Sentence

'I am the resurrection and the life,' says the Lord. 'Those who believe in me, even though they die, will live, and everyone who lives and believes in me will never die.'

John 11.25-26

Prayer of the Day

God of all the living, in the resurrection of Christ Jesus you have given us the promise of life which death itself cannot destroy:
in the strength of this unshakeable promise, give us a new heart to live, even now, as your new creation.
We ask this through your Son, our Lord Jesus Christ, who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever. Amen.

Prayer for the Defence Forces

Eternal God, the only source of peace, we pray for all who serve in the defence forces of this land.
Give them courage and comfort in danger, patience in waiting, and discipline in the just use of force.
Help us to seek for all people the freedom to serve you and each other in compassion and peace.
We ask this through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

A Reading from Job Chapter 19, verses 23 – 27a

²³ 'O that my words were written down!
O that they were inscribed in a book!
²⁴ O that with an iron pen and with lead they were engraved on a rock for ever!
²⁵ For I know that my Redeemer lives,
and that at the last he will stand upon the earth;
²⁶ and after my skin has been thus destroyed,
then in my flesh I shall see God,

²⁷ whom I shall see on my side,
and my eyes shall behold, and not another.
My heart faints within me!

Hear the word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

Psalm 17.1-9

¹ Hear my just cause, O Lord, give heed to my cry:
listen to my prayer, that comes from no lying lips.

² Let judgement for me come forth from your presence:
and let your eyes discern the right.

³ Though you search my heart, and visit me in the night-time:
though you try me by fire,
you will find no wickedness in me.

⁴ My mouth does not transgress, like the mouth of others:
for I have kept the word of your lips.

⁵ My steps have held firm in the way of your commands:
and my feet have not stumbled from your paths.

⁶ I call upon you, O God, for you will surely answer:
incline your ear to me, and hear my words.

⁷ Show me the wonders of your steadfast love,
O saviour of those who come to you for refuge:
who by your right hand deliver them from those that rise up against them.

⁸ Keep me as the apple of your eye:
hide me under the shadow of your wings,

⁹ From the onslaught of the wicked:
from my enemies that encircle me to take my life.

A Reading from 2 Thessalonians Chapter 2 verses 1 – 5 and 13 – 17

¹ As to the coming of our Lord Jesus Christ and our being gathered together to him, we beg you, brothers and sisters, ² not to be quickly shaken in mind or alarmed, either by spirit or by word or by letter, as though from us, to the effect that the day of the Lord is already here. ³ Let no one deceive you in any way; for that day will not come unless the rebellion comes first and the lawless one is revealed, the one destined for destruction. ⁴ He opposes and exalts himself above every so-called god or object of worship, so that he takes his seat in the temple of God, declaring himself to be God. ⁵ Do you not remember that I told you these things when I was still with you? ¹³ But we must always give thanks to God for you, brothers and sisters beloved by the Lord, because God chose you as the first fruits for salvation through sanctification by the Spirit and through belief in the truth. ¹⁴ For this purpose he called you through our proclamation of the good news, so that you may obtain the glory of our Lord Jesus Christ. ¹⁵ So then, brothers and sisters, stand firm and hold fast to the traditions that you were taught by us, either by word of mouth or by our letter. ¹⁶ Now may our Lord Jesus Christ himself and God our Father, who loved us and through grace gave us eternal comfort and good hope, ¹⁷ comfort your hearts and strengthen them in every good work and word.

Hear the word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

Alleluia, alleluia!

This is the will of my Father, says the Lord, that I should lose nothing of all that he has given to me,
and that I should raise it up on the last day.

Alleluia!

The Gospel of Our Lord Jesus Christ according to Luke, Chapter 20, verses 27 – 40

Glory to you Lord Jesus Christ.

