Prayer and anointing for healing are available at each Eucharist. If you would like prayer and anointing, please move in front of the step, at the left side of the altar, after receiving communion and a priest will come and minister to you.

"GOING ON RETREAT"

"So what exactly do you do on a retreat?" That question is asked of me occasionally and I usually answer, "Very little, really." Each day the retreatants gather in the Chapel for Morning Prayer, Eucharist, Evening Prayer and Compline (Night Prayer). The retreat conductor delivers an address after Morning and Evening Prayer. Breakfast, lunch and dinner are eaten together in silence in the dining room. They are the only scheduled activities; the rest of the time is spent according to the individual's choice.

The intent of a retreat is not just to have a rest or holiday, nor is it to catch up on work. Laptops and mobile phones should be left at home! There's no TV or radio. This is a time for silent waiting on God. Fr Grant Bullen, the retreat conductor in 2008, said, "The silence of a retreat is an active, alert and attentive silence." In a world of constant clamour, noise and distraction, it is often difficult to simply be silent and listen for the voice of God. "The heart of prayer is paying attention."

Sometimes the voice of God seems to be speaking quite clearly through the addresses. Other times the addresses can leave one quite cold and the silence is an empty void. Either way it doesn't matter. I find it helpful to simply be in the presence of God. At times that involves nothing more than sitting and looking at the trees and the water and the birds. At other times it means time spent in the Chapel, kneeling in silent adoration before the Blessed Sacrament, or praying the Stations of the Cross. It may be prayerful reading of the scriptures in one's room. Thoughts and reflections may be written in a journal. It may be a 'sensory walk', taking in the sights, sounds and smells, walking along slowly enough to notice and observe in a contemplative way. I try to live out what the late Benedictine monk John Main said: "Learning to pray is learning to live as fully as possible in the present moment."

Retreats are not designed only for 'religious professionals' or 'super-spiritual' people. Even in the Christian churches, activity, busyness, and noise are the order of the day it seems. Many people are turning to religions like Buddhism because they are seen as expert spiritual guides. We are not seen to be so. This is an indictment on us! People in our churches must become spiritual through prayer, scripture and tradition. Priests must lead by example. The future of the church doesn't lie in new programmes, techniques, methods or structures, but in a call to prayer, holy living and a deepening spirituality.

Fr Mark

Sentence

God's love has been poured into our hearts by the Holy Spirit who has been given to us.

Romans 5.5

Prayer of the Day

O God, who taught the hearts of your faithful people by sending to them the light of your Holy Spirit: grant us by the same Spirit to have a right judgement in all things, and evermore to rejoice in his holy comfort; through the merits of Christ Jesus our Saviour, who lives and reigns with you, in the unity of the same Spirit, one God, now and for ever. Amen.

Prayer for the Ordained Ministry of the Church - Ember Week 5th - 10th June

Almighty God, the giver of all good gifts, by your Holy Spirit you have appointed various orders of ministry in your Church: look with mercy and favour on all who are called to serve you in the sacred ministry, that they may faithfully serve you to the glory of your name and the benefit of your Church and people;

through Jesus Christ our Lord, who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit,
one God, now and for ever. Amen.

A reading from Genesis
Chapter 11 verses 1 - 9

Now the whole earth had one language and the same words. And as they migrated from the east, they came upon a plain in the land of Shinar and settled there. And they said to one another, 'Come, let us make bricks, and burn them thoroughly.' And they had brick for stone, and bitumen for mortar. Then they said, 'Come, let us build ourselves a city, and a tower with its top in the heavens, and let us make a name for ourselves; otherwise we shall be scattered abroad upon the face of the whole earth.' The LORD came down to see the city and the tower, which mortals had built. And the LORD said, 'Look, they are one people, and they have all one language; and this is only the beginning of what they will do; nothing that they propose to do will now be impossible for them. Come, let us go down, and confuse their language there, so that they will not understand one another's speech.' So the LORD scattered them abroad from there over the face of all the earth, and they left off building the city. Therefore it was called Babel, because there the LORD confused the language of all the earth; and from there the LORD scattered them abroad over the face of all the earth.

