Fr. Roy writes: We have come to the Fifth Sunday of the Lenten season. During this time with prayer, fasting and almsgiving, along with the discipline of studying some of the Scriptures we have worked towards a closer relationship with God through the life, passion, death, and resurrection of Jesus the Christ, the Anointed One, the Messiah for God's people.

While we have been working away with our Lenten discipline, we, along with the rest of the world have been contending with the continued drama of the Omicron strain of the COVID-19 pandemic along with the dreadful situation in the Russian war with Ukraine.

This situation has us calling out loudly, "Lord, when will our broken world come together with some degree of normality once more?"

In relation to the pandemic, many countries, including our own, are determined to live with the pandemic as they lift restrictions that have determined a changed behaviour of the people.

This changed behaviour includes less socialization, more social distancing, wearing a face mask and other hygiene practices, less attendance at Sunday worship during lockdowns and for some after lockdowns finished for personal health issues. For some people it has provided an opportunity for a deeper prayer life and other spiritual exercises like a reading of the Scriptures, meditation, and contemplation.

During this period Fr. Mark, the Reverend Ann Watson, and Fr. Roy have contributed week by week in the Sunday Bulletin with an article concerning doctrinal teaching, or spiritual articles concerning prayer, self-examination for thanksgiving, repentance and forgiveness, meditation and contemplation and seeking to live in the Presence of God in everyday life. Many of you have expressed your gratitude for the writing and publication of these articles.

Now with the lifting of many of the restriction under which we have been living, we need to consider what will be the new normal for ourselves. Will we simply resume the way we did things pre-pandemic, or have we found a better way during the pandemic? As we look at the new landscape there are a few questions to ask ourselves. Are we able to maintain regular and frequent attendance at Sunday worship and Wednesday or Friday during the week and maintain a deeper prayer life, and Sacred Reading of the Scriptures, that is, Lectio Divina, at least a few times a week?

This is our future if we are to continue growth in individual lives, in our life as a parish and in the Church throughout the world as we learn to live daily in the Presence of God in everyday life.

Here is a prayer for your Lenten journey.

Almighty God,
may we, by the prayer and discipline of Lent,
enter the mystery of Christ's sufferings;
that by following in the Way,
we may come to share in the glory;
through Jesus Christ our Lord. AMEN.

Keep well, keep safe, keep social distancing, and the blessing of God be upon you and on all who you love and pray for and may your days and nights be holy, good, and peaceful. AMEN.

WHY DO WE DO HOLY WEEK?

For Christians, Holy Week is a final and intense preparation for Easter. It begins on Palm Sunday 10th April. We carry palms in procession as a reminder of Jesus' triumphant entry into Jerusalem. Why palms? The palm branch was a symbol of triumph and victory. Jesus' procession was like a modern-day ticker tape parade. The people were celebrating because God had promised them a Messiah. And here he was. On Palm Sunday we read the Passion or Gospel Narrative of Jesus' last hours of earthly life. Christ came to us to establish God's peaceful kingdom in love but within a few days we turned on him.

On Wednesday of Holy Week 13th April, priests and deacons gather with the Bishop at the Cathedral to renew their vows of service as we are reminded that Jesus continues serving us through the gift of the Eucharist. The oils for the sacraments are blessed at this special Chrism Mass during Holy Week.

On Holy Thursday (or Maundy Thursday) 14th April in the evening, we read about Jesus' washing the feet of his twelve Apostles. Why foot washing? Love means serving others. Jesus gets down on his hands and knees, dressed as a slave with a towel around his waist, and serves us, commanding we do the same. "For I have set you an example, that you also should do as I have done to you" (John 13:15). On Holy Thursday we also commemorate the institution of the Eucharist at Jesus' Last Supper.

On Good Friday 15th April Christians remember Jesus' crucifixion and death. On this day we do not celebrate the Eucharist but gather to recall Jesus' Passion, to pray for the world, and to venerate the cross. Veneration of the cross is done by approaching the cross and kneeling, kissing, standing or touching it out of respect. Why venerate the cross? As a piece of cloth (like a flag) is cherished for what it symbolises, a simple wooden cross is revered as a sign of Christ's victory. We receive Holy Communion using the Sacrament reserved from the Maundy Thursday Eucharist.

Holy Saturday 16th April After letting go, before something new, there is an awkward in-between. Christ is in the tomb. When night falls, we celebrate the Easter Vigil. The New Fire is lit. Why fire? It is a symbol of the light of Christ entering the darkness and overcoming it by his resurrection. From this fire the paschal (from Pesach or Passover) candle is lit and placed in its stand. It is alight for liturgies during the 50-day Easter season and then at baptisms and funerals as a reminder of life conquering death. New members are sometimes initiated into the Church through baptism and/or confirmation. Christians renew their baptismal vows, committing themselves to continue Jesus' work of building God's Kingdom through love.

Easter Day 17th April is not just the culmination of Holy Week but the beginning of a whole new way of life. Every time we celebrate Mass we celebrate these events; every Sunday is Easter. Every communion is a resurrection. Jesus' love, service, and sacrifice present to us. Always. Come along and have a blessed Holy Week and a Happy Easter!

Sentence

Those who go out weeping, bearing the seed for sowing, shall come home with shouts of joy, carrying their sheaves.

