

Welcome to worship at Holy Trinity, Terrigal
ELEVENTH SUNDAY AFTER PENTECOST
21st August, 2022

8.00am – Sung Eucharist Presiding & Preaching – Fr Mark Watson
Organist – Chris Sillince
Hymns: TIS 227, 245, 237, 569

9.30am – Holy Eucharist Presiding – Fr Roy Hazlewood
Preaching – Fr Mark Watson
Organist – Sharon Sandstrom
Hymns: TIS 227, 245, 237, 569

[All hymns are from Together in Song unless otherwise specified.]

Prayer and anointing for healing are available at each Eucharist. If you would like prayer and anointing, please move in front of the step, at the left side of the altar, after receiving communion and a priest will come and minister to you.

FR ROY WRITES: The Lambeth Conference 2022 of bishops from throughout the Anglican Communion has concluded and the Archbishop of Canterbury, Justin Welby gave a short summary of outcomes from his point of view. Some of that which I write is not a direct quotation of his words: it is more my summary of his summary and to apply it to ourselves, while other parts are a quotation from his preaching at the final Eucharist of the conference. I trust that this makes sense to you.

The first thing that gained my attention was that among such a diverse group of women and men, all bishops of the Anglican Communion, from different countries, different cultures and languages and different interpretations of Scriptures, the way that the Love of Christ grew within them for themselves and one another during their time together in prayer, in worship, in learning in small groups and larger ones, in social conversations and in times of solitude.

This, of course, does not apply only to bishops attending a Lambeth Conference, but to every parish and congregation throughout the world. In the words of Scripture "See how these Christians love one another." This was used in a derogatory way when it was first used, and it can be used in the same way to-day where the world is so self-centred with an attitude of "every person for themselves and don't care about the others." I do not believe, however, that this is 100 per cent true of everyone who is not a Christian. I witness daily acts of human kindness to others who are unknown to us and who need our help.

The archbishop, also, reflected upon the difference that periods of solitude made to the lives of participants during the conference. This practice, used daily, is important for you and me to have some time quietly in the conscious Presence of God and to be open to what God will make known to us.

As we continue to know and experience God's love for us and for all God's people we are thrown back to our mission in the world. We, as individual committed Christians, and the Church as a whole, are called back to the Five Marks of Mission – Tell, Teach, Tend, Transform and Treasure.

TELL- To know the Gospel and to be able to tell it to other people and be able to say something about their own testimony of their love and meeting with Jesus Christ, Welby said. "They may not be eloquent, their theology may be slightly crude, but when they speak from the heart, others listen," and their transformed lives and their ways of worship illustrate their words.

TEACH – This is our responsibility to provide resources for the formation of the life and faith, and belief of the new Christian.

TEND – This is the pastoral care of that person during the ups and downs of their Christian life and to respond to human need with loving kindness to the best of one's ability.

TRANSFORM – This is the transforming of life with Christian ethics and virtues to be walking more and more in the way of Jesus. This applies, also, to the ills of society, seeking justice and peace, and reconciliation among people and nations.

TREASURE – This is a Christian treasure to the world, called to be a saint who lives in a way with Jesus in love and humility in eternal life on earth as in heaven. This treasure includes striving to safeguard the integrity of Creation and sustain and renew the life of the earth.

It is essential that we, as a parish and church within the Anglican Communion, that each of us understands that we are to be witnesses to the Gospel and the Christian way of life because we are baptised and filled with the Holy Spirit. We belong to the Church of the living God who brings us to hope of life eternal.

Keep well, keep safe, keep social distancing, continue to wear a face mask and the blessing of God be upon you and on all who you love and pray for and may your days and nights be holy, good, and peaceful. AMEN

Sentence

You, O Lord, are my hope, my trust from my youth. Upon you have I leaned since my birth.