Hear the word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

Psalm 104.26-36

26 Lord, how various are your works:
in wisdom you have made them all,
and the earth is full of your creatures.

27 There is the wide, immeasurable sea:
there move living things without number, great and small;

28 There go the ships, to and fro:
and there is that Leviathan whom you formed to sport in the deep.

29 These all look to you:
to give them their food in due season.

30 When you give it to them, they gather it:
when you open your hand
they are satisfied with good things.

31 When you hide your face, they are troubled:
when you take away their breath,
they die and return to their dust.

32 When you send forth your spirit they are created:
and you renew the face of the earth.

33 May the glory of the Lord endure for ever:
may the Lord rejoice in his works.

34 If he look upon the earth, it shall tremble:
if he but touch the mountains, they shall smoke.

35 I will sing to the Lord as long as I live:
I will praise my God while I have any being.

36 May my meditation be pleasing to him:
for my joy shall be in the Lord.

A reading from Acts of the Apostles Chapter 2 verses 1 –21

When the day of Pentecost had come, they were all together in one place. And suddenly from heaven there came a sound like the rush of a violent wind, and it filled the entire house where they were sitting. Divided tongues, as of fire, appeared among them, and a tongue rested on each of them. All of them were filled with the Holy Spirit and began to speak in other languages, as the Spirit gave them ability.

Now there were devout Jews from every nation under heaven living in Jerusalem. And at this sound the crowd gathered and was bewildered, because each one heard them speaking in the native language of each. Amazed and astonished, they asked, 'Are not all these who are speaking Galileans? And how is it that we hear, each of us, in our own native language? Parthians, Medes, Elamites, and residents of Mesopotamia, Judea and Cappadocia, Pontus and Asia, Phrygia and Pamphylia, Egypt and the parts of Libya belonging to Cyrene, and visitors from Rome, both Jews and proselytes, Cretans and Arabs—in our own languages we hear them speaking about God’s deeds of power.’ All were amazed and perplexed, saying to one another, ‘What does this mean?’ But others sneered and said, ‘They are filled with new wine.’

But Peter, standing with the eleven, raised his voice and addressed them: ‘Men of Judea and all who live in Jerusalem, let this be known to you, and listen to what I say. Indeed, these are not drunk, as you suppose, for it is only nine o’clock in the morning. No, this is what was spoken through the prophet Joel: “In the last days it will be, God declares, that I will pour out my Spirit upon all flesh, and your sons and your daughters shall prophesy, and your young men shall see visions, and your old men shall dream dreams. Even upon my slaves, both men and women, in those days I will pour out my Spirit; and they shall prophesy.

And I will show portents in the heaven above and signs on the earth below, blood, and fire, and smoky mist. The sun shall be turned to darkness and the moon to blood, before the coming of the Lord’s great and glorious day. Then everyone who calls on the name of the Lord shall be saved.”

Hear the word of the Lord.
Thanks be to God.

Alleluia, alleluia!

Come, Holy Spirit, fill the hearts of your faithful and kindle in them the fire of your love.

Alleluia!

The Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to John Chapter 14 verses 8 - 17

Glory to you Lord Jesus Christ.

Philip said to him, 'Lord, show us the Father, and we will be satisfied.' Jesus said to him, 'Have I been with you all this time, Philip, and you still do not know me? Whoever has seen me has seen the Father. How can you say, "Show us the Father"? Do you not believe that I am in the Father and the Father is in me? The words that I say to you I do not speak on my own; but the Father who dwells in me does his works. Believe me that I am in the Father and the Father is in me; but if you do not, then believe me because of the works themselves. Very truly, I tell you, the one who believes in me will also do the works that I do and, in fact, will do greater works than these, because I am going to the Father. I will do whatever you ask in my name, so that the Father may be glorified in the Son. If in my name you ask me for anything, I will do it.

'If you love me, you will keep my commandments. And I will ask the Father, and he will give you another Advocate, to be with you for ever. This is the Spirit of truth, whom the world cannot receive, because it neither sees him nor knows him. You know him, because he abides with you, and he will be in you.

For the Gospel of the Lord.
Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ.

Please pray for:

Sharon Sandstrom, Angarad O'Malley, Tania Howlett, David Lamb, Gloria Townsend, Val Stratford, Irene Neville, Denise Perry, Ron Langley, Michelle Davies, Jo, Ray Wilmot , Fr John Southerden, Don Anderson, Steve Taylor, Lynette Brennan, Di. M, Robyn Smith, Cal and Monty Priest and Carmen McGee.

Prayer of the Week

O Lord, from whom alone all good things come:
grant that by your holy inspiration
we may think those things that are good,
and by your merciful guiding
may perform them;
through our Lord Jesus Christ. Amen.

TRINITY SUNDAY - MORNING TEA

Next Sunday is our Feast of Title and we will be sharing morning tea after both the 8am and 9.30am services. Please bring a plate of food to share. Thank you.

'WHISPERS OF LOVE' A MEDITATION

We meet on a Monday at 10.00am at Holy Trinity, Terrigal.

Reflection:

Prayer is not a competition, not an experience of winning or of accumulating good feelings and great insights.

Prayer is about 'showing up' with an open mind and heart, being willing and ready to grow and change.

Prayer Joyce Rupp

Prayerfully, Reverend Ann.

