TRINITY TEENS ARE RENEWING!!

Stacey Henwood is passionate about bridging the gap between messy church and the traditional church. To help with this we would like to find a 'youthful leader' who would be in touch with our young teens and enable them to grow.

We ask you to support her in prayer that we may find a person who can be their leader.

WEEKLY GIVING BY DIRECT DEPOSIT REALLY

HELPS TO SECURE OUR VIABILITY.

A Reading from the Book of Isaiah
Chapter 5. verses 1 - 7.

Let me sing for my beloved
my love-song concerning his vineyard:
My beloved had a vineyard on a very fertile hill.
He dug it and cleared it of stones,
and planted it with choice vines;
he built a watch-tower in the midst of it,
and hewed out a wine vat in it;
he expected it to yield grapes,
but it yielded wild grapes.

And now, inhabitants of Jerusalem and people of Judah,
judge between me and my vineyard.
What more was there to do for my vineyard
that I have not done in it?
When I expected it to yield grapes,
why did it yield wild grapes?

And now I will tell you what I will do to my vineyard.
I will remove its hedge, and it shall be devoured;
I will break down its wall, and it shall be trampled down.
I will make it a waste; it shall not be pruned or hoed,
and it shall be overgrown with briers and thorns;
I will also command the clouds
that they rain no rain upon it.

For the vineyard of the LORD of hosts is the house of Israel,
and the people of Judah are his pleasant planting;
he expected justice, but saw bloodshed;
righteousness, but heard a cry!

Hear the word of the Lord, thanks be to God.

FUNDRAISING FOR THE UNICORN FOUNDATION

Dear friends,

My family and I are fundraising for The Unicorn Foundation, which supports Neuroendocrine Cancer (the cancer which unfortunately my dear mum has). The bracelets (see photos on notice board), can be bought for $25 each and are tax deductible. There are two beaded bracelets which can be purchased; one is made from black onyx and the other from natural white howlite. Both of these feature a sterling silver unicorn on them. If you are interested in purchasing one, please let me know.

I have both bracelets at home, if you are interested in viewing them. My contact details are below to all who helped with the Market Day yesterday. Your help with cooking, setting out and clearing up was greatly appreciated

THANK YOU

Psalm 80.1-2, 8-19

Hear, O Shepherd of Israel,
you that led Joseph like a flock:
you that are enthroned upon the cherubim,
shine out in glory;

Before Ephraim, Benjamin and Manasseh:
stir up your power, and come to save us.

You brought a vine out of Egypt:
you drove out the nations, and planted it in.

You cleared the ground before it:
and it struck root and filled the land.

The hills were covered with its shadow:
and its boughs were like the boughs of the great cedars.

It stretched out its branches to the sea:
and its tender shoots to the Great River.

Why then have you broken down its walls:
so that every passer-by can pluck its fruit?

The wild boar out of the woods roots it up:
and the locusts from the wild places devour it.

Turn to us again, O Lord of hosts:
look down from heaven, and see.

Bestow your care upon this vine:
the stock which your own right hand has planted.

As for those that burn it with fire and cut it down:
let them perish at the rebuke of your countenance.

Let your power rest on the man at your right hand:
on that son of man
whom you made so strong for yourself.

And so we shall not turn back from you:
give us life, and we will call upon your name.

Restore us again, O Lord of hosts:
show us the light of your countenance,
and we shall be saved.

Glory to God, Father, Son and Holy Spirit
as in the beginning, so now and forever. Amen

A reading from the Letter of Paul to the Hebrews

Chapter 11, verses 29 – 12.2

By faith the people passed through the Red Sea as if it were dry land, but when the Egyptians attempted to do so they were drowned. By faith the walls of Jericho fell after they had been encircled for seven days. By faith Rahab the prostitute did not perish with those who were disobedient, because she had received the spies in peace.

And what more should I say? For time would fail me to tell of Gideon, Barak, Samson, Jephthah, of David and Samuel and the prophets— who through faith conquered kingdoms, administered justice, obtained promises, shut the mouths of lions, quenched raging fire, escaped the edge of the sword, won strength out of weakness, became mighty in war, put foreign armies to flight. Women received their dead by resurrection. Others were tortured, refusing to accept release, in order to obtain a better resurrection. Others suffered mocking and flogging, and even chains and imprisonment. They were stoned to death, they were and universities and often in decision-making processes. Their ministry is exercised in these situations and it is not always easy to maintain Christian values and behaviour. This is where it is the responsibility of the clergy to support and nurture the laity in the Christian faith and values and its application in the daily life of society if they are to exercise their ministry of reconciliation.

On the other hand, the ministry of the laity is not a pale imitation of the ministry of the clergy. The ministry of the laity has too much dignity and importance to be reduced to these terms. The clergy and the laity share the universal ministry that belongs to the whole people of God. The most effective ministries of reconciliation by both laity and clergy are those that are backed up by the nurture of word and sacrament.

I cannot leave this writing on ministry without drawing attention to the call of some members of the laity to consider God's call to them of the ministry of ordination to the diaconate and priesthood. This possibility must be presented to our people for their consideration and also the call to a ministry in the religious life of a friar, and monk or a sister living and exercising their ministry of reconciliation within the life of a religious community under vows of poverty, chastity and obedience.

