Revelation 5.13

Prayer of the Day

Almighty God,
through your only Son you overcame death
and opened to us the gate of everlasting life:
grant that we who celebrate our Lord's resurrection,
may, through the renewing power of your Spirit,
rise from the death of sin to the life of righteousness;
through the same Jesus Christ our Lord,
who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit,
one God, now and for ever. Amen.

A Reading from Acts Chapter 9, verses 1 – 6

¹ Meanwhile Saul, still breathing threats and murder against the disciples of the Lord, went to the high priest ² and asked him for letters to the synagogues at Damascus, so that if he found any who belonged to the Way, men or women, he might bring them bound to Jerusalem. ³ Now as he was going along and approaching Damascus, suddenly a light from heaven flashed around him. ⁴ He fell to the ground and heard a voice saying to him, 'Saul, Saul, why do you persecute me?' ⁵ He asked, 'Who are you, Lord?' The reply came, 'I am Jesus, whom you are persecuting. ⁶ But get up and enter the city, and you will be told what you are to do.'

Hear the word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

Psalm 30

¹ I will exalt you, O Lord,
for you have drawn me up from the depths:
and have not suffered my foes to triumph over me.

² O Lord my God, I cried to you:
and you have made me whole.

³ You brought me back, O Lord, from the land of silence:
you saved my life
from among those that go down to the Pit.

⁴ Sing praises to the Lord, all you his faithful ones:
and give thanks to his holy name.

⁵ For if in his anger is havoc,
in his good favour is life:
heaviness may endure for a night,
but joy comes in the morning.

⁶ In my prosperity I said 'I shall never be moved:
your goodness, O Lord, has set me on so firm a hill.'

⁷ Then you hid your face from me:
and I was greatly dismayed.

⁸ I cried to you, O God:
and made my petition humbly to my Lord.

⁹ 'What profit is there in my blood,
if I go down to the Pit:
can the dust give you thanks,
or declare your faithfulness?

¹⁰ 'Hear, O Lord, and be merciful:
O Lord, be my helper.'

¹¹ You have turned my lamentation into dancing:
you have put off my sackcloth and girded me with joy,

¹² That my heart may sing your praise and never be silent:

O Lord my God, I will give you thanks for ever.

A Reading from Revelation Chapter 5, verses 6 – 14

⁶ Then I saw between the throne and the four living creatures and among the elders a Lamb standing as if it had been slaughtered, having seven horns and seven eyes, which are the seven spirits of God sent out into all the earth.

⁷ He went and took the scroll from the right hand of the one who was seated on the throne.

⁸ When he had taken the scroll, the four living creatures and the twenty-four elders fell before the Lamb, each holding a harp and golden bowls full of incense, which are the prayers of the saints.

⁹ They sing a new song:

'You are worthy to take the scroll
and to open its seals,

for you were slaughtered and by your blood you ransomed for God saints from every tribe and language and people and nation;

¹⁰ you have made them to be a kingdom and priests serving our God,

and they will reign on earth.'

¹¹ Then I looked, and I heard the voice of many angels surrounding the throne and the living creatures and the elders; they numbered myriads of myriads and thousands of thousands,

¹² singing with full voice,

'Worthy is the Lamb that was slaughtered to receive power and wealth and wisdom and might and honour and glory and blessing!'

¹³ Then I heard every creature in heaven and on earth and under the earth and in the sea, and all that is in them, singing,

'To the one seated on the throne and to the Lamb be blessing and honour and glory and might for ever and ever!'

¹⁴ And the four living creatures said, 'Amen!' And the elders fell down and worshipped.

Hear the word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

Alleluia, alleluia!

Christ is risen; the Lord of all creation;
he has shown pity on all people.

Alleluia!

