SEASONS BEGINNINGS AND ENDINGS

Towards the end of the Church Year, our lectionary readings focus on the end times and the reign of Christ in glory.

At the beginning of November, we celebrate the Feast of All Saints on November 1st. It can also be celebrated on the first Sunday in November, so we are observing it on Sunday 6th November. All Saints is an opportunity to celebrate those heroes of faith who by the witness of their lives and often by their deaths, serve as examples of faithfulness to our Lord in all circumstances of life.

All Souls' Day, the 2nd November, gives us an opportunity to remember with gratitude those known to us personally who have entered the nearer presence of God. They are often the "unsung heroes" of faith whom we have known and whose memory we hold dear. The Eucharist for All Souls will be celebrated by Fr Roy Hazlewood in the Founders' Chapel at 5pm this Wednesday, 2nd November at 5pm. If you would like a loved one remembered at this Eucharist, please write his/her name on the sheet on the table in the narthex and they will be mentioned during the Intercessions.

The last Sunday of the Church Year is the Feast of Christ the King. This looks to the fulfillment of all things in the reign of Christ in glory. It is also a time to reaffirm our allegiance to the kingdom of God as opposed to those "lesser kingdoms" that seek to rule our lives. We then move into Advent, the season of waiting and preparation for the coming of God among us in the Incarnation of Jesus at Christmas, and his coming again in glory at the end of the age.

Fr Mark

Sentence

'I am the resurrection and the life,' says the Lord. 'Those who believe in me, even though they die, will live, and everyone who lives and believes in me will never die.'

John 11.25-26

Prayer of the Day

God of all the living,
in the resurrection of Christ Jesus
you have given us the promise of life which death itself cannot destroy:
in strength of this unshakeable promise,
give us a new heart to live, even now, as your new creation.
We ask this through your Son, our Lord Jesus Christ,
who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit,
one God, for ever and ever. Amen.

A Reading from Daniel Chapter 7, verses 1 – 3 and 15 – 18

In the first year of King Belshazzar of Babylon, Daniel had a dream and visions of his head as he lay in bed. Then he wrote down the dream: I, Daniel, saw in my vision by night the four winds of heaven stirring up the great sea, and four great beasts came up out of the sea, different from one another. As for me, Daniel, my spirit was troubled within me, and the visions of my head terrified me. I approached one of the attendants to ask him the truth concerning all this. So he said that he would disclose to me the interpretation of the matter: 'As for these four great beasts, four kings shall arise out of the earth. But the holy ones of the Most High shall receive the kingdom and possess the kingdom for ever—for ever and ever.'

Hear the word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

Psalm 149

1 O praise the Lord, and sing to the Lord a new song:
O praise him in the assembly of the faithful.

2 Let Israel rejoice in him that made him:
let the children of Zion be joyful in their king.

3 Let them praise him in the dance:
let them sing his praise with timbrel and with harp.

4 For the Lord takes delight in his people:
he adorns the meek with his salvation.

5 Let his faithful ones exult in his glory:
let them sing for joy upon their beds.

6 Let the high praises of God be in their mouths:
and a two-edged sword in their hands,

7 To execute vengeance on the nations:
and chastisement upon the peoples,

8 To bind their kings in chains:
and their nobles with fetters of iron,

9 To visit upon them the judgement that is decreed:
such honour belongs to all his faithful servants.
Praise the Lord.

A Reading from The Letter of Paul to the Ephesians Chapter 1, verses 11 – 23

In Christ we have also obtained an inheritance, having been destined according to the purpose of him who accomplishes all things according to his counsel and will, so that we, who were the first to set our hope on Christ, might live for the praise of his glory. In him you also, when you had heard the word of truth, the gospel of your salvation, and had believed in him, were marked with the seal of the promised Holy Spirit; this is the pledge of our inheritance towards redemption as God's own people, to the praise of his glory.

I have heard of your faith in the Lord Jesus and your love towards all the saints, and for this reason I do not cease to give thanks for you as I remember you in my prayers. I pray that the God of our Lord Jesus Christ, the Father of glory, may give you a spirit of wisdom and revelation as you come to know him, so that, with the eyes of your heart enlightened, you may know what is the hope to which he has called you, what are the riches of his glorious inheritance among the saints, and what is the immeasurable greatness of his power for us who believe, according to the working of his great power. God put this power to work in Christ when he raised him from the dead and seated him at his right hand in the heavenly places, far above all rule and authority and power and dominion, and above every name that is named, not only in this age but also in the age to come. And he has put all things under his feet and has made him the head over all things for the church, which is his body, the fullness of him who fills all in all.

Hear the word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

Alleluia, alleluia!

Come to me, all you that labour and are burdened,
And I will give you rest, says the Lord.

Alleluia!

The Gospel of Our Lord Jesus Christ according to Luke, Chapter 6, verses 20 – 31.

Glory to you Lord Jesus Christ.

Then he looked up at his disciples and said:

'Blessed are you who are poor,
for yours is the kingdom of God.

'Blessed are you who are hungry now,
for you will be filled.

'Blessed are you who weep now,
for you will laugh.

'Blessed are you when people hate you, and when they exclude you, revile you, and defame you on account of the Son of Man. Rejoice on that day and leap for joy, for surely your reward is great in heaven; for that is what their ancestors did to the prophets.

'But woe to you who are rich,
for you have received your consolation.

'Woe to you who are full now,
for you will be hungry.

'Woe to you who are laughing now,
for you will mourn and weep.

'Woe to you when all speak well of you, for that is what their ancestors did to the false prophets.

'But I say to you that listen, Love your enemies, do good to those who hate you, bless those who curse you, pray for those who abuse you. If anyone strikes you on the cheek, offer the other also; and from anyone who takes away your coat do not withhold even your shirt. Give to everyone who begs from you;
and if anyone takes away your goods, do not ask for them again. Do to others as you would have them do to you.

For the Gospel of the Lord.

Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ.

Prayer of the Week

Blessed Lord,
you have caused all holy Scriptures to be written
for our learning:
grant that we may so hear them,
read, mark, learn and inwardly digest them,
that, by patience and the comfort of your holy word,
we may embrace and ever hold fast
the blessed hope of everlasting life, which you have given us in our Saviour Jesus Christ. Amen.

'WHISPERS OF LOVE' A MEDITATION

We meet each Monday at Holy Trinity Terrigal at 10.00am.

Reflection: More than anything else, it is the loving contemplation of its Maker that causes the soul to realise its own insignificance, and fills it with holy fear and true humility, and with abundant love to our fellow Christians.

Julian of Norwich

Prayerfully, Reverend Ann.

ANGLICAN BOARD OF MISSION
Working for Love, Hope & Justice

All Saints' Day

Daniel 7.1-3; Psalm 149;
Ephesians 1.11-23; Luke 6.20-31

Today Jesus tells us to love our enemies, do good to those who hate us, bless those who curse us, pray for those who abuse us. As the Burt Bacharach song says, What the world needs now is love, sweet love, No, not just for some but for everyone. It's as true now as it was in Jesus' day. Not just for some but for everyone.

- Give thanks for God's love and forgiveness in your life and pray that you can reflect them to others, no matter how badly they may have treated you in the past, no matter how deep your hurt.
- Give thanks for the work and witness of the Church of the Province of Myanmar.