Living this life of ministry within the life of the Church as laity, clergy or religious among the tensions that are present within the Church and the world is not easy. If we are realistic we need to be patient and to act where we are with the means that we have, doing the best we can even though all of this may be far from perfect. In this we have hope that God will accept our ministries as our spiritual sacrifices that are acceptable to God through our Lord Jesus Christ.

Fr. Roy writes:

Recently I wrote to you on the subject of ministry within the Church, The Body of Christ. We, then, are servants or slaves of the "Servant of the Lord", Jesus Christ. Jesus, himself, is the agent of God's reconciling work. St. Paul points out in 2 Corinthians, chapter 5, verse 18 that the Church has a ministry of reconciliation. This ministry of reconciliation is given by God to those who themselves have been reconciled to him through Christ. This fundamental ministry of the Church belongs to every Christian because according to St. Peter's teaching we are "a royal priesthood" or "a holy priesthood to offer spiritual sacrifices acceptable to God through Jesus Christ".

This universal ministry belongs to all Christians, laity and clergy alike. The clergy are part of the People of God. They were laity before being ordained and still have that ministry with the additional ministry of a deacon, priest or bishop. In to-day's society, the clergy generally work in "holy places" and do not have access to many parts of to-day's society. This leaves a vast potential for other members of the laity, the "People of God", to exercise the Church's ministry of reconciliation in all parts of society.

God throughout the ages has been concerned with justice and peace and through Jesus aspects of help for the needy and healing for the sick. These are areas in which the laity can exercise their influence in associations that are given to justice and peace and to help for the needy and healing for the sick. They are not regarded by society as "churchy" or "religious" associations, but never the less, are within the ministry of the laity. These things can be done in association with other Christians who share in this concept of the Church's ministry. The laity of the Church is involved in the everyday workings of government, industry, technology, teaching in schools, colleges sawn in two, they were killed by the sword; they went about in skins of sheep and goats, destitute, persecuted, tormented— of whom the world was not worthy. They wandered in deserts and mountains, and in caves and holes in the ground.

Yet all these, though they were commended for their faith, did not receive what was promised, since God had provided something better so that they would not, without us, be made perfect.

Therefore, since we are surrounded by so great a cloud of witnesses, let us also lay aside every weight and the sin that clings so closely, and let us run with perseverance the race that is set before us, looking to Jesus the pioneer and perfecter of our faith, who for the sake of the joy that was set before him endured the cross, disregarding its shame, and has taken his seat at the right hand of the throne of God.

Hear the word of the Lord, thanks be to God.

A reading from the Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to Luke, Chapter 12. 32 - 40.

Glory to you, Lord Jesus Christ

'I came to bring fire to the earth, and how I wish it were already kindled! I have a baptism with which to be baptized, and what stress I am under until it is completed! Do you think that I have come to bring peace to the earth? No, I tell you, but rather division! From now on, five in one household will be divided, three against two and two against three; they will be divided:

father against son and son against father, mother against daughter and daughter against mother, mother-in-law against her daughter-in-law and daughter-in-law against mother-in-law.'

He also said to the crowds, 'When you see a cloud rising in the west, you immediately say, "It is going to rain"; and so it happens. And when you see the south wind blowing, you say, "There will be scorching heat"; and it happens. You hypocrites! You know how to interpret the appearance of earth and sky, but why do you not know how to interpret the present time?

'And why do you not judge for yourselves what is right? Thus, when you go with your accuser before a magistrate, on the way make an effort to settle the case, or you may be dragged before the judge, and the judge hand you over to the officer, and the officer throw you in prison. I tell you, you will never get out until you have paid the very last penny.'

For the Gospel of the Lord,
Praise to you Lord Jesus Christ

Mission 18th August

3 World Vision Target - is to increase in the number of children who are well nourished. Adequate nutrition prior to birth and in a child's early years is essential.

Children's nutrition levels tell about the food supply, and poverty levels, as well as overall wellness in a community. The negative impact of chronic malnutrition upon children under three is irreversible. High stunting levels, wasting and being underweight for children under the age of three years, must be prevented as much as possible.

Please pray for -

* Adequate food supplies shared and distributed evenly across nations and communities.

* Adequate nutrition of children prior to birth and in the first three years of their lives.

M.D. Goal 3 - Promote Gender Equality & Empower Women.

Millennium Goals Target - to eliminate gender disparity in all levels of education. To seek that women lead communities in development and recovery from emergencies. All program's take extreme care to pave the way for them and respond to their issues.

Please pray -

* To see women and girls honoured and encouraged, rather than objectified and exploited.

* For equality and acceptance of men and women to be active members of the community.

* To see boys grow into men of integrity who are caring and protective

* Praise God for his love of all people - male and female.

Please continue to pray for the Parish sponsored world vision children, for their ongoing wellbeing and education, for their families, and the community in which they live.

The Parish currently is behind budget on their World Vision mission target, this is currently totalling only half of our pledged scheduled monthly commitment. As a result, this places the responsibility onto Parish Council to honour the commitment - and the monies needed to sponsor the children are met through the regular Parish income.

Coralie Taylor - Mission Secretary.

Please pray for

Kim Hinder, Natalie, Anne, Joel, Catherine Tizard, Desley Cook, Bette Lindsay, Patricia Luxford, Beth Cross, Maureen Howard, George, Angela, Enid, Kate, Wendy,