The Gospel of Our Lord Jesus Christ according to John Chapter 21 verses 1 – 19

Glory to you Lord Jesus Christ

¹ After these things Jesus showed himself again to the disciples by the Sea of Tiberias; and he showed himself in this way. ² Gathered there together were Simon Peter, Thomas called the Twin, Nathanael of Cana in Galilee, the sons of Zebedee, and two others of his disciples. ³ Simon Peter said to them, 'I am going fishing.' They said to him, 'We will go with you.' They went out and got into the boat, but that night they caught nothing. ⁴ Just after daybreak, Jesus stood on the beach; but the disciples did not know that it was Jesus. ⁵ Jesus said to them, 'Children, you have no fish, have you?' They answered him, 'No.' ⁶ He said to them, 'Cast the net to the right side of the boat, and you will find some.' So they cast it, and now they were not able to haul it in because there were so many fish. ⁷ That disciple whom Jesus loved said to Peter, 'It is the Lord!' When Simon Peter heard that it was the Lord, he put on some clothes, for he was naked, and jumped into the lake. ⁸ But the other disciples came in the boat, dragging the net full of fish, for they were not far from the land, only about a hundred yards off. ⁹ When they had gone ashore, they saw a charcoal fire there, with fish on it, and bread. ¹⁰ Jesus said to them, 'Bring some of the fish that you have just caught.' ¹¹ So Simon Peter went aboard and hauled the net ashore, full of large fish, a hundred and fifty-three of them; and though there were so many, the net was not torn. ¹² Jesus said to them, 'Come and have breakfast.' Now none of the disciples dared to ask him, 'Who are you?' because they knew it was the Lord. ¹³ Jesus came and took the bread and gave it to them, and did the same with the fish. ¹⁴ This was now the third time that Jesus appeared to the disciples after he was raised from the dead. ¹⁵ When they had finished breakfast, Jesus said to Simon Peter, 'Simon son of John, do you love me more than these?' He said to him, 'Yes, Lord; you know that I love you.' Jesus said to him, 'Feed my lambs.' ¹⁶ A second time he said to him, 'Simon son of John, do you love me?' He said to him, 'Yes, Lord; you know that I love you.' Jesus said to him, 'Tend my sheep.'¹⁷ He said to him the third time, 'Simon son of John, do you love me?' Peter felt hurt because he said to him the third time, 'Do you love me?' And he said to him, 'Lord, you know everything; you know that I love you.' Jesus said to him, 'Feed my sheep.'¹⁸ Very truly, I tell you, when you were younger, you used to fasten your own belt and to go wherever you wished. But when you grow old, you will stretch out your hands, and someone else will fasten a belt around you and take you where you do not wish to go.'¹⁹ (He said this to indicate the kind of death by which he would glorify God.) After this he said to him, 'Follow me.'

For the Gospel of the Lord.
Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ.

WHISPERS OF LOVE – A MEDITATION

Our 'Whispers of Love' meditation meets each Monday at 10.00am. All are welcome.

Reflection:

O Lord, the scriptures say,
There is a time for silence,
and a time for speech.

Saviour, teach me
the silence of humility
the silence of wisdom,
the silence of love,
the silence of perfection,
the silence that speaks without words,
the silence of faith.

Lord, teach me to silence in my own heart.
that I may listen to the gentle movement of the Holy Spirit within me
and sense the depths which are of God.

17th Century Prayer

Prayerfully, Reverend Ann.

MISSION NEWS

On July 13th we will be celebrating Sea Sunday.

The Mission to Seafarers has been operating in Australian ports since 1857. For the 1.8 million seafarers across the world life can be lonely, dangerous and uncertain. We might not realise that we all depend on seafarers. 90% of everything we use, from food and medication, to cars and household goods, reaches us via the sea.

Your support for the Mission to Seafarers enables us to care for the shipping industry's most valuable asset, its people.

The Mission to Seafarers in the Port of Newcastle provides a safe haven for seafarers to rest, have access to chaplaincy services and other spiritual care, be given simple pleasures like toiletries, chocolate, beanies, books to read, free bibles. They can relax in comfortable surroundings, watch TV or play snooker.

Our tradition has been to knit beanies, provide socks and toiletries.

Today the beanie kits are available for those that knit.

This is a gift of love from us to the seafarers that come into the Port of Newcastle.

Thank you for your support.

ANGLICAN BOARD OF MISSION
Working for Love, Hope & Justice

Easter 3 C – Sunday 4 May 2025

Acts 9.1-6 [7-20]; Psalm 30; Revelation 5.6-14; John 21.1-19

In today's Gospel reading the disciples do not immediately recognise the risen Jesus, just as the disciples on the road to Emmaus and Mary Magdalene in the garden at the tomb did not. However, when he commands them to throw out the nets and they bring in a full catch (Luke 5) they realise exactly who he is.

- Lord, help the scales to fall from my eyes so that I recognise you each time I encounter you in the world.
- Give thanks for the work and witness of the Church of the Province of Myanmar.

DV SUNDAY: HOPE & LIGHT
Sunday, May 4
Across the Anglican Church of Australia

✨ What is DV Sunday?

DV Sunday (Domestic Violence Sunday) is a national initiative that shines a light on the reality of domestic and family violence — including within our churches — and affirms the church's commitment to respond with care, compassion and action.

Research commissioned by the Anglican Church of Australia found that more than 1 in 3 women and 1 in 7 men in our churches have experienced some form of domestic violence. Tragically, many do not feel able to seek support from their church community.

DV Sunday encourages churches to:

- Raise awareness about domestic and family violence
- Pray for those affected
- Support the church's response and prevention work

♥ What Is the Church Doing?

Since 2021, the Anglican Church has committed to long-term change through:

- Training clergy and church leaders
- Providing resources to support safe and respectful communities
- Listening to survivors and creating safer responses
- Promoting prevention and education across all age groups

This work is coordinated by the Families & Culture Commission, formed by the General Synod to lead our church-wide efforts.