Psalm 71.5-6

Prayer of the Day

O God, the Judge of all,
through the saving blood of your Son
you have brought us to the heavenly Jerusalem and given us a kingdom which cannot be shaken:
fill us with reverence and awe in your presence, that in thanksgiving we and all your Church may offer you acceptable worship;
through Jesus Christ our Lord, who lives to intercede for us, now and for ever. Amen.

A Reading from Isaiah Chapter 58 verse 9b – 14

Then you shall call, and the LORD will answer;
you shall cry for help, and he will say, Here I am.

If you remove the yoke from among you,
the pointing of the finger, the speaking of evil,
if you offer your food to the hungry and satisfy the needs of the afflicted, then your light shall rise in the darkness and your gloom be like the noonday.

The LORD will guide you continually, and satisfy your needs in parched places,
and make your bones strong;

and you shall be like a watered garden,
like a spring of water,
whose waters never fail.

Your ancient ruins shall be rebuilt;
you shall raise up the foundations of many generations;
you shall be called the repairer of the breach,
the restorer of streets to live in.

If you refrain from trampling the sabbath,
from pursuing your own interests on my holy day;
if you call the sabbath a delight and the holy day of the LORD honourable;
if you honour it, not going your own ways,
serving your own interests, or pursuing your own affairs;

then you shall take delight in the LORD,
and I will make you ride upon the heights of the earth;
I will feed you with the heritage of your ancestor Jacob,
for the mouth of the LORD has spoken.

Hear the word of the Lord.
Thanks be to God.

Psalm 103.1-8

1 Praise the Lord, O my soul:
and all that is within me, praise his holy name.

2 Praise the Lord, O my soul:
and forget not all his benefits,

3 Who forgives all your sin:
and heals all your infirmities,

4 Who redeems your life from the Pit:
and crowns you with mercy and compassion;

5 Who satisfies your being with good things:
so that your youth is renewed like an eagle's.

6 The Lord works righteousness: and justice for all who are oppressed.

7 He made known his ways to Moses:
and his works to the children of Israel.

8 The Lord is full of compassion and mercy:
slow to anger and of great goodness.

A Reading from the Letter of the Hebrews Chapter 12, verses 18 – 29.

You have not come to something that can be touched, a blazing fire, and darkness, and gloom, and a tempest, and the sound of a trumpet, and a voice whose words made the hearers beg that not another word be spoken to them. (For they could not endure the order that was given, 'If even an animal touches the mountain, it shall be stoned to death.' Indeed, so terrifying was the sight that Moses said, 'I tremble with fear.') But you have come to Mount Zion and to the city of the living God, the heavenly Jerusalem, and to innumerable angels in festal gathering, and to the assembly of the firstborn who are enrolled in heaven, and to God the judge of all, and to the spirits of the righteous made perfect, and to Jesus, the mediator of a new covenant, and to the sprinkled blood that speaks a better word than the blood of Abel.

See that you do not refuse the one who is speaking; for if they did not escape when they refused the one who warned them on earth, how much less will we escape if we reject the one who warns from heaven! At that time his voice shook the earth; but now he has promised, 'Yet once more I will shake not only the earth but also the heaven.' This phrase 'Yet once more' indicates the removal of what is shaken—that is, created things—so that what cannot be shaken may remain. Therefore, since we are receiving a kingdom that cannot be shaken, let us give thanks, by which we offer to God an acceptable worship with reverence and awe; for indeed our God is a consuming fire.

Hear the word of the Lord.
Thanks be to God.

Alleluia, alleluia!

I am the way, the truth, and the life, says the Lord;
no one comes to the Father, except through me.

Alleluia!

The Gospel of Our Lord Jesus Christ according to Luke, Chapter 13, verses 10 – 17.

Glory to you Lord Jesus Christ.

