Sentence

The Lord will judge the ends of the earth; he will give strength to his king, and exalt the power of his anointed.

1 Samuel 2.10

Prayer of the Day

O God,
welcoming refuge for the outcast,
and upholder of justice for the oppressed:
maintain the hope of the poor,
so that the time may soon come
when no one need want for food and shelter,
and all will learn to share freely
following the example of your Son, who gave his very self;
who now lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit,
one God, for ever and ever. Amen.

A reading from Daniel Chapter 12 verses 1 – 3

¹ 'At that time Michael, the great prince, the protector of your people, shall arise. There shall be a time of anguish, such as has never occurred since nations first came into existence. But at that time your people shall be delivered, everyone who is found written in the book. ² Many of those who sleep in the dust of the earth shall awake, some to everlasting life, and some to shame and everlasting contempt. ³ Those who are wise shall shine like the brightness of the sky, and those who lead many to righteousness, like the stars for ever and ever.

Hear the word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

Psalm 16

1 Preserve me, O God:

for in you have I taken refuge.

2 I have said to the Lord, You are my lord:
and all my good depends on you.

3 As for those who are held holy on the earth:
the other gods in whom people delight,

4 Though the idols are many that they run after:
their offerings of blood I will not offer,
nor take their name upon my lips.

5 The Lord is my appointed portion and my cup:
you hold my lot in your hands.

6 The share that has fallen to me is in pleasant places:
and a fair land is my possession.

7 I will bless the Lord who has given me counsel:
at night also he has instructed my heart.

8 I have set the Lord always before me:
he is at my right hand, and I shall not fall.

9 Therefore my heart is glad and my spirit rejoices:
my flesh also shall rest secure.

10 For you will not give me over to the power of death:
nor suffer your faithful one to see the Pit.

11 You will show me the path of life:
in your presence is the fulness of joy,
and from your right hand flow delights for evermore.

A reading from The Letter to the Hebrews Chapter 10 verses 11 – 14 and 19 – 25

¹¹ And every priest stands day after day at his service, offering again and again the same sacrifices that can never take away sins. ¹² But when Christ had offered for all time a single sacrifice for sins, 'he sat down at the right hand of God', ¹³ and since then has been waiting 'until his enemies would be made a footstool for his feet.' ¹⁴ For by a single offering he has perfected for all time those who are sanctified. ¹⁹ Therefore, my friends, since we have confidence to enter the sanctuary by the blood of Jesus, ²⁰ by the new and living way that he opened for us through the curtain (that is, through his flesh), ²¹ and since we have a great priest over the house of God, ²² let us approach with a true heart in full assurance of faith, with our hearts sprinkled clean from an evil conscience and our bodies washed with pure water. ²³ Let us hold fast to the confession of our hope without wavering, for he who has promised is faithful. ²⁴ And let us consider how to provoke one another to love and good deeds, ²⁵ not neglecting to meet together, as is the habit of some, but encouraging one another, and all the more as you see the Day approaching.

Hear the word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

Alleluia, alleluia!

Be watchful, pray constantly,
that you may be worthy to stand before the Son of Man.

Alleluia!

A reading from the Gospel of Mark
Chapter 13 verses 1 – 11

¹ As he came out of the temple, one of his disciples said to him, 'Look, Teacher, what large stones and what large buildings!' ² Then Jesus asked him, 'Do you see these great buildings? Not one stone will be left here upon another; all will be thrown down.' ³ When he was sitting on the Mount of Olives opposite the temple, Peter, James, John, and Andrew asked him privately, ⁴ 'Tell us, when will this be, and what will be the sign that all these things are about to be accomplished?' ⁵ Then Jesus began to say to them, 'Beware that no one leads you astray. ⁶ Many will come in my name and say, "I am he!" and they will lead many astray. ⁷ When you hear of wars and rumours of wars, do not be alarmed; this must take place, but the end is still to come. ⁸ For nation will rise against nation, and kingdom against kingdom; there will be earthquakes in various places; there will be famines. This is but the beginning of the birth pangs. ⁹ 'As for yourselves, beware; for they will hand you over to councils; and you will be beaten in synagogues; and you will stand before governors and kings because of me, as a testimony to them. ¹⁰ And the good news must first be proclaimed to all nations. ¹¹ When they bring you to trial and hand you over, do not worry beforehand about what you are to say; but say whatever is given you at that time, for it is not you who speak, but the Holy Spirit.

The Gospel of the Lord.
Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ.

Prayer of the Week

Almighty God,
whose sovereign purpose none can make void:
give us faith to be steadfast amid the tumults of this world,
knowing that your kingdom shall come and your will be done,
to your eternal glory;
through Jesus Christ our Lord,
who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit,
one God, now and for ever. Amen.

MISSION NEWS

As we have been focussing on the World Vision children we support of late, I thought I should remind you on how the support works.

As sponsors, we support community-led development work that focusses on achieving the sustained wellbeing of children, especially the most vulnerable.

Experience has found that the best way to support these children is to transform their whole community so that all the children living there can thrive.

World Vision partners with our children's community to understand their needs and strengths. The money goes to support that community to ensure that their children have good health and education, live in a safe and caring environment and have opportunities to participate in community life.

Our sponsorship helps to equip our sponsored children's community to become self-sustaining and continue to develop long after we've gone.

Thank you for being change makers!

Libby Harvey

MISSIONS SECRETARY

THANK YOU BOXES

New Thank You Boxes are now available.

Please take one and put some money in it whenever you receive a Blessing. From now until the end of August 2025, your donations will go to the Barbara May Foundation which builds Hospitals in Africa and staffs them with Doctors, Surgeons, Midwives, Nurses and other care staff.

These hospitals are supporting women by providing safe birth and maternal care. Some women, aged as young as 14 years, suffer horrific, life changing injuries giving birth and often the mother and baby die or become outcasts in their communities following childbirth due to their injuries.

Full Thank You Boxes may be placed in the offertory and a new one taken. Thank you for your support.

ANGLICAN BOARD OF MISSION
Working for Love, Hope & Justice

Ordinary Sunday 33 B – Sunday 17th November 2024

- 1 Samuel 1.4-20; The Song of Hannah (APBA p. 429);
Hebrews 10.11-14 [15-18] 19-25; Mark 13.1-11

Today's gospel was written in the context of the persecution Christians were already beginning to experience. The words are to encourage them (as well as us) in times of trial, rather than point to a timetable for God's actions in the world. Whenever we challenge injustice or speak against the powers of oppression, then the powers will fight back, but we can trust that the Holy Spirit will give us the words we need.

- Pray for Christians round the world who face persecution because of their stand for justice.
- Give thanks for the work and witness of the Amity Foundation, created in 1985 on the initiative of Christians in China with the late Bishop K H Ting as its founder. Its main objective has been to help develop poor areas of the country.