THANK YOU BOXES AND POUCHES

These are available to everyone, so please take one and place a coin in it whenever you receive a blessing.

Money collected by the Anglican Women will go toward Numeracy and Literacy Programs in New Guinea late in 2022. Thank you.

SAMARITANS

Thank you to the congregation for being excellent givers of donations for the Samaritans. Items are urgently needed now and include, soups, tinned vegetables, spaghetti & sauce, and items for the coming winter.

Thank you.

DINNER AT TERRIGAL BOWLING CLUB

Please join us for dinner at Terrigal Bowling Club at 'Bec's Kitchen' tonight, Sunday 5th June, 2022 from 6pm. If you are interested, please add your name to the sign-up sheet on the notice board immediately after the service. Thank you.

WOMEN'S FELLOWSHIP

We encourage and welcome ladies from all services to join us in Women's Fellowship. We generally meet on the second Monday of the month at 1pm at Church, finishing with afternoon tea but, due to the public holiday in June, we will be meeting on the third Monday in June, the 20th at 12 noon followed by a bring and share lunch. Please join us. Thank you.
Pam Flegg.

SEA SUNDAY 10th JULY

Sea Sunday gives the parish the opportunity to reflect on and support the work of the Mission to Seafarers.

More than 90% of the world's goods and fuels are transported around the world thanks to seafarers. The Mission is on call providing help for seafarers in over 200 ports around the world. The over 1.5 million seafarers across the world are often away from home for many months. This can lead to loneliness and mental health issues.

At the Port of Newcastle, the Mission to Seafarers provides chaplaincy support, access to Wi-Fi and SIM cards, a comfortable place to rest, food and toiletries as well as clothing, transport to shops, among other things.

We can provide support in the following ways:

For those who can knit, there are beanie kits available for you to take.

You can also bring warm socks and toiletries.

Leave any of these items at the office.

Thank you for your help.

Libby Harvey.

VOLUNTEER NEEDED FOR ROSTER CO-ORDINATION

Do you like to organize? Would you like to serve? We are starting up rosters again and need a volunteer to co-ordinate the monthly rosters for Greeters and Sidespersons. This will be an ongoing role where you will organise people for a monthly roster which will be sent to the office for printing. If you need help initially, Cal in the office can be of assistance. Please see Fr Mark or call Cal on Tuesday or Thursday on 4365 1115 or email her at admin@terrigalnglican.org.au if you are interested in volunteering for this role. Thank you.

MARKET DAY - 18th JUNE

Market day is coming up on the 18th June. Once again, we will need all the help we can get when setting up on Friday 17th June and especially when packing away and clearing up on Saturday. If you can come at 12.30pm for an hour on Saturday to pack up, we would love to see you. Your help is always appreciated. Thank you.
Ian Wolstenholme.

OP SHOP VOLUNTEERS NEEDED

We are looking for more volunteers for our Op Shop on Thursday and Friday. Can you spare a few hours? We would be most grateful. Op Shop volunteers need to complete a Police Check and the Safer Ministry Course, along with some other requirements prior to commencement. If you are interested in joining our lovely team, please see one of our managers, Carolyn Shields or Julie Laird, in the Op Shop or call them on 4365 1280 for more details.

GARDEN WORKING BEE

We are having a Garden Working Bee on Saturday 2nd July, 2022 from 8.30am onwards. We need help weeding, trimming & general tidying up. Please come if you can, even for a short time. Every little bit helps! Thank you.
Jackie Davidson.

ONE USE PLASTIC BAGS FOR OP SHOP

Due to new laws on one-use plastics, when donating bags to the Op Shop of Market Day, we cannot accept thin ones that are one-use bags. Please don't donate them as they will have to go to landfill and will cost us to dispose of them. Thank you.
Carolyn Shields.

ANGLICAN BOARD OF MISSION
Working for Love, Hope & Justice

Pentecost / Whitsunday C – Sunday 5 June 2022

- Genesis 11.1-9; Psalm 104.26-36; Acts 2.1-21; John 14.8-17 (25-27)

Today we read St Luke's account of the descent of the Holy Spirit on to the disciples in Jerusalem. Rushing wind was heard and tongues of fire were seen. Some heard their own languages from around the Mediterranean being spoken by Galileans.

Meanwhile, as ever, some scoffed and mocked. Peter assures the crowd that this is the fulfillment of the prophecy of Joel, after which time everyone who calls on the Name of the Lord will be saved. If I were to examine myself, would I find times in my life where I had mocked others for their faith in God? How might I look for the Spirit in my life?

- Jesus Christ, Lord of the Church, help me to recognise when your Spirit is asking me to do something, and to do precisely that.
- Give thanks for the work and witness of the Episcopal Church of Jerusalem and the Middle East.