Now he was teaching in one of the synagogues on the sabbath. And just then there appeared a woman with a spirit that had crippled her for eighteen years. She was bent over and was quite unable to stand up straight. When Jesus saw her, he called her over and said, 'Woman, you are set free from your ailment.' When he laid his hands on her, immediately she stood up straight and began praising God. But the leader of the synagogue, indignant because Jesus had cured on the sabbath, kept saying to the crowd, 'There are six days on which work ought to be done; come on those days and be cured, and not on the sabbath day.' But the Lord answered him and said, 'You hypocrites! Does not each of you on the sabbath untie his ox or his donkey from the manger, and lead it away to give it water? And ought not this woman, a daughter of Abraham whom Satan bound for eighteen long years, be set free from this bondage on the sabbath day?' When he said this, all his opponents were put to shame; and the entire crowd was rejoicing at all the wonderful things that he was doing.

For the Gospel of the Lord.

Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ.

Please pray for:

Prayer of the Week

Creator God,
you have made us for yourself,
and our hearts are restless until they find their rest in you:
teach us to offer ourselves to your service,
that here we may have your peace,
and in the world to come may see you face to face;
through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

'WHISPERS OF LOVE' A MEDITATION

We meet each Monday at Holy Trinity Terrigal at 10.00am.

Reflection: Without some quiet reflection, some solitude and stillness, our inner eyes will eventually be too blurred and weary to discover God in the rushing of our demanding days.

Prayer Joyce Rupp

Prayerfully, Reverend Ann.

SAMARITANS

Thank you to the congregation for being excellent givers of donations for the Samaritans. Items are urgently needed now and include soups, tinned vegetables, spaghetti & sauce, and items during winter.

Thank you.

OP SHOP VOLUNTEERS NEEDED

We are looking for more volunteers for our Op Shop on Thursday and Friday. Can you spare a few hours? We would be most grateful. Op Shop volunteers need to complete a Police Check and the Safer Ministry Course, along with some other requirements regarding safety of vulnerable people and children prior to commencement. If you are interested in joining our lovely team, please see one of our managers, Carolyn Shields or Julie Laird, in the Op Shop or call them on 4365 1280 for more details.

RESUMPTION OF WEDNESDAY EUCHARIST AND SACRED READING

At the beginning of winter this group decided to close for the winter and resume in August. This winter has been a very cold and dark time. With this in mind we have postponed the resumption until Wednesday 7 September at 5.00pm for the Eucharist followed by Sacred Reading for approximately an hour. Both events are open to everyone. You are welcome to attend one and not the other if that suits your circumstances.

Is God asking you to participate in these events to enable you to grow further in your spiritual life and relationship with God through Jesus and the work of the Holy Spirit in your life? The requirements to participate in Sacred Reading is an openness to God's Word and a Bible from which you can read the Gospel for the following Sunday Eucharist.

Fr. Roy

VOLUNTEER NEEDED FOR ROSTER CO-ORDINATION

We need a volunteer to co-ordinate the monthly rosters for Greeters and Sidespersons. This will be an ongoing role where you will organise people for a monthly roster which will be sent to the office for printing. Please see Fr Mark or call Cal in the office on Tuesday or Thursday on 4365 1115 or email her at admin@terrigalanglican.org.au if you are interested in volunteering for this role. Thank you.

CHILDREN AT RISK – HOW TO IDENTIFY AND WHAT TO DO

We encourage all staff, volunteers and parishioners to be vigilant about children at risk of harm. To learn more about what this looks like and what to do, please visit:

<https://www.facs.nsw.gov.au/families/Protecting-kids/reporting-child-at-risk/harm-and-neglect>

Thank you.

ANGLICAN WOMEN

All women in the parish are welcome to attend the annual Spring Celebration of the Anglican Women of Australia on Tuesday 6th September, to be held at St Peter's East Maitland commencing with morning tea at 9.30am followed by a Eucharist at 10.30am and a talk by a speaker from ABM on the Literacy and Numeracy program in PNG after that.

The money collected in the Thank You boxes and pouches goes towards this program.

Do speak to Pam Flegg and other members of the Women's Fellowship group if you want more information. More details are also in the brochure on the notice board.