Psalm 126.6

Prayer of the Day

O God,
the Redeemer of all who trust in you:
heed the cry of your people,
and deliver us from the bondage of sin,
that we may serve you in perfect freedom
and rejoice in your unfailing love;
through Jesus Christ our Saviour,
who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit,
one God, for ever and ever. Amen.

A reading from Isaiah Chapter 43 verses 16 - 21

Thus says the LORD,
who makes a way in the sea,
a path in the mighty waters,
who brings out chariot and horse,
army and warrior;
they lie down, they cannot rise,
they are extinguished, quenched like a wick:
Do not remember the former things,
or consider the things of old.
I am about to do a new thing;
now it springs forth, do you not perceive it?
I will make a way in the wilderness
and rivers in the desert.

The wild animals will honour me,
the jackals and the ostriches;
for I give water in the wilderness,
rivers in the desert,
to give drink to my chosen people,
the people whom I formed for myself
so that they might declare my praise.

Hear the word of the Lord.
Thanks be to God.

Psalm 126

1 When the Lord turned again the fortunes of Zion:
then were we like those restored to life.

2 Then was our mouth filled with laughter:
and our tongue with singing.

3 Then said they among the heathen:
'The Lord has done great things for them.'

4 Truly the Lord has done great things for us:
and therefore we rejoiced.

5 Turn again our fortunes, O Lord:
as the streams return to the dry south.

6 Those who sow in tears:
shall reap with songs of joy.

7 They that go out weeping, bearing the seed:
shall come again in gladness,
bringing their sheaves with them.

A reading from the Letter of Paul to the Philippians Chapter 3 verses 3 - 14

For it is we who are the circumcision, who worship in the Spirit of God and boast in Christ Jesus and have no confidence in the flesh— even though I, too, have reason for confidence in the flesh.

If anyone else has reason to be confident in the flesh, I have more: circumcised on the eighth day, a member of the people of Israel, of the tribe of Benjamin, a Hebrew born of Hebrews; as to the law, a Pharisee; as to zeal, a persecutor of the church; as to righteousness under the law, blameless.

Yet whatever gains I had, these I have come to regard as loss because of Christ. More than that, I regard everything as loss because of the surpassing value of knowing Christ Jesus my Lord. For his sake I have suffered the loss of all things, and I regard them as rubbish, in order that I may gain Christ and be found in him, not having a righteousness of my own that comes from the law, but one that comes through faith in Christ, the righteousness from God based on faith. I want to know Christ and the power of his resurrection and the sharing of his sufferings by becoming like him in his death, if somehow I may attain the resurrection from the dead.

Not that I have already obtained this or have already reached the goal; but I press on to make it my own, because Christ Jesus has made me his own. Beloved, I do not consider that I have made it my own; but this one thing I do: forgetting what lies behind and straining forward to what lies ahead, I press on towards the goal for the prize of the heavenly call of God in Christ Jesus.

Hear the word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ, king of endless glory!

Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ, king of endless glory!

With all your heart turn to me,

for I am tender and compassionate.

Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ, king of endless glory!

The Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to John Chapter 12 verses 1 - 8

Glory to you Lord Jesus Christ.

Six days before the Passover Jesus came to Bethany, the home of Lazarus, whom he had raised from the dead. There they gave a dinner for him. Martha served, and Lazarus was one of those at the table with him. Mary took a pound of costly perfume made of pure nard, anointed Jesus' feet, and wiped them with her hair. The house was filled with the fragrance of the perfume. But Judas Iscariot, one of his disciples (the one who was about to betray him), said, 'Why was this perfume not sold for three hundred denarii and the money given to the poor?' (He said this not because he cared about the poor, but because he was a thief; he kept the common purse and used to steal what was put into it.) Jesus said, 'Leave her alone. She bought it so that she might keep it for the day of my burial. You always have the poor with you, but you do not always have me.'

For the Gospel of the Lord.

Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ.

Please pray for:

Prayer of the Week

We thank you, heavenly Father,
that you have delivered us from the power of darkness
and brought us into the kingdom of your Son:
we pray that
as by his death he has recalled us to life,
so by his presence abiding in us he may raise us
to joys eternal;
through Jesus Christ your Son our Lord,
who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit,
one God, now and for ever. Amen.

Reflection:

Solitude begins with a time and place for God, and God alone. If we really believe not only that God exists but also that God is actively present in our lives – healing, teaching, and guiding – we need to set aside a time and space to give God our undivided attention. Jesus says, "Go to your private room and, when you have shut your door, pray to your /father who is in that secret place. (Matt. 6:6).

Prayerfully, Reverend Ann.

ANGLICAN BOARD OF MISSION
Working for Love, Hope & Justice

Lent 5C – Sunday 3 April 2022

Isaiah 43.16-21; Psalm 126; Philippians 3.3-14; John 12.1-8

In today's gospel reading we find Judas carping about the cost of the ointment that Mary spreads over the feet of Jesus in an act of love. St John tells us that this was because Judas used to embezzle the disciples' common funds. If I were to examine myself, would I find areas of my life where I complain about others to cover my own iniquity? • Jesus Christ, the Suffering Servant, may I not fool myself or others into thinking I am good when I behave badly. • Give thanks for the distinctive contribution that Torres Strait Islanders make to the Anglican Church of Australia • Give thanks for Transparency International and other organisations that work to eliminate the injustice of corruption.
