HOLY BAPTISM

We welcome Aurelia Barbara Diebert who will be received into the Body of Christ through the Sacrament of Baptism this morning at 11.00am. We welcome also parents Sonya and Kris, the Godparents, members of her family and friends. God bless you as you make these important promises on Aurelia's behalf.

Sentence

The steadfast love of the Lord never ceases, his mercies never come to an end; they are new every morning; great is your faithfulness.

Lamentations 3.22-23

Prayer of the Day

O Christ for whom we search,
our help when help has failed:
give us courage to expose our need
and ask to be made whole,
that, being touched by you,
we may be raised to new life
in the power of your name. Amen.

A reading from Lamentations Chapter 3 verses 22-33

The steadfast love of the LORD never ceases,
his mercies never come to an end;
they are new every morning;
great is your faithfulness.

'The LORD is my portion,' says my soul,
'therefore I will hope in him.'

The LORD is good to those who wait for him,
to the soul that seeks him.

It is good that one should wait quietly
for the salvation of the LORD.

It is good for one to bear
the yoke in youth,
to sit alone in silence
when the Lord has imposed it,
to put one's mouth to the dust
(there may yet be hope),
to give one's cheek to the smiter,
and be filled with insults.

For the Lord will not reject for ever.

Although he causes grief, he will have compassion
according to the abundance of his steadfast love;
for he does not willingly afflict
or grieve anyone.

Hear the word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

Psalm 30

1 I will exalt you, O Lord,
for you have drawn me up from the depths:
and have not suffered my foes to triumph over me.

2 O Lord my God, I cried to you:
and you have made me whole.

3 You brought me back, O Lord, from the land of silence:
you saved my life
from among those that go down to the Pit.

4 Sing praises to the Lord, all you his faithful ones:
and give thanks to his holy name.

5 For if in his anger is havoc,
in his good favour is life:
heaviness may endure for a night,
but joy comes in the morning.

6 In my prosperity I said 'I shall never be moved:
your goodness, O Lord, has set me on so firm a hill.'

7 Then you hid your face from me:
and I was greatly dismayed.

8 I cried to you, O God:
and made my petition humbly to my Lord.

9 'What profit is there in my blood,
if I go down to the Pit:
can the dust give you thanks,
or declare your faithfulness?

10 'Hear, O Lord, and be merciful:
O Lord, be my helper.'

11 You have turned my lamentation into dancing:
you have put off my sackcloth and girded me with joy,

12 That my heart may sing your praise and never be silent:
O Lord my God, I will give you thanks for ever.

A reading from 2 Corinthians Chapter 8 verses 7-15

Now as you excel in everything—in faith, in speech, in knowledge, in utmost eagerness, and in our love for you—so we want you to excel also in this generous undertaking.

I do not say this as a command, but I am testing the genuineness of your love against the earnestness of others. For you know the generous act of our Lord Jesus Christ, that though he was rich, yet for your sakes he became poor, so that by his poverty you might become rich. And in this matter I am giving my advice: it is appropriate for you who began last year not only to do something but even to desire to do something— now finish doing it, so that your eagerness may be matched by completing it according to your means. For if the eagerness is there, the gift is acceptable according to what one has—not according to what one does not have. I do not mean that there should be relief for others and pressure on you, but it is a question of a fair balance between your present abundance and their need, so that their abundance may be for your need, in order that there may be a fair balance. As it is written,

'The one who had much did not have too much,
and the one who had little did not have too little.'

Hear the word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

Alleluia, alleluia!

Our Saviour Jesus Christ has done away with death
and brought us life through his gospel.

Alleluia!

The Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to Mark
Chapter 5 verses 21-43.

Glory to you Lord Jesus Christ.

When Jesus had crossed again in the boat to the other side, a great crowd gathered round him; and he was by the lake. Then one of the leaders of the synagogue named Jairus came and, when he saw him, fell at his feet and begged him repeatedly, 'My little daughter is at the point of death. Come and lay your hands on her, so that she may be made well, and live.' So he went with him.

And a large crowd followed him and pressed in on him. Now there was a woman who had been suffering from haemorrhages for twelve years. She had endured much under many physicians, and had spent all that she had; and she was no better, but rather grew worse. She had heard about Jesus, and came up behind him in the crowd and touched his cloak, for she said, 'If I but touch his clothes, I will be made well.' Immediately her haemorrhage stopped; and she felt in her body that she was healed of her disease. Immediately aware that power had gone forth from him, Jesus turned about in the crowd and said, 'Who touched my clothes?' And his disciples said to him, 'You see the crowd pressing in on you; how can you say, "Who touched me?"' He looked all round to see who had done it. But the woman, knowing what had happened to her, came in fear and trembling, fell down before him, and told him the whole truth. He said to her, 'Daughter, your faith has made you well; go in peace, and be healed of your disease.'

While he was still speaking, some people came from the leader's house to say, 'Your daughter is dead. Why trouble the teacher any further?' But overhearing what they said, Jesus said to the leader of the synagogue, 'Do not fear, only believe.'

He allowed no one to follow him except Peter, James, and John, the brother of James. When they came to the house of the leader of the synagogue, he saw a commotion, people weeping and wailing loudly. When he had entered, he said to them, 'Why do you make a commotion and weep? The child is not dead but sleeping.' And they laughed at him. Then he put them all outside, and took the child's father and mother and those who were with him, and went in where the child was. He took her by the hand and said to her, 'Talitha cum', which means, 'Little girl, get up!' And immediately the girl got up and began to walk about (she was twelve years of age). At this they were overcome with amazement. He strictly ordered them that no one should know this, and told them to give her something to eat.

For the Gospel of the Lord.

'Whispers of Love' Meditation

Reflection:

When Jesus says "Sky and earth will pass away, but my words will never pass away" (Luke 21:33),

He shows us a direct way to eternal life. The words of Jesus have a power to transform our hearts and minds and lead us into the Kingdom of God. The words I have spoken to you", Jesus says "are spirit and they are life". (John 6:63).

Through meditation we can let the words of Jesus descend from our minds into our hearts and create there a dwelling place for the Spirit. What ever we do and wherever we go, let us stay close to the words of Jesus. They are words of eternal life.

Prayerfully, Reverend Ann.

Prayer of the week

Almighty and everlasting God,
you are always more ready to hear than we to pray,
and give more than either we desire or deserve:
pour down upon us the abundance of your mercy,
forgiving us those things of which our conscience is afraid,
and giving us those good things
    which we are not worthy to ask
save through the merits and mediation of Jesus Christ,
your Son our Lord. Amen.

Fifth Sunday after Pentecost [OS 13]

– Sunday 27 June 2021

- 2 Samuel 1.1, 17-27; Psalm 130;
2 Corinthians 8.(1-6) 7-15; Mark 5.21-43

The writer of Psalm 130 knows the depths of despair and from that state he cries out to the Lord, because with the Lord there is mercy and ample redemption. And so it is for us: if we are feel hopeless or miserable because of some situation that's tumbling over our heads, crashing like waves all over us, then all we need to do is turn to the one who can rescue any of us from the multitude of their sins. Praise God for such abundant mercy and care.

- Pray for all those who find themselves overwhelmed by circumstances – whether of their own making or because of the folly of others. Pray that God will lift them out of their distress and strengthen their heart.
- Give thanks for the work and witness of the Church of the Province of Central Africa, especially in Zambia.