FAITHFULNESS IN SERVICE

It is our duty of care to make sure the Faithfulness in Service document is accessible to all staff, volunteers and families.

As such, here is the link to the full document:

<https://www.newcastleanglican.org.au/wp-content/uploads/2020/08/Faithfulness-in-Service-Anglican-Diocese-of-Newcastle-July-2020.pdf>

We have also printed the full document which you can find in a folder on the table at the entrance to the main chapel. We have also printed off several smaller booklets if you would like to take one home with you. If there are none left, please call Cal in the office on 4365 1115 on Tuesday or Thursday between 10am and 2pm or email the office at:

admin@terrigananglican.org.au to get one printed for you or emailed out.

Thank you.

ONE USE PLASTIC BAGS FOR OP SHOP

Due to new laws on one-use plastics, when donating bags to the Op Shop or Market Day, we cannot accept thin ones that are one-use bags. Please don't donate them as they will have to go to landfill and will cost us to dispose of them. Thank you. Carolyn Shields.

MISSION NEWS

What happened to the beanies??

Last Friday Richard and I visited the Mission to Seafarers in Newcastle. We took with us over 350 beanies, 30 pairs of socks, a box of toiletries and 4 boxes of Bibles that have come through the Op Shop.

We had a tour of the premises and a chat to the manager. The seafarers are gradually coming ashore and visiting the centre. Many of the ships still won't let their crew off the ship as Australia is considered a COVID unsafe port.

The mission is taking Care Bags onto the ships. These contain beanies, socks, toiletries, other clothes and chocolate among other things. They love the chocolates!

THANK YOU ALL FOR YOUR GIFTS OF LOVE. THEY ARE GREATLY APPRECIATED BY THE SEAFARERS.

Libby Harvey

MISSION SECRETARY

GARDEN WORKING BEE

Saturday 27th August, 2022 at 8:30am

Please come & help if you can. We need help with weeding, raking, fertilizing, pruning etc.

We would like to have a BEE every month on the last Saturday. The next one would be Saturday 24th September, 2022.

Thank you. Jackie Davidson

THANK YOU BOXES AND POUCHES

These are available to everyone, so please take one and place a coin in it whenever you receive a blessing. Money collected by the Anglican Women will go toward Numeracy and Literacy Programs in New Guinea late in 2022.

Thank you.

SAFE MINISTRY TRAINING

Every three years all clergy, staff and volunteers are required to undergo the Safe Ministry training. This training is now only online and is free.

Here is the link: <https://ocg.nsw.gov.au/training-and-resources/elearning>

If you need to search for the course name, it is called: OCG – Child Safe – Keeping children safe in organisation e-Learning modules.

Volunteers need to complete the first 9 modules and Clergy need to complete all 11 modules.

As the training has changed, regardless of your last training date, we are asking all clergy, staff and volunteers to complete the new training.

Once you have completed the training, please either email the certificate of completion or bring a hard copy into the office so that I can update your record with the new date of completion.

If you do not have access to a computer or you need assistance navigating the course or need help to complete the course, please speak to me on 4365 1115 (between 10am-2pm Tuesday or Thursdays) or email me at:

admin@terrigalanglican.org.au and I will be happy to arrange to help you.

Thank you.

Cal Priest.

Ordinary Sunday [Pentecost 11] Sunday 21 August 2022

• Jeremiah 1.4-10; Psalm 71.1-6; Hebrews 12.18-29; Luke 13.10-17

St Luke tells us in today's Gospel reading about how Jesus healed a crippled woman. Despite this restorative act of God there was outrage from synagogue leader because the healing had been performed on the Sabbath. Where in our lives do we grumble against the good things that God has done for others?

• Jesus Christ, Healer of the sick, help me see where you have acted so that I can praise God, rather than embracing hypocrisy and futile anger. May I celebrate the wonderful things you have done for others.

• Give thanks for the work and witness of the Anglican Church of Korea, the Daehan Seong Gong Hoe.