²⁷ Some Sadducees, those who say there is no resurrection, came to him ²⁸ and asked him a question, 'Teacher, Moses wrote for us that if a man's brother dies, leaving a wife but no children, the man shall marry the widow and raise up children for his brother. ²⁹ Now there were seven brothers; the first married, and died childless; ³⁰ then the second ³¹ and the third married her, and so in the same way all seven died childless. ³² Finally the woman also died. ³³ In the resurrection, therefore, whose wife will the woman be? For the seven had married her.' ³⁴ Jesus said to them, 'Those who belong to this age marry and are given in marriage; ³⁵ but those who are considered worthy of a place in that age and in the resurrection from the dead neither marry nor are given in marriage. ³⁶ Indeed they cannot die any more, because they are like angels and are children of God, being children of the resurrection. ³⁷ And the fact that the dead are raised Moses himself showed, in the story about the bush, where he speaks of the Lord as the God of Abraham, the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob. ³⁸ Now he is God not of the dead, but of the living; for to him all of them are alive.' ³⁹ Then some of the scribes answered, 'Teacher, you have spoken well.' ⁴⁰ For they no longer dared to ask him another question.

For the Gospel of the Lord.
Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ.

Prayer of the Week

Blessed Lord, you have caused all holy Scriptures to be written for our learning:
grant that we may so hear them, read, mark, learn and inwardly digest them, that, by patience and the comfort of your holy word, we may embrace and ever hold fast the blessed hope of everlasting life, which you have given us in our Saviour Jesus Christ. Amen.

Please consider coming to join in this lovely activity in the Church on Friday 28th November 2025 at 2pm. You don't need to bring anything, just yourself would be wonderful! Looking forward to seeing you at Holy Trinity.

A DATE FOR YOUR DIARY

The 2026 Spring Celebration for Anglican Women in the Diocese of Newcastle will be held next year on Tuesday 1st September 2026 in St Peter's Anglican Church, East Maitland.

Transport will be available for those wishing to attend.

St Peter's is a magnificent Church, and the Celebration is a wonderful day of worship and fellowship with women from other churches in the Diocese.

Sadly, this year's event was poorly attended by representatives from the many churches in the Diocese. It is hoped that you will set this date aside now and join us next year. The Celebration is always held on the first Tuesday in September.

Elsa Sorensen - Anglican Women's Representative.

Remembrance Day Commemoration

In Flanders Fields

In Flanders fields the poppies blow between the crosses, row on row, that mark our place; and in the sky
the larks, still bravely singing, fly scarce heard amid the guns below.
We are the Dead. Short days ago we lived, felt dawn, saw sunset glow,
Loved and were loved, and now we lie
In Flanders fields.

Take up our quarrel with the foe:
to you from failing hands we throw the torch; be yours to hold it high.
If ye break faith with us who die we shall not sleep, though poppies grow in Flanders fields.

Last Post

One Minute Silence is observed

The Ode

*They shall grow not old,
as we that are left grow old:
Age shall not weary them,
nor the years condemn.
At the going down of the sun and in the morning
We will remember them.
We will remember them*

Lest we forget.
Lest we forget

The Rouse

Let us pray

Creator God, we thank you for this opportunity to gather and remember. In that spirit we call to mind all who have fought in defence of our nation and in the cause of freedom and lasting peace. We pray for all servicemen and women and their families and especially those who, at such cost, have experienced the torment of death, maiming, disability and loss caused by war. Notably on Remembrance Day we shall remember those embroiled in the horrors and cruelty and inhumanity of World War 1.

We pray for all who have lived at a time when warfare has overtaken their daily living and imposed dreadful burdens and demands upon them. Most especially we give thanks for the courage and perseverance manifest by so many, known and unknown, who have endured courageously so that the spirit of destruction and hopelessness might be overwhelmed by your power and will for new beginnings, abundant life and Godly optimism.

We thank you for the hope we have in our time because the sacrifice of others has enabled costly peace. May we honour that sacrifice in the quality of our lives, the choices we make and our own respect for freedom and the dignity of all humankind. May we honour our debt to others in our disciplines of remembering and thanksgiving, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Australian National Anthem (verse 1)

Australians all let us rejoice
For we are one and free
We've golden soil and wealth for toil,
Our home is girt by sea:
Our land abounds in nature's gifts
Of beauty rich and rare,
In history's page let every stage
Advance Australia fair,
In joyful strains then let us sing
Advance Australia fair.

Blessing

The peace of God which passes all understanding keep your hearts and minds in the knowledge and love of God, and of his Son, Jesus Christ our Lord; and the blessing of God almighty, the Father, the Son and the Holy Spirit, be among you and remain with you always. Amen

The Dismissal

Go in the peace of Christ.
Thanks be to God
