sins has either seen him or known him.

Hear the word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

Alleluia, alleluia!

Lord Jesus, make your word plain to us:
make our hearts burn with love when you speak.

Alleluia!

The Gospel of Our Lord Jesus Christ according to Luke
Chapter 24 verses 36b to 48

Glory to you Lord Jesus Christ.

While they were talking about this, Jesus himself stood among them and said to them, 'Peace be with you.' They were startled and terrified, and thought that they were seeing a ghost. He said to them, 'Why are you frightened, and why do doubts arise in your hearts? Look at my hands and my feet; see that it is I myself. Touch me and see; for a ghost does not have flesh and bones as you see that I have.' And when he had said this, he showed them his hands and his feet. While in their joy they were disbelieving and still wondering, he said to them, 'Have you anything here to eat?' They gave him a piece of broiled fish, and he took it and ate in their presence.

Then he said to them, 'These are my words that I spoke to you while I was still with you—that everything written about me in the law of Moses, the prophets, and the psalms must be fulfilled.' Then he opened their minds to understand the scriptures, and he said to them, 'Thus it is written, that the Messiah is to suffer and to rise from the dead on the third day, and that repentance and forgiveness of sins is to be proclaimed in his name to all nations, beginning from Jerusalem. You are witnesses of these things.

For the Gospel of the Lord.
Praise to you Lord Jesus Christ.

Prayer for those suffering severe illness (adapted from A Prayer Book for Australia, p. 692)

Healing Spirit,

we pray for those suffering from serious diseases and for those who are terminally ill, and those living with the COVID-19 virus. We pray for skill and patience for the doctors and nurses who care for them. We pray that their relatives and friends may be strengthened and comforted. May their faith not falter as they support each other through testing times. We pray for those engaged in research that by your inspiration and their skill the scourges of this generation may be overcome. Help us to live in your way and to seek health in body, mind and spirit. Amen.

Please pray for

Graeme Patterson, Ken Hope, Norm Williams, Isobel Hargraves, Jean Jackson, Marian French, Aaron Lane, Pat Lindsay, Toby Lindsay, Gloria Townsend, Margaret Willard, Pat Stokes, Kathy Oakes, Tania Howlett, Ian Kidson, Maureen Hazlewood, Patricia Bailey, Shirley Taylor, Andrew Smith, Des Matthews, Peter and Robyn Vukasovic, Kate Ross (Holt) and Adrian Baldwin.

Garden Working Bee

On Saturday 24th April starting at 8:30 am.

We are planning a working bee to build a garden edge around the citrus bed at the back. We will be using treated logs and have it all pegged out.

We would like anyone who is able to come and help.

If you can't manage this, maybe some weeding or pruning would be great!

We would be most grateful for some help.

Thank you.

Jackie Davidson

Prayer of the week

Gracious Father,
who in your great mercy made glad the disciples
with the sight of the risen Lord:
give us such awareness of his presence with us
that we may be strengthened and sustained by his risen life,
and serve you continually in righteousness and truth;
through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

ANGLICAN BOARD OF MISSION
Working for Love, Hope & Justice

The Third Sunday of Easter – Sunday 18 April 2021

- Acts 3.12-20; Psalm 4;
1 John 2.15-17; 3.1-6; Luke 24.36b-48

Today the Psalmist wants us to know that he has been shown wonderful kindness by the Lord, and that when he calls to the Lord he is heard. How wonderful that the creator of the entire universe should not only bother with us humans as insignificant as we are, but show us kindness, and listen to us.

- Give thanks for the acts of kindness and of listening that others offer to us and give praise for God's limitless grace to us every day.
- Give thanks for the work and witness of the Anglican Church of Korea, the Daehan Seong Gong Hoe.
